

Downers Grove students earn national art and writing awards

DOWNERS GROVE – Five students from Downers Grove North High School and two students from Downers Grove South High School received national medals in the 2016 Scholastic Art & Writing Awards competition, according to a Community High School District 99 news release.

Claire Pikul of South won two gold medals in the digital art category for “Paper Chase” and “Struck.”

Aubrey Saha of North earned a gold medal in the drawing and illustration category for “Am I Pretty?”

Olivia Wojciak and Angela Wong, both of North, won silver medals in the ceramics and glass category, and Alessandra Lane of South and Jessica Novotny of North won silver medals in the photography category.

Emma Wilson of North received a silver medal for her poem, “On Flight.”

– Suburban Life Media