

Downers Grove North High School science teacher Jeff Grant is a finalist for the Golden Apple Awards.

Photo provided

DGN teacher is finalist for Golden Apple award

SUBURBAN LIFE MEDIA

DOWNERS GROVE – Golden Apple has selected Downers Grove North High School science teacher Jeff Grant as a finalist in the 2016 Golden Apple Awards for Excellence in Teaching, according to a Community High School District 99 news release.

Grant is one of 30 finalists chosen from more than 400 nominations of high school teachers in the Chicago area.

According to Golden Apple, the awards “recognize and honor outstanding teachers for their role in building a stronger, better-educated society.”

Grant has taught at the school since 2003 and is also an alumnus, graduating in 1998.

Besides teaching classes, he is the faculty sponsor of the Science Club.

According to the release, Grant

Know more

Downers Grove North High School science teacher Jeff Grant is one of 30 finalists for the Golden Apple Awards for Excellence in Teaching. He was chosen from more than 400 nominations of high school teachers in the Chicago area. Golden Apple will announce 10 winners later this spring after a final round of reviews and classroom observations.

makes it a priority to bring real-world scientists into the classroom such as a neuroscientist from Northwestern University and a botanist from the Morton Arboretum.

Golden Apple will announce 10 winners later this spring after a final round of reviews and classroom observations.