

CODE TO THE Future

El Cerrito proudly partners with Code to the Future to bring daily coding and computer programming to students in transitional kindergarten through sixth grade. Through LEGO Robotics, Scratch, Minecraft, and more, students build creativity, confidence, and problem-solving skills while developing a foundation for understanding emerging technologies, including artificial intelligence (AI).

For more information, explore Code to the Future.

Check out our Epic Build Showcase Videos!

