WHY OUR PROGRAM?
Our Master of Arts in Liberal Studies (MALS) program provides a unique opportunity to study the liberal arts with an applied perspective. The core curriculum is drawn from a variety of disciplines that challenge you to examine your professional values and ways of approaching problems. Interdisciplinary in nature, liberal studies draws from a number of disciplines and is rich in the humanities, social sciences, natural sciences and the arts.

APPLY LIBERAL ARTS TO YOUR PROFESSION
In a constantly evolving global economy, employers seek individuals with the skills to think critically and contextually, and to identify creative workplace solutions. The Master of Arts in Liberal Studies (MALS) degree program is designed for working professionals interested in applying the rigorous study of the liberal arts to their chosen professions.

The MALS degree emphasizes the importance of critical thinking and intellectual curiosity and provides highly applicable and marketable skills for the workforce.

PROGRAM ADVANTAGES

LEARNER-DESIGNED AREA OF STUDY

The learner-designed area of study (LDAS) gives students the opportunity to choose areas of interest to them and to plan and implement their own academically robust learning activities. Students develop a coherent plan of study in the liberal arts that can link directly to their final Capstone project. Students may propose to complete their learner-designed area of study in several ways:

- Take additional online graduate courses from Thomas Edison State University
- Apply up to 12 credits of American Council on Education courses that have been evaluated at the graduate level
- Develop a graduate-level prior learning assessment (PLA) portfolio
- Transfer up to 12 credits of graduate-level credit earned at other regionally accredited institutions
