Copyright and Intellectual Property

Purpose

Northshore Technical Community College (NTCC) expects all students and employees to comply with applicable federal laws governing copyrighted materials which grant authors, publishers, and creators control over the copying, distribution, transmission and performance of their original works.

Background and Scope

All educational institutions have an obligation to uphold the copyright laws that govern the creation and Fair Use of all copyrighted materials; therefore, this policy applies to all NTCC employees and students. The policy also applies to non-employees who may be authorized to use any State resources at any NTCC facility. The principles of this policy extend to, and include, any use of College resources, regardless of its location. Access to information resources, the sharing of information, and the security of the intellectual products of the community all require that each and every user accept responsibility to protect the rights of the community.

Definitions

B. Fair Use - In Title 17, U.S. Code, Section 107 of the Copyright law, it explains the four factors that can be used to consider whether or not fair use is applied in the use of the copyrighted material. The four factors are:

1. The purpose and character of the use – which includes whether it is being used for commercial reasons or for non-profit educational purposes
2. The nature of the work (a creative piece or more factual information)
3. The amount of the work used in relation to the entirety of the work
4. What kind of effect the use of the work will have on the market value of the work

Policy

Northshore Technical Community College recognizes the importance of the Fair Use doctrine (section 107 of the U.S. Code Title 17 on Copyright) and its responsibility to provide information and guidance in support of teaching and learning.

To that end, the College shall:

- Inform its employees about the application of the four factors governing fair use.
- Develop and make available resources related to copyright and fair use.
- Provide notice to students that materials used in connection with courses may be subject to copyright protection.
- Assist employees in obtaining permission to use copyrighted materials. Employees are responsible for maintaining their own records involving written permissions.
- Impose sanctions in compliance with employee and student discipline policies.

Intellectual Property and Ownership:

- The ownership of any materials, processes, or inventions developed solely by an employee’s individual effort and expense shall vest in the employee and be copyrighted or patented, if at all, in his/her name.
- The ownership of materials, processes, or inventions produced solely for the College and at College expense shall vest in the College and be copyrighted or patented, if at all, in the name of the College.
- In those instances where materials, processes, or inventions are produced by an employee with College support, by way of use of significant personnel, time, facilities or other College resources, the ownership of the materials, processes or inventions shall vest in (and be copyrighted or patented by, if at all) the person designated by written agreement between the parties entered into prior to the production. In the event there is no such written agreement entered into, the ownership shall vest in the College.
