Tomah Area School District Face Covering Superintendent Recommendation to Board of Education September 7, 2021 Board Academy Meeting Tomah High School Main Gym 6:30 p.m.

Mandatory Face coverings Effective September 9, 2021:

- Students 3K-12
    i. Universal face coverings during the academic day while indoors.
- Employees
    i. Universal face coverings required for all employees during the academic day while indoors
        1. Exceptions
            a. When alone and working in own environment (6ft bubble)
            b. When lecturing and maintaining 6 feet of distance from students.
- Visitors to buildings must wear face covering during the academic day.
- Face coverings required when riding a bus.

Accommodations for this policy will be considered on an individualized basis for students, employees, and visitors who cannot wear a face covering due to disability or sincerely-held religious beliefs. (But only individuals with disabilities will be considered for accommodations with respect to face coverings on the bus due to the federal orders).
