The North Hampton School District is responsible for identifying children from two and a half to 6 years of age who may require special education services.

Parents who have concerns about their child's development in the areas of speech and language, motor coordination, social/emotional growth, vision and hearing, or learning abilities are urged to call Sue MacLaughlin at 964-7237 to schedule an appointment for this screening.