JEAN O'BRIEN

Jean O'Brien arrived at Bishop Stang in 1961, when her husband John became a teacher and coach. Teaching in Somerset while raising Katie, Michael, Tom and Sheila, she became a wonderful ambassador for Bishop Stang. After John O'Brien died in 1985, Jean made her own impact by continually inspiring the John O'Brien Scholarship, and being ever-present at school events. Mrs. O'Brien is the matriarch of Bishop Stang, having shared herself with more than three generations of Spartans.
