Anabaptist Mennonite Biblical Seminary serves the church as a learning community with an Anabaptist vision, educating followers of Jesus Christ to be leaders for God's reconciling mission in the world.

● eligibilityFull-time Mennonite students who qualify for financial aid at a rate of 40 through 50 percent of tuition:

The student will receive the percentage of aid for which he or she qualifies plus a dollar-for-dollar matching grant of up to $1,000 per year ($500 per term; maximum of two terms) for contributions received from the congregation and/or conference.

Full-time Mennonite students who qualify for financial aid at a rate of less than 40 percent of tuition:

The student will receive the percentage of aid for which he or she qualifies plus a dollar-for-dollar matching grant of up to $1,000 per year ($500 per term; maximum of two terms) and a 25-percent match on contributions beyond $500 per term for contributions received from the congregation and/or conference.

Full-time other-than-Mennonite students who qualify for financial aid:

The student may receive up to 30 percent of tuition in AMBS financial aid plus a dollar-for-dollar matching grant of up to $1,000 per year ($500 per term; maximum of two terms) and a 25-percent match on contributions beyond $500 per term for contributions received from the congregation and/or conference.

Part-time students:

A part-time admitted student may receive a 25-percent matching grant up to a maximum of $125 per term for a maximum of two terms for contributions received from the congregation and/or conference.

One-course, non-admitted students:

One-course students who have not been admitted are not eligible to receive AMBS matching grants.

AMBS financial aid, including matching grants, will not exceed the cost of a student's tuition for the semester.

● instructions

1. A church partnership form must be completed, including the appropriate church official's signature, and submitted to the Financial Aid Office. Incomplete forms will not be processed.
2. Church partnership forms should be submitted along with the student's financial aid application.
3. Church contributions (checks/money orders) must be payable to Anabaptist Mennonite Biblical Seminary with the student's name included in the "memo" portion or check stub.
