My almost amazing
adventure is learning
new letter sounds and reading Marty Kelley.

The graphic features the text "Kidsposter Contest!" in a playful, hand-drawn font. "Kids" is in red, "poster" is in purple, and "Contest!" is in blue with a green exclamation point. A red crayon is shown drawing a red underline under the text. The background is white with a vertical yellow pencil-like texture behind the text.

Kidsposter Contest!

It's time for the 2019 LHC NCDH Month Coloring/Poster Contest!

Join the "Smile Builders" in promoting oral health with their message, "Brush and clean in between to build a healthy smile".

Coloring/Poster instructions

PreK-1--color the attached coloring page

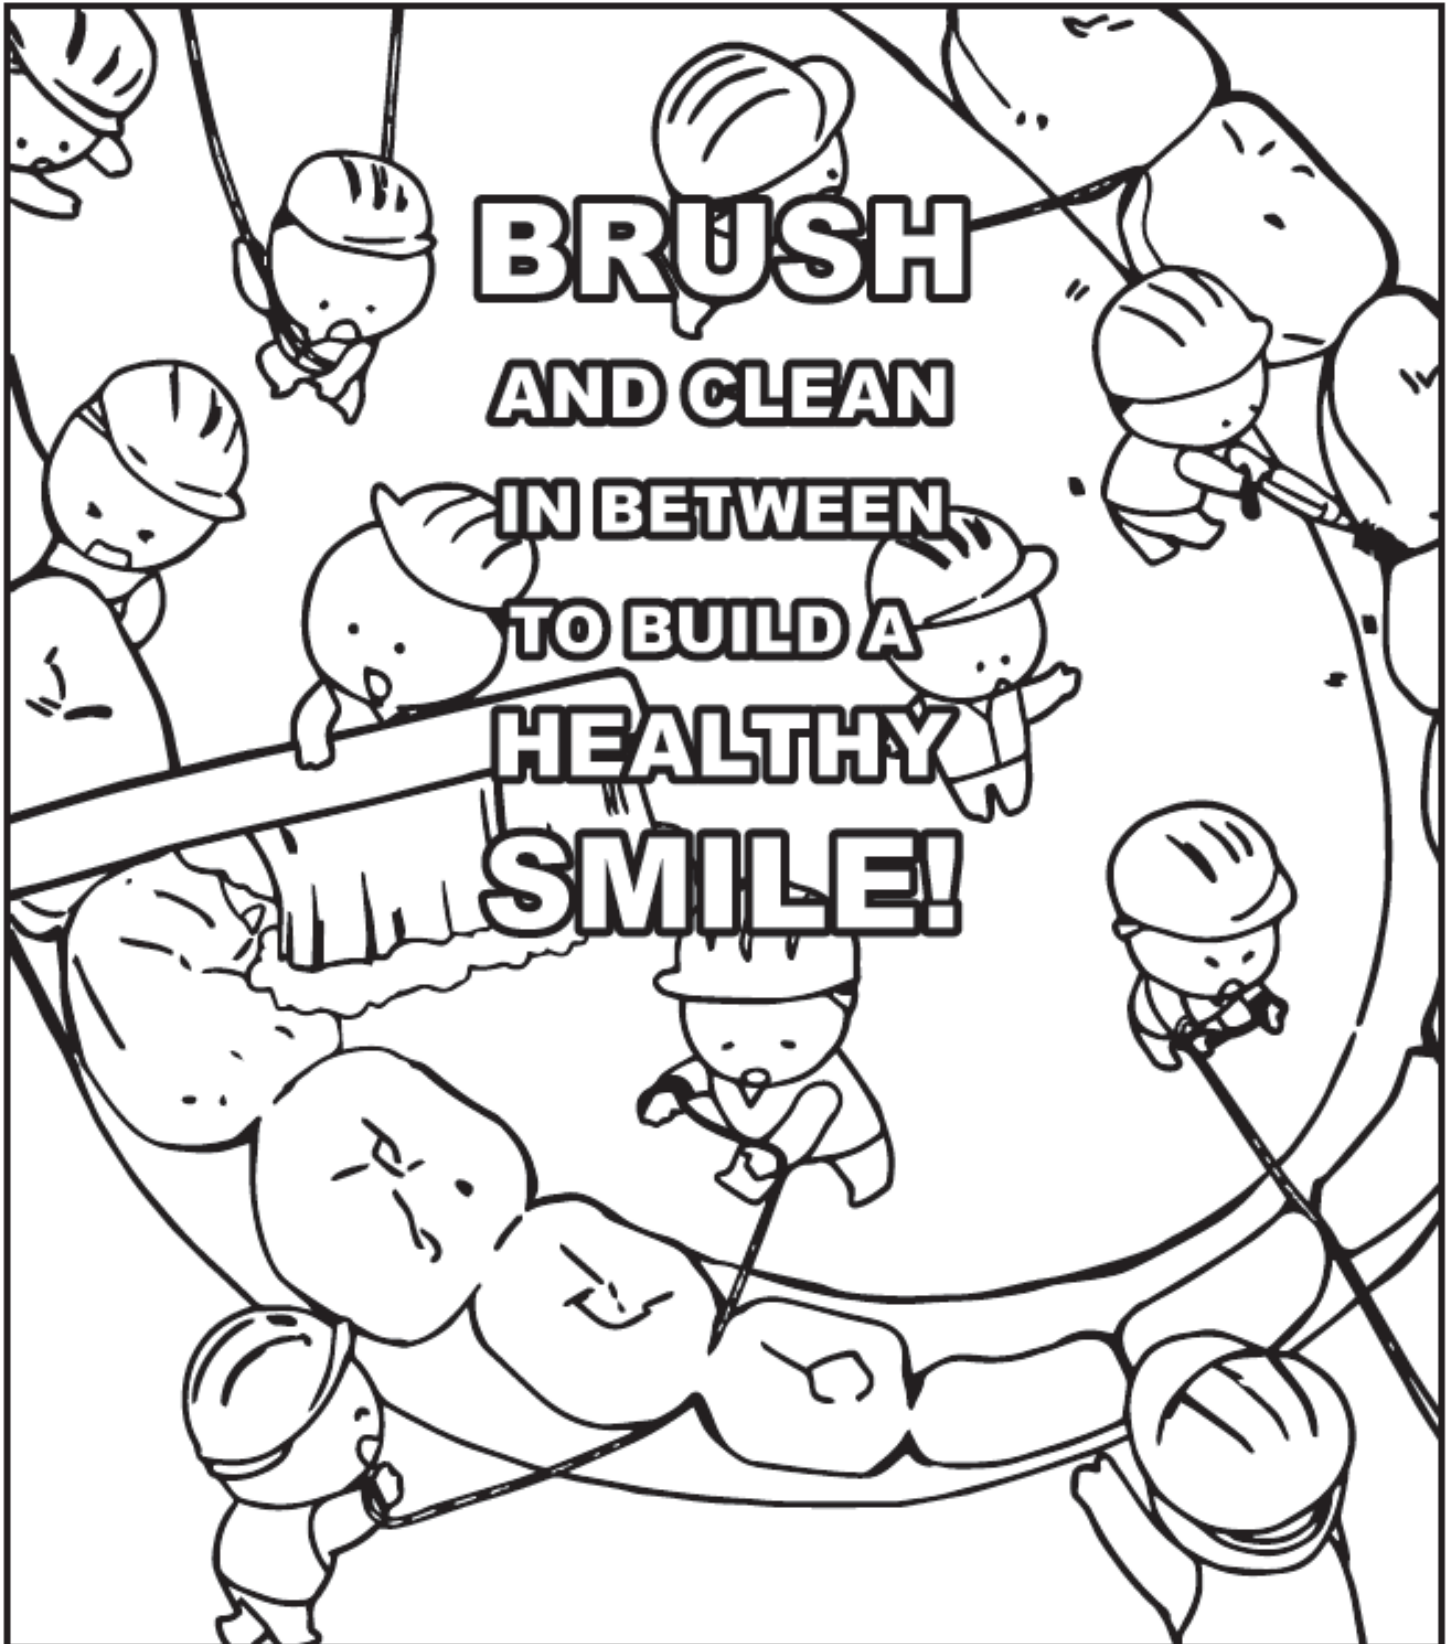

Grade 2 and higher- Each student is encouraged to create a unique poster of their own on a 12" x 18" plain white sheet of paper. Students should create a poster showing 3 to 4 ways that they keep their mouth healthy. The students can create the poster using colored pencils, crayons, and markers.

Please make sure the students first and last name, grade and teacher is on the poster.

Judging/Prizes/Winner Photos

The Dental folks from Lamprey Health Care will be picking a 1st, 2nd and 3rd place winner during the Feb school vacation week.

Prizes will be the first week in March just after the vacation week.
