Flex Day Agenda
March 10, 2026

Rise & Shine + Fire Those Neurons! – 8:10-8:50 am

Location: Eagle's Perch
Session Host: Sean Conry and the Eagle's Perch + Gracie

Join us for some friendly competition where teams will work together to find innovative strategies for success. All are welcome; teams will be randomly assigned!

Accessibility Discussion – 9:00 – 9:30 am

Location: Main 201
Session Hosts: 'ADA Title II Compliance Team' on campus, which includes representatives from: IT, Communications, DSPS, and Instruction.

Hear from our campus working group on the upcoming ADA Title II regulations that will impact FRC this spring, including upcoming deadlines and what action we all have to take collecively. DSPS will review how to make documents more accessible, including PDF's, excel sheets, and PowerPoint presentations. Communications will discuss web content, videos, and social media. IT will discuss other ways this impacts campus, including campus emails. The session will then segue into Canvas specific content in the next session, led by Instruction.

Canvas Training – 9:30 – 10:30 am

Location: Main 201
Session Host: Katie Desmond

In this workshop, faculty will learn how to create accessible pages in Canvas that meet WCAG 2.1 and federal accessibility requirements. Participants will explore built-in Canvas tools such as the Accessibility Checker and Pope Tech Connect, along with AI-assistance to improve Canvas usability for all students. Whether teaching fully online or using Canvas to support in-person courses, attendees will leave with a better understanding of how to create content that is inclusive, compliant, and student-centered."

AI in Higher Education – 10:30-12:00 pm

Location: Gallery
Session Hosts: Don Harjo Daves-Rougeaux

Join Don Harjo Daves-Rougeaux, Senior Advisor to the California Community College Chancellor for a thoughtful and equity-minded approach to the increasing use of artificial intelligence in higher education, and specifically within the California Community Colleges. In his current role, Daves-Rougeaux focuses on aligning workforce development with the system's Vision 2030 and integrating innovative technology, including AI, across the community college system. Participants will examine both the opportunities and challenges of AI, including classroom impacts, rural access and digital inequities, environmental considerations, and data privacy while beginning the foundational work of developing institutional guidelines and policies. The session will cover some practical tools, real-time examples from other colleges, and a guided discussion to support responsible, transparent, and student-centered implementation.

By the end of this session, participants will be able to:

- Identify key considerations and risks related to AI use in teaching, learning, and support services.
- Articulate core principles and guiding questions to inform institutional AI policy and practices.
- Explore practical, responsible use cases and examples of AI adoption at other California Community Colleges.
- Increase personal and campus-wide AI literacy to support transparent, ethical, and accountable implementation.

Chef's Choice – 12:00-1:00 pm

Location: Eagle's Perch
Session Host: Sean Conry and the Eagle's Perch

Enjoy the opportunity to connect with colleagues and discuss takeaways from the morning sessions over a meal provided by Chef Sean.

AI Follow-up conversation– 1:00 – 1:30 pm

Location: LRC 850
Session Hosts: Don Harjo Daves-Rougeaux

Building on the concepts introduced in the first session, this follow-up gathering provides an opportunity for continued conversation, reflection, and shared learning around the evolving role of artificial intelligence in higher education. Through discussion and peer exchange, attendees will deepen their understanding of opportunities, challenges, and institutional responsibilities while identifying next steps that align with their work and values.

Student Voices: LGBTQ+ – 1:30 – 2:30

Location: LRC 850
Session Hosts: Carlie McCarthy, Will Lombardi, Gina Warren

Join us for Student Voices – LGBTQ+, a session centered on the lived experiences of our students. Facilitated by Club Advisors, Dr. Will Lombardi and Dr. Gina Warren, members of Eagle Pride, our campus LGBTQ+ and ally club, will participate in a panel, highlighting positive aspects of their experience at FRC, including the new Pride Center, field trips, and campus and community activities. Additionally, students will share what they want faculty and staff to understand in order to foster a more inclusive campus environment. The session will also feature classroom practices from Saylor Flett, acknowledged by Eagle Pride members for demonstrating exemplary queer classroom pedagogy by creating affirming, inclusive learning spaces for all students. We look forward to some dialog with participants as well!

Outcomes include:

- Increased awareness of LGBTQ+ student experiences
- Ability to apply inclusive classroom and service practices
- Strengthened capacity to support an inclusive campus environment

Curriculum Extravaganza – 2:30 – 4:00 pm

Location: Main 201
Session Hosts: Representatives from the Curriculum Committee and the Office of Instruction

Join your representatives from Curriculum and Instruction for a workshop related to curriculum developments and revisions. This workshop will include brief updates on important curriculum developments that include common course numbering (CCN), course program of study (CPOS), and the transition to a new coding system for our courses and programs that will align with federal codes (TOP-to-CIP transition). In addition to these brief updates, the majority of the time will be available to get work done related to course outline of record (COR) revisions. This session is open to all but is geared primarily toward faculty.
