

FRC SHOT OF FAME

Dependable 4 Year Old Gray AQHA Gelding

George is a big, solid, athletic gelding that would excel in any discipline. He loves having a job to do but also enjoys a relaxed ride. He has worked cows, gone through the river, ponied other horses and been ridden in both the snaffle and hackamore. George enjoys being around people and has a huge personality. Don't lose out at your shot at fame, keep your eye on this handsome gelding.

About the Rider: Sam Moore

Sam will be graduating this spring with her Bachelor's Degree in Equine & Ranch Management. After graduation she plans on working for a cutting trainer and to compete in local cuttings. In her free time she also competes in barrel races.

"My ultimate goal in life is to train cutters and barrel horses professionally while competing at the big shows as well as rodeos."
