Red Ribbon WEEK

October 26th-30th

Be
Drug Free.
Live a
Better
Tomorrow!

During Red Ribbon Week, schools across the nation join together to promote a drug-free lifestyle and encourage students to make positive, healthy choices. It is an ideal way for communities to unite and take a visible stand against substance abuse.

MONDAY
October 26th

"Red-y to Be Drug Free"

Wear red to kick off Red Ribbon Week.

"Let's start strong and show our commitment to living drug-free!"

TUESDAY
October 27th

"Team Up in Our Colors"

Wear school colors to show we stand united.

"When we stand together in school spirit, we're stronger than drugs!"

WEDNESDAY
October 28th

"Wake Up Drug Free"

Wear pajamas or the color blue.

"Dream big. Wake up drug free!"

THURSDAY
October 29th

"Bright Futures Ahead"

Wear neon, bright colors, or sparkly school gear.

"Your future shines when you say no to drugs!"

FRIDAY
October 30th

"Say BOO to Drugs"

Wear a Halloween costume, school spirit wear, or school colors.

"Scare away drugs this Halloween - be drug-free and proud!"

WHAT DOES BELONGING LOOK LIKE IN

D140?

Headline: Every Student Has a Story

Everyone has a story.

Some stories are easy to see. Others aren't.

Take time to get to know someone new. Listen with curiosity and kindness. You may discover something that helps someone feel seen and valued.

Remember: You Matter. We All Belong.
