CALIFORNIA COLLEGE PROMISE GRANT (CCPG) APPEAL:

If you received a notification stating that you have lost your CCPG, check this box. Follow the instructions carefully as failure to do so will result in the appeal being denied. Click here to review the CCPG policy.

The California College Promise Grant (CCPG) requires students to have a cumulative completion rate (progress) of 50% and a cumulative (academic) grade point average of 2.0 or higher to be eligible for the California College Promise Grant.

LOSS OF ENROLLMENT PRIORITY APPEAL:

If you received a notification stating that you have lost your Enrollment Priority, check this box. Follow the instructions carefully as failure to do so will result in the appeal being denied.

A student is subjected to losing their enrollment priority if they are placed on academic or progress probation for two consecutive terms (Title 5 §55031); or they have earned 100 or more degree-applicable semester or quarter equivalent units at the district.

ACADEMIC DISMISSAL APPEAL:

If you received a notification stating that you have been placed on Academic Dismissal, check this box. Follow the instructions carefully as failure to do so will result in the appeal being denied.

A student is subject to dismissal if the student has earned a cumulative grade point average of less than 2.0 in all units attempted in each of three consecutive primary semesters (fall and spring). A student is subject to dismissal if the percentage of units in which the student has been enrolled for which entries of "W," "I," "NC," and "NP" are recorded in at least three consecutive primary semesters (fall and spring) reaches or exceeds fifty percent (50%).
