

ENGAGING THE COMMUNITY

At Notre Dame, we view our entire community as a classroom. Our new building will reflect our commitment to a campus without borders, welcoming our community in and encouraging our students to navigate out. San Jose should be proud of Notre Dame's campus and inspired by the standard we set.

96 classes went on walking field trips last year to

26 different downtown destinations

21,963 community service hours served by students last year

268 organizations served through community service

$439,260

economic impact of community service hours served by students