

ABOUT BRYAN

Itinerant Bible teacher and singer/song-writer, known especially for his “songs of faith for small and tall,” Bryan Moyer Suderman of Kitchener, Ontario, has spent the last 25 years finding creative ways to engage all ages in Scripture.

For five years he’s been working through each of the canonical Gospels, exploring how they portray Jesus as interpreter of Scripture in addressing the challenges and debates of the day.

As a result of this study — now the focus of his master’s thesis and itinerant Bible teaching ministry — Bryan is finding that Jesus’ approach to Scripture has much to teach us. In fact, it has the potential to transform the way we relate to Scripture and to each other.

As a pastor, I struggle to find ways to motivate people to read the Bible and to really think deeply about what it says to us today.

Bryan expresses such a passion for studying Scripture that people are drawn in to deeper discussions before they realize it!

When he teaches about the way Jesus creatively used Scripture, Bryan models that same approach for us.

—Cameron Kaufman-Frey, former pastor of Community Mennonite Church of Stouffville, Ontario

His music is captivating, his lyrics are theologically rich and thought-provoking, and his voice invites us all to live God’s kingdom wherever we are.

—Brian McLaren and David M. Csinos, authors and speakers

Bryan is a gifted teacher of all ages with his inviting spirit and thoughtful biblical and theological engagement. “Reading the Bible with Jesus” explores the many-layered way our Scriptures must be read and understood for today and is an invigorating experience of Bible study to inspire the Church.

—Alissa Bender, pastor, Hamilton (Ontario) Mennonite Church

LEARN MORE

Anabaptist Mennonite Biblical Seminary
Church Leadership Center
3003 Benham Avenue
Elkhart, IN 46517-1999

574.296.6269 or 800.964.2627 ext. 269
churchleadership@ambs.edu

ambs.edu/readingthebibleworkshop

www.ambs.edu

READING THE BIBLE WITH JESUS

A WEEKEND WITH
BRYAN MOYER SUDERMAN

WHO NEEDS THE BIBLE?

- Does your busy life squeeze out any hope of studying Scripture on a regular basis?
- Are you pretty sure you learned enough Scripture in Sunday school to get you through life?
- Do Bible studies sometimes feel like a case of “the blind leading the blind”?
- Do you find yourself asking why the church makes such a big deal of an ancient Book when the world’s pressing issues need up-to-date solutions?
- Do you hear people quote pet Scriptures just to prove their point?
- Do you ever wonder if some Christians might be misusing the Bible to further their own agenda?

WHAT WOULD JESUS DO?

Like us, Jesus and the people of his time had to figure out how to respond to their “hot-button” issues in light of the commands and stories of the Holy Scripture that they loved and revered. Jesus continually interpreted and re-interpreted Scripture to address difficult issues. And he worked with Scripture in ways that would surprise Christians on all sides of today’s theological and political debates.

What can followers of Jesus today learn from Jesus’ approach to Scripture? What if today’s Christians not only sought to imitate how Jesus lived and how he treated people, but also how he read and interpreted Scripture?

TO HOST A SEMINAR

E-mail churchleadership@ambs.edu or call 574.296.6269 (800.964.2627 ext. 269).

COME READ THE BIBLE WITH JESUS!

Wouldn’t it be amazing to journey into Scripture with Jesus? What might Jesus say to us about our lives, our world and the hard issues facing the church today?

HOSTING A SEMINAR

Join with others in your community, church, conference, area church or other group to host Bryan Moyer Suderman for one or more weekends of “Reading the Bible with Jesus.”

When: On a mutually-agreed upon Friday evening through Saturday afternoon

Where: A camp, retreat center, church or school near you

What: Each weekend Bryan will lead your group in exploring one Gospel together through study, prayer and listening to the Holy Spirit. This could be one weekend or a series of two or more weekends.

During each seminar you will:

1. Dig deep into one of the Gospels to see how Jesus is portrayed as an interpreter of Scripture as he preaches, teaches and heals the people of his day.
2. Gain tools for reading and interpreting Scripture like Jesus in light of the world we live in today.
3. Meet sisters and brothers who are committed to serious Scripture study and to discerning the mind of Christ through prayer and listening to the Holy Spirit.

How: Schedules can be adapted to fit your needs. A sample weekend schedule could include four sessions of one and a half hours each.

Capacity: Bryan is happy to work with groups of any size.

Languages: English or Spanish

Damos gracias a Dios por la variedad de dones que ha dado a nuestro hermano Bryan, los cuales comparte con mucha pasión. La sencillez, profundidad y claridad con la que imparte este curso demuestra su entendimiento y conocimiento en la materia.

—Maciel Hernandez, moderadora, Iglesia Menonita Nueva Vida, Toronto, Ontario

We give thanks to God for the variety of gifts that God has given to our brother Bryan, who shares them with much passion. The simplicity, profundity and clarity with which he leads this course shows his understanding and knowledge of the material.

—Maciel Hernandez, moderator, New Life Mennonite Church, Toronto, Ontario

CONGREGATIONAL WORSHIP AND CONCERTS FOR ALL AGES

Along with “Reading the Bible with Jesus” workshops, Bryan accepts invitations to lead Sunday morning congregational worship experiences and community or neighborhood concerts.

In his congregational worship experiences, Bryan weaves together Scripture, songs and spoken reflections in a dynamic way that appeals to all ages. His concerts are interactive and inspirational and make excellent opportunities to reach out to the community.

www.smalltallministries.com