

Hi boys and girls!

Thanks for making Veterans Day so special! The veterans really appreciated it.

Congratulations to those of you who had perfect attendance for the first nine weeks! The Perfect Attendance Assembly today was awesome! If you didn't have perfect attendance this nine weeks, don't worry – you still have three more chances this year!

Please remind your parents that there's no school on Wednesday because of Parent/Teacher Conferences.

Have a nice weekend boys and girls, and I'll see you on Monday!
