

Psychiatrists

Michael Greenbaum, MD

Education: Dr. Greenbaum attended medical school and completed his psychiatric residency at the University of Illinois Medical Center in Chicago. He completed his Child Psychiatry fellowship training at Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland. Dr. Greenbaum is a Board Certified Child, Adolescent and Adult Psychiatrist.

Client Base: Dr. Greenbaum specializes in working with children and adolescents, and also treats adult patients. He consults with several therapeutic schools, and is the Psychiatric Consultant at Connections Day School and Virtual Connections Academy.

Services provided include Psychiatric evaluation and Psycho-pharmacologic treatment and management.

In addition to his outpatient psychiatric practice, Dr. Greenbaum is President and Principal Investigator at Capstone Clinical Research in Libertyville, IL, where he has conducted Clinical Trials for psychiatric medications since 1999. As a result of his research participation, he has been co-author on various articles for peer-reviewed journals. Clinical trials have included research on medication treatment for disorders such as ADHD, Major Depression, Autism, Binge Eating Disorder and others.

Please visit Capstoneclinical.com for additional information on participation in clinical research studies.

Dr. Shazia Tayyab, MD

Education: Chief Resident: Child and Adolescent Fellowship, Children's Memorial Hospital. Dr. Tayyab is Board Certified in General Psychiatry and Board Certified in Child and Adolescent Psychiatry. Dr. Tayyab is Board Certified in General Psychiatry and Board Certified in Child and Adolescent Psychiatry.

Dr. Tayyab specializes in the diagnosis and treatment of children and adolescents for a variety of psychiatric concerns. Dr. Tayyab's areas of interest include Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorders, Bipolar Disorder and other Mood, Anxiety Disorders, and Autism Spectrum Disorders and other Pervasive Development Disorders. Dr. Tayyab regularly consults to schools and sees clients both in the Libertyville and Vernon Hills offices.