

Eighth Grade Math

In eighth grade mathematics, the students learn about real numbers and exponents. They also learn about expressions, equations, and functions. The students eventually use this knowledge to solve systems of equations (where two lines cross). They also do work with the Pythagorean Theorem, volume, and several other topics.