

-Hi boys and girls!

There's no school next Thursday and Friday because of Spring Break, and you're also off on April 5th and 6th! Hopefully you'll be able to enjoy some nice weather!

Please remind your parents that absences can be excused for a limited number of reasons, including illness, quarantine, and a death in the family. More detailed information regarding attendance can be found on Page 1 in the Handbook.

We have some important announcements from the PTO:

- This is the last call for Sarris Candy. The sale ends March 29th.
- Fourth grade parents should send in their well wishes for the memory book.

Have a nice weekend boys and girls!
