

Hi boys and girls!

First graders, Grandparents' Day was awesome! I had a lot of fun, and I hope you and your grandparents did too! The Book Fair was great – I'm going to spend some time this weekend reading a good book, and I hope you do too.

Please remind your parents that it's really important for you to be in school if you're not sick. Kids who miss just two days of school a month are less likely to graduate from high school.

We have some important announcements for your parents from the PTO:

- Thank you for shopping at our Book Fair this week! We have another Book Fair scheduled for February so you still have a chance to get some great books!
- Thanks again to all those who sold hoagies. Parents don't forget they come in on Wednesday September 18th at 3pm in the cafeteria. PTO will be there until 4pm. There is nowhere for storage, so please plan accordingly.
- Cash Bash tickets are still on sale. Please see any PTO Officer for your ticket. As always, tables of 10 get reserved seating. Do you really want to miss the T-Rex races?
- With all the activities and events coming up please make sure you turn your clearances into the office! If you have any questions please reach out to any PTO Officer.

Have a nice weekend boys and girls, and I'll see you on Monday!
