Steel Valley Senior Signs Baseball Letter of Intent for Delaware College

Munhall, PA – Steel Valley High School Senior Brady Miller signed his letter of intent to play baseball at Goldey–Beacom College in Delaware.

Miller is the son of Joe and Cortney Miller of Munhall and has been the starting catcher for the Ironmen since day one of his freshman year. During his career with the Ironmen, Miller’s batting average was (.341) with 46 home runs and he’s thrown out over 33 percent of would-be base stealers over his three years.

Miller was voted all-section catcher as a sophomore when he helped lead the Ironmen to a 10-0 section record.

Good Luck Brady!
