Campus Opening and Fall Classes
Administration met with representatives from Plumas County Public Health and Environmental Health last Thursday to tour a classroom set up to accommodate social distancing as well as other areas of campus and a dorm room. They were complementary of our planning and thought process for developing an opening plan. We discussed sanitizing and cleaning procedures, distancing measures including foot-traffic flow, PPE that will be supplied and plans to safely return students to campus including COVID testing. The campus opening plan will be adjusted with their input and shared as a draft with the campus community.
Dr. Lerch will be meeting with the Council on Instruction next week to discuss fall classes. The goal is to provide as much face to face instruction as possible while following state and local regulations. The Council will discuss classes that can be taught online, which classes and labs need to meet face to face and potential hybrid models. Changes are likely to occur to the schedule. More information will be forthcoming.
