FALL PRIVATE LESSON INSTRUCTORS 2026

Private lessons are one of the most effective ways for a student to grow on their instrument. One-on-one time with a specialist builds strong fundamentals and addresses individual needs that group instruction cannot. Below are instructors you can reach out to, listed in the order we would recommend contacting them. Almost all of them are flexible on location and will travel to you or have you come to them, whichever you prefer, and most teach half-hour lessons.
