

Position Announcement

Independence Community College

The Tutoring Center Community Volunteer Tutor

Independence Community College (ICC) is seeking applications for the position of Community Tutor. Independence Community College, rural, residential community college in southeast Kansas, serving the needs of full and part-time students. Independence Community College is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

Qualifications

Strong academic achievement (i.e. A or B in courses offered through the tutoring center). Have an impressive work ethic and be able to show examples of responsibility taking, punctuality and professionalism. Have a strong desire to help others.

Working Conditions/Physical Requirements

The physical demands described here are representative of those that must be met by an employee to successfully perform the essential functions of a Community Tutor. Reasonable accommodations may be made to enable individuals with disabilities to perform the essential functions, but only after full disclosure by the applicant.

1. Position generally requires light work with occasional lifting of 20 pounds or more, carrying supplies, equipment. The job requires varying amounts of sitting, climbing, kneeling, standing and walking.
2. This position requires the ability to sit and stand for extended periods of time. It also requires constant hand grasp and finger dexterity; extended standing, walking and repetitive leg and arm movements; occasional bending; reaching forward, side-to-side, downward and overhead; and squatting and kneeling. The ability to effectively communicate with a comprehension of the English language is essential.
3. Work is generally performed in an indoor setting.

Primary Responsibilities

1. Tutoring students in a variety of subject areas.
2. Supervising student computer usage.
3. Completion of CRLA tutor training.
4. Filing and miscellaneous office maintenance Position Information

This is a volunteer position.

Application Procedure

These positions are open until filled.