FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Steel Valley School District Commencement Thursday, June 6

Munhall, PA – The public is invited to attend Steel Valley School District’s 48th Annual Commencement 7 p.m., Thursday, June 6 at the William V. Campbell Athletic Field in Munhall on West Run Rd. (weather permitting); 100 students will be graduating.

Featured will be 2019 Valedictorian Robert Vinay giving the Senior Academic Address and Salutatorian Isabella Furrick giving the Welcome Address.

This year’s Distinguished Alumni Speaker will be Dr. Armani A. Davis, Class of 2010.

Dr. Davis is a faculty member at Indiana University of Pennsylvania in the School of Developmental Studies and Communications Media. His vision in life is to guide today’s youth into a successful tomorrow, and he believes education is the primary tool for seeking meaningful work and relationships in life. He also believes that to best assist our communities, we must start with our youth and work to educate them and provide them with the essential resources for success.

Dr. Davis holds a bachelor’s degree from Duquesne University, a master’s from Edinboro University, and a Ph.D. from Robert Morris University.

In case of inclement weather, Commencement will be held in the High School Gym. A decision to move indoors will be posted on the District website (steelvalleysd.org), on the main phone number 412-464-3600, and on the High School marquee.

No tickets are needed. There will be shuttle service between the High School parking lot and the Campbell Athletic Field beginning at 6 p.m. for guests and returning at the Ceremony’s conclusion.
