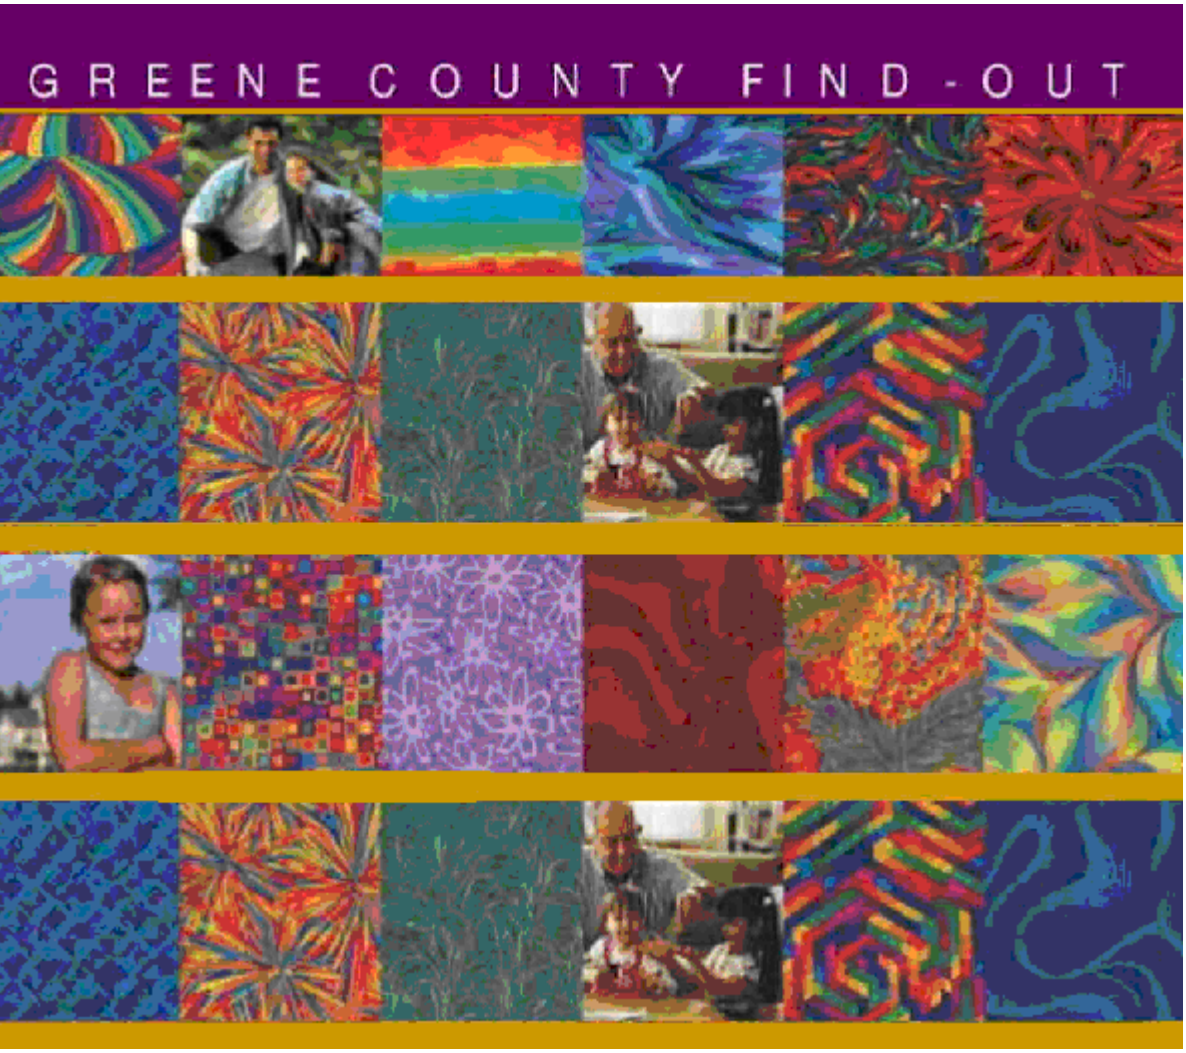
Greene County Find Out

Resource Directory

07/01/15



Foreword

Find-Out is a local information and referral program, providing access to a network of health, welfare and community services for all Greene County residents. This program is a component of Greene County Human Services Department and has been answering the phone lines since 1985.

The Find-Out office is located in the Fort Jackson Building, at 19 South Washington Street, in Waynesburg, Pa. 15370.
Consumers may call and speak with the Information Specialist, Monday through Friday, between the hours of 8:30 A.M. and 4:30 P.M., at 724.852.1943 or 800.433.1943.

Also, Greene County Find-Out is accessible from the Internet, at: www.greenefindout.org
Find-Out was created to link people needing help or information with the agencies that might offer assistance. This service is free and confidential. In all communities, finding the appropriate services can be difficult. The goal of this program is to remove those barriers and link people with the appropriate information and resources.

Acoustic Neuroma Association

ANA

Organizational Information

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
The mission of ANA is to inform, educate and provide national and local support networks for those affected by acoustic neuromas, and to be an essential resource for health care professionals who treat acoustic neuroma patients.

History of Organization
ANA's Founder and President Emeritus Ginny Fickel Ehr had surgery for an acoustic neuroma in 1977. Both before and after this surgery, she sought information about acoustic tumors, information which could be understood by the layperson. Since her search was unsuccessful, she made a commitment to seeing that appropriate information was available to those who followed her in the acoustic neuroma experience. The Acoustic Neuroma Association became a reality in 1981, and the number of acoustic neuroma alumni has grown from a handful then to tens of thousands today. During this period, thousands of patients, physicians, nurses, and family members have asked us for comprehensive and non-technical information about acoustic neuroma. This World Wide Web site is made available in response to those requests. The ANA web site is also intended to help others who are searching for information about acoustic tumors and their effects, and especially to aid patients in coping with the acoustic neuroma experience. The Acoustic Neuroma Association is funded by member dues and donations, gifts and grants. An audit is performed annually and is on file at the national office.

Statewide Adoption & Permanency Network (SWAN)

Organizational Information

Parent Organization
Department of Human Services

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
The Statewide Adoption and Permanency Network (SWAN) is both a broad-based cooperative effort and a centralized information and facilitation service overseen by the Pennsylvania Department of Human Services. SWAN includes county children and youth agencies, juvenile court judges, foster and adoptive parents, private adoption agencies, the Pennsylvania Adoption Exchange and many others, all working together on behalf of children who need permanent homes. The SWAN program serves children in the custody of county children and youth agencies. The design of the network is to support the work of county agencies in expediting permanency services.

History of Organization
The Pennsylvania Adoption Exchange (PAE) was established in 1979 by the Department of Human Services to help County Children and Youth agencies find adoptive families for Pennsylvania's waiting children. PAE is a major component of the Statewide Adoption and Permanency Network (SWAN) as it serves the counties, SWAN affiliate agencies, the general public and interfaces with other state and national adoption exchanges. PAE is not an adoption agency, but serves to connect families who want to adopt with children waiting for a permanent home. Final decisions about adoption are the sole responsibility of the county agency with custody of the child.

Service Description
SWAN Adoption services include: Family Profiles, Child Profiles, Child-Specific Recruitment, Child Preparation, Placement, Adoption Finalization and Post Permanency Services

PAE provides the following services to children, families and agencies: MATCHING & REFERRAL: Families registered with PAE are identified using a computer database with children identified to meet their interest. Families and agencies are notified about the suggested matches through the referral process. CHILD PHOTO LISTING BOOK: This book contains the same children as those featured on our Web site. The book is available in more than 250 foster care and adoption agencies throughout the nation. RECRUITMENT: The recruitment of prospective families for our waiting children is a fundamental mission. PAE participates in many activities to connect waiting children with interested families including outreach, training and referral. INFORMATION & REFERRAL: PAE acts as a clearinghouse for information about the many aspects of adoption, including the adoption process, financial assistance, contacting birth parents and managing the Pennsylvania Adoption Information Registry. If we cannot answer your questions, you will be referred to another source for that information

Adult Education Center

Organizational Information

Parent Organization
IU1

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
Intermediate Unit 1 supports 26 adult basic and literacy education classes throughout the tri-county area serving nearly 800 adults each year. In addition, over 300 adults are given the opportunity to earn the General Education Development (GED) diploma through the Intermediate Unit 1 GED Testing Centers.

History of Organization
Fayette, Greene, and Washington Counties served as a pilot site in the development of the Intermediate Unit concept. The three counties experimented with the idea of conducting joint meetings and staff development activities to serve educators in the tri-county area. In October of 1970, the county school boards of the three counties met to plan a convention to elect thirteen directors who would become the first Intermediate Unit 1 Board of Directors. During its first year of operation, Intermediate Unit 1 (IU1) rented space in California, Pennsylvania, and employed a total of 245 people. Southwestern Pennsylvania, or specifically the counties of Fayette, Greene and Washington, was selected to serve as a model or pilot program in the pre-planning and development of the intermediate unit concept of education in Pennsylvania. The county school offices in the three counties served as the facilitator for this study and conducted meetings and workshops involving the staff members of the three county offices and the chief school administrators of the twenty-five school districts.

AIDS Planning Coalition, Southwestern PA

SWPAPC

Organizational Information

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
To respond to the HIV/AIDS epidemic in Southwestern Pennsylvania by planning, advocating and supporting the development of culturally competent, comprehensive system of high quality care, prevention and education services. Goals: To design and put in place a coalition needs assessment process and mechanism. To maintain a data collection system for planning and monitoring HIV/AIDS services in the region. To create and improve annually a process for definition of a regional plan for implementation the following fiscal year. To research care and prevention models and programs and new/special populations to be addressed. To identify and invite consumers, minority representatives and drug & alcohol program activities of the Coalition. To design and put in place a mechanism which identifies and disseminates information about technical assistance needed and available across the region.

History of Organization
The Southwestern Pennsylvania AIDS Planning Coalition was established in Pittsburgh, PA, in November of 1992 and was the first HIV/AIDS Planning Coalition in the State. Several AIDS service providers in the Greater Pittsburgh Area came together in collaboration to improve the delivery of service to consumers, to do a regional Needs Assessment and Regional Strategic Service Planning in the eleven counties designated by the Department of Health as Southwestern Pennsylvania.

Service Description
HUD Supportive Housing Program: PATF offers three programs for individuals who are living with HIV/AIDS and are faced with homelessness: Project Pathways - a 24-month transitional housing for single adults at a central location with onsite staff assistance; CHOICE I & CHOICE II - permanent affordable housing for single adults and families at various locations throughout Allegheny County. These housing programs provide a variety of case management services and referrals for primary medical care, nursing care, drug/alcohol and mental health treatment, nutrition counseling, money management education, and social activities. Placements are limited.

Legal Services: Attorneys volunteer their time to provide PATF's clients with legal information, referral services and representation. The network helps clients with wills, estate planning, powers of attorney, civil action, and entitlement issues such as Social Security appeals.

Support Groups: Coping skills, facing life's challenges and developing support systems are just a few of the benefits HIV-positive individuals gain from attending regular scheduled meetings. Led by a therapist, groups focus on the needs or concerns that impact daily life for those living with HIV/AIDS. Support groups are held weekly in PATF offices and once a month in Beaver and Washington Counties. Support groups do not meet if the PATF office is closed for business that day. PATF also presents monthly Quality of Life Workshops meant to provide information about skills and services that enhance the daily lives of HIV+ individuals.

Nutritional Supplements: PATF offers multi-vitamin/mineral supplements as well as a variety of nutritional supplements, such as Ensure and Sustecal. A continuous supply of home-delivered supplements may be arranged through PATF's case managers.

Emergency Funds: Funds of last resort are available for expenses in times of crisis, such as utilities, food, nutritional supplements, and medications. To be eligible, you must be HIV+ or AIDS diagnosed and one of the following: disabled due to HIV/AIDS or mental illness, a single custodial parent, pregnant, homeless or threatened with homelessness.

Transportation: Case managers refer individuals to transportation programs and assist with the application process. Transportation funds are used to purchase bus tickets, taxi rides, or wheelchair-van trips.

Food Pantry: A variety of foods and personalized customer service are the hallmarks of PATF's Food Pantry. People living with HIV/AIDS can choose from a selection of meat, cheese, produce, and canned goods on a monthly basis. Nutritional supplements and personal care items are available. The pantry is open on Sundays from noon to 4pm, Mondays, Tuesdays, and Fridays from noon to 4 pa, and Wednesday from 3 to 7 pm. Clients are able to use the food pantry once per month.

Case Management: Professional staff and volunteers provide referrals and intensive case management to people living with HIV/AIDS who have complex needs including those relating to addiction and mental health issues. Case managers meet with individuals to assess needs and assist in gaining access to resources and services.

HUD Supportive Housing Program: PATF offers three programs for individuals who are living with HIV/AIDS and are faced with homelessness: Project Pathways - a 24-month transitional housing for single adults at a central location with onsite staff assistance; CHOICE I, CHOICE II, and Choice III - permanent affordable housing for single adults and families at various locations throughout Allegheny County. These housing programs provide a variety of case management services and referrals for primary medical care, nursing care, drug/alcohol and mental health treatment, nutrition counseling, money management education, and social activities. Placements are limited.

Al-Anon

Organizational Information

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
There is a message of hope and help in the program of Al-Anon Family Groups. Women, men and children who were once lonely, lost and helpless because of someone's drinking, today have courage and confidence in Al-Anon and Alateen. They have discovered friends who understand, as few others can. They have found the tools to help themselves - which can indirectly help their alcoholic relatives or loved ones. Contentment, and even happiness, is possible whether the alcoholic is still drinking or not.

Service Description
The goal of this project is to develop an organized system and processes to collect, analyze and disseminate information on non-school hour services to inform policy and funding priorities, as well as consumer choice. All agencies and local school districts who provide non-school hour services for school age children in SWPA will be invited to participate. This will be accomplished by all participating agencies entering their information about non-school hour programs into a regional system called the Information Commons. Providers, funders and consumers will be able to access this shared database.

Alzheimer Disease Research Center

ADRC

Organizational Information

Parent Organization
University of Pittsburgh

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
The overall objective of the ADRC is to study the pathophysiology (changes in the brain) of Alzheimer's disease (AD) with the aim of improving the reliability of diagnosis of AD and developing effective treatment strategies. The ADRC is funded by the National Institute on Aging and, as part of its reseach program, provides a comprehensive outpatient evaluation including madical, neurological, psychiatric, social, and cognitive assessments. The success of the ADRC is to match participating patients and their family members with opportunities to volunteer for additional AD-related studies based on their interests and the eligibility requirements of the research.

History of Organization
The Alzheimer Disease Research Center (ADRC) at the University of Pittsburgh was established in 1985 by a grant from the National Institute on Aging (NIA), as a mechanism for integrating, coordinating and supporting in Alzheimer's disease and aging. The ADRC performs and coordinates AD-related clinical and reseach activities and is a core source of support (e.g., resources, patients, tissue, expert consultation for research, clinical and training activities) regionally and nationally. Current reseach foci emphasize neuropsychiatry and neuropsychology, molecular gnetics and epidemiology, basic neuroscience, and structural and functional imaging that aid in the dianosis and treatment of Alzheimer's disease.

Volunteer Description
There are three programs with which to volunteer. The first is AmeriCorps*State or AmeriCorps*National, which support a broad range of local service programs that engage thousands of Americans in intensive service to meet critical community needs. The second is AmeriCorps*VISTA, which provides full-time members to community organizations and public agencies to create and expand programs that build capacity and ultimately bring low-income individuals and communities out of poverty. The third and final one is AmeriCorps*NCCC (National Civilian Community Corps), which is a full-time residential program for men and women, ages 18-24, that strengthens communities while developing leaders through direct, team-based national and community service.

Autism Society of Pgh. Inc

Organizational Information

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
The right of a family to learn about and then select options they feel are most appropriate for their autistic family members is as basic as the family itself. It is rooted deeply in the very foundation of our American republic. An advocacy organization such as ours that holds such a position is then compelled to devote its highest priorities to: (1) encouraging, expanding and developing excellence in a continuum of service options, and (2) providing thorough information on ALL options to parents, families and to the caring professionals who work with their special needs individuals.

Automated Health Systems

AHS

Organizational Information

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
By combining propietary computer applications with culturally-sensitive outreach and education activities, we successfully integrate medical and social services in order to promote health and prevent disease. Our approach is designed to bring together the health care professionals who provide the services, the families who utilize the services, and the funding sources underwriting the cost The skill set we bring to these initiatives includes expertise in consumer and community outreach and education, provider relations, a variety of training programs, member services, quality assurance, childhood lead poisoning prevention projects, claims processing, tracking and reporting systems materials development, and data analysis.

History of Organization
Automated Health Systems was founded in 1979 with the initial goal of providing states with the systems and manpower necessary to meet the requirements of the Federally mandated Early and Periodic Screening, Diagnosis and Treatment Program. Within a little less than a year and a half of its founding, AHS was administering EPSDT Programs in Maryland and Pennsylvania. As our reputation and expertise grew, we expanded our EPSDT purview to Indiana and began to assist states with other health care related activities such as childhood lead poisoning prevention projects, and projects designed to provide health care through Title V initiatives.

Service Description

Adoption --

Through adoption services children are able to move toward permanency. An adoptive home study and child profile is completed for foster children already in The Bair Foundation foster program and children in the care of other foster care programs under the request of Children, Youth and Family services

Medically Needy Foster Care --
Medical Foster Care is a program for children, youth and families whose special medical needs are met through services delivered by treatment foster parents who are trained, supervised and supported by staff and medical professionals.

Treatment Foster Care --

Treatment foster care is a program for children, youth and families whose special behavioral/emotional/social needs are met through services delivered by treatment of foster parents who are trained, supervised and supported by agency staff.

Emergency Foster Care --

Emergency Foster Care is temporary, safe, community based environment for children in the stateâ€™s custody that are between the ages of 0 to 5 years. The child whose living situation has been disrupted due to neglect or abuse, to the extent that children are unable to reside with their biological parents or legal guardians or continue to reside where they are living at the time of placement. Emergency foster care is a short-term, temporary living situation, until longer term arrangements can be made.

Kinship Care --

Kinship care is defined as full time care, nurturing and protection of children by relative, members of their tribes or clan, godparents, stepparents or any adult who has a kinship bond with a child. Kinship Care allows a child to grow into adulthood in a familiar family environment. The service is designed for children and their kinship and/or biological parents when parental care has been determined to be inadequate or when a voluntary plan with a kinship caregiver is in place until reunification or another permanent alternative is achieved. The service is available to children to affirm their connections to family, community and culture through a kinship care placement.

Independent Living Services --

The transition to independence is certainly a challenge which awakens separation anxiety common to all individuals. For young people in foster care, this challenge may be more difficult as there is often no legacy of security and love. The Bair Foundation desires to facilitate a positive transition by preparing foster adolescents for independence through the use of supervised individual living services in a supportive environment. This program is for children currently in care with The Bair Foundation who meet the eligibility requirements.

Parent Empowerment Program --

The Parents Empowerment Program (P.E.P.) is a Bair Foundation program developed to provide parenting instruction to family members involved with CYS and other social service agencies.

In Home Services --

In-Home Services is a program for families in crisis. Without intervention, the unsafe home environment places children at risk and may necessitate their removal from the home to substitute care. Intervention is provided in the home environment utilizing a multisystemic approach. In situations where children have already been removed from the home, the In Home Services Program can provide after-care for families whose children are transitioning back into their homes.

Assessment Home --
Therapeutic assessment services is a program for children and youth by which their needs and subsequent service levels are assessed within a 45-day period of time by various professionals and highly trained treatment foster parents and agency staff.

Outpatient Services --
Our outpatient program is designed to help families during crisis or to offer enhancement in specific areas of need. Before placement of a child occurs outside the home, outpatient personnel provide intervention through a multi-systematic treatment approach with the purpose of maintaining the family unit.

Service Description
Vocational Rehabilitation Program
The Vocational Rehabilitation (VR) program helps individuals prepare for or retain employment. Services offered can include but are not limited to: counseling and guidance; vocational evaluation; blindness skills training; orientation and mobility instruction; rehabilitation teaching; vocational and college training; occupational tools and equipment; and, job placement services. Services are based on an individual's needs and choices, and some or all of these services may be needed for the person to prepare for or retain employment. VR counselors work directly with the individual to determine an employment goal and what services are needed to reach that goal. An Individualized

Plan for Employment (IPE) is developed jointly by the counselor and customer.

Rehabilitation Teaching
Rehabilitation Teaching helps individuals learn how to safely and efficiently carry out daily activities at home, on the job and in the community. After a comprehensive evaluation, an individualized program of instruction is developed, and can include the teaching of Braille; home management skills; cooking and home repair as well as personal management.

Orientation and Mobility Instruction
Orientation and Mobility instruction teaches individuals to travel independently around their homes, workplaces, and in their communities. After an evaluation of need is completed, a training plan is developed to meet the customer's specific needs.

Randolph-Sheppard Business Enterprise Program
The Randolph-Sheppard Business Enterprise Program (BEP) assists persons operate food service businesses in commercial, industrial or governmental locations. Food services can range from a vending machine route to the management of a large cafeteria. BEP can also assist interested persons with entrepreneurial business ventures other than food service. These businesses might include: specialty product sales; franchise operations; gift shops; and, kiosks. Business sites and equipment are provided through the program, as well as ongoing assistance from BEP agents. Eligible persons enter this program through being served as customers in the BBVS Vocational Rehabilitation program.

Independent Living for the Older Blind (ILOB) Program
This program serves individuals who are age 55 or older, and who are legally blind. It is designed to enable individuals to achieve or regain maximum independence within their homes and communities. Visual eligibility must be documented. There is a financial needs test for cost services. Available services include: advocacy; counseling; information and referral; blindness skills training; rehabilitation teaching; orientation and mobility instruction; and, low vision services.

Specialized Children's Program
These services include: counseling; advocacy for educational services; transition services; guidance and counseling for children and their families; community orientation and mobility instruction; children's summer programs; rehabilitation teaching; adaptive equipment; and, low vision services. Financial and visual eligibility must be established before the Bureau can purchase goods and services for an individual. An assessment is done to determine functional needs and a plan of services is developed to address those needs.

Specialized Services for Adults
This program assists individuals to become more self-sufficient and independent in their homes and communities. Services are similar to those provided under the ILOB program. Individuals served by this program must meet financial eligibility requirements, as well as being visually eligible.

Boy Scouts of America, Greene County

Boy Scouts of America, Laurel Highlands Council

Organizational Information

Parent Organization
Boy Scouts of America

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
Mission Statement: It is the mission of the Boy Scouts of America to serve others by helping to instill values in young people and in other ways prepare them to make ethical choices during their lifetime in achieving their full potential. The values we strive to instill are based on those found in the Scout Oath and Law.

History of Organization
The Boy Scouts of America (BSA) is one of the largest youth organizations in the United States, with over 4.5 million youth members in its age-related divisions. Since its founding in 1910 as part of the international Scout Movement, more than 110 million Americans have been members of the BSA. The BSA goal is to train youth in responsible citizenship, character development, and self-reliance through participation in a wide range of outdoor activities, educational programs, and, at older age levels, career-oriented programs in partnership with community organizations. For younger members, the Scout method is part of the program to instill typical Scouting values such as trustworthiness, good citizenship, and outdoors skills, through a variety of activities such as camping, aquatics, and hiking. The Boy Scouts of America celebrated its one-hundredth anniversary on February 8, 2010. The BSA operates traditional Scouting locally through units sponsored and operated by churches, clubs, civic associations, educational organizations and the like. Units are led entirely by volunteers who are supported by local councils using both paid professionals and volunteers.

Affiliations
The National Council is the corporate membership of the Boy Scouts of America. The day-to-day operations of the National Council are administered by the Chief Scout Executive and other national professional staff. National Council members include volunteers who are elected National Officers and Executive Board members, regional presidents, the local council representatives, members at large, and honorary members. The BSA was granted a Congressional charter in 1916, stating that their purpose is to:....promote, through organization, and cooperation with other agencies, the ability of boys to do things for themselves and others, to train them in scoutcraft, and to teach them patriotism, courage, self-reliance, and kindred virtues, using the methods that were in common use by boy scouts on June 15, 1916. The charter authorized and set standards for the incorporation of the BSA and provided for the "exclusive right to use emblems, badges, descriptive or designating marks, and words or phrases" that they adopt.

Legal Structure
Non-profit corporation

Funding Sources
Each year the Council serves more than 41,000 youth in southwestern Pennsylvania. To manage the daily operations that enhance the delivery of services to these youth, the council maintains an annual operating budget of approximately $6 million. The local council, headquartered in Pittsburgh, is a participating agency of several United Ways in southwestern PA, including the United Way of Greene County. Approximately 8% of the total revenue comes from United Way. Another 36% comes from the support from the public in the form of individual and corporate donations. 56% is generated through camping/activity fees and the annual Scouting Popcorn sales, and other income.

The Laurel Highlands Council, BSA (formerly the Greater Pittsburgh and Penn's Woods Councils) administers the Scouting program in the following counties of SW PA: Allegheny, Beaver, Bedford, Blair, Cambria, Greene, Indiana, Somerset and Washington.

Service Description
The younger boy Cub Scout program is a fun and educational experience concerned with values. Besides providing a positive place where boys can enjoy safe, wholesome activities, Cub Scouting focuses on building character, improving physical fitness, teaching practical skills, and developing a spirit of community service.

The older boy, Boy Scout program focuses on achieving the BSA's objectives of developing character, citizenship, and personal fitness through its methods of advancement, ideals, patrols, outdoor programs, adult association, personal growth, and leadership development.

The Co-ed Venturing program is a youth development program of the Boy Scouts of America for young men and women. Opportunity for leadership, group activities, high adventure, recognition, and teaching others provides positive experiences to help young people mature and to prepare them to become responsible and caring adults.

Volunteer Description
Boy Scouting is a boy-led, boy-run program, but the boys must be trained to be leaders. Adult role models in Scouting provide an ideal learning experience for all youth. Every adult volunteer has something valuable to offer. On a typical weekend campout, Scouts might work with an adult volunteer who teaches the Fishing merit badge and with a Scout mom to learn orienteering, go on a 5-mile hike with another adult leader, and end the day learning how to clean and cook fresh fish from someone else. The advantages of Scouting are not limited to boys. Adults also develop leadership and physical skills with every training experience. Volunteers learn, too. Volunteers spend a significant amount of time to ensure the success of Scouting in their communities. The average Scout volunteer gives 20 hours of service each month, and 96 percent of volunteers say they would recommend volunteering for the BSA to other adults. In fact, volunteers believe their time invested with the Boy Scouts of America helps them be: A better citizen A better parent A better manager A better employee More patient and tolerant of others More open to new ideas and opinions We need you to provide the direction, coaching, and training that empowers today's youth with the skills they will need to lead tomorrow.

Organizational Information

Parent Organization
Community Action Southwest

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
Community Action Southwest serves as the catalyst to mobilize the resources of the entire community to enable families and individuals in Southwestern Pennsylvania to attain the skills, knowledge, motivations and opportunities to become self-sufficient.

History of Organization
Community Action Southwest (CAS), a non-profit organization, has been serving Washington and Greene counties since 1965. Founded by a group of community leaders, the initial focus of the agency was to identify local conditions that led to poverty, sensitize the community to the incidence and conditions of poverty, mobilize private and public resources to impact on poverty and develop programs and services that would help eradicate poverty.

Service Description
The curriculum in grades 7 through 9 continues to build on the foundation set with the elementary curriculum, helping students to develop skills in the basic content areas while initiating opportunities for exploration according to individual needs or interests.

The curriculum in grades 10 through 12 involves one of two possible career paths - academic or technology. The academic curriculum is a self-contained program that involves a required class every year in math, English, social studies, science and at least two years of a foreign language. The technology curriculum is a Tech-Prep program that requires applied math, English, social studies and applied science. These students all attend the Greene County Vocational Technical School for their specialized courses.

Catnip Acres

Organizational Information

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
Our mission is to eliminate the pain and suffering associated with cat overpopulation in Greene County, Pennsylvania. In furtherance of that goal, Catnip Acres provides a low cost spay/neuter program for domestic cats and a T.N.R. (trap, neuter, release), program for feral cats.

History of Organization
The idea for Catnip Acres was born when Carol Pultorak began working as a volunteer at the local animal shelter in Greene County. She soon became aware of the second class status assigned to cats in shelters and became determined to reduce the number of cats euthanized. She began taking a single cat to the Pittsburgh spay and neuter clinic. That single cat was the beginning of a lifelong commitment which developed into Catnip Acres. Today they can boast that it has spayed and neutered over 4,000 cats. Founder and President Carol Pultorak's dream becam an official non profit 501 (c) 3 organization in April 2007.

CBM Ministries of S. W. PA

Children's Bible Ministries

Organizational Information

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
We desire to evangelize school students and adults through the Released Time Bible Program, Camp, and the Mailbox Club; Teaching and guiding them to maturity in our Lord Jesus Christ, providing training and opportunities for Christian Service in the local church and to the world.

History of Organization
CBM Ministries began in the southern USA in 1935, but it had it's local beginnings in 1970 when Reba Miller established Released Time classes in Greene County, PA schools. Released Time is now offered in each elementary and secondary school in that county. In the 1990's CBM expanded to nearby Fayette county and in 2005 opened RT in Butler county. In 2005 CBM was ministering to over 850 students in 26 schools. Camp was first offered in 1971 and has been held each summer since for elementary and teen students. We have rented camps each year, but we are currently seeking to build a camp of our own to be used for year round ministry to all age groups.

Service Description
Appeals: This unit conducts administrative reviews to amend or expunge child abuse reports. It corresponds and interacts with perpetrators and their attorneys as well as investigating agencies and Departmental attorneys. When the decision has been made, Unit staff prepare the documentaiton informing the affected parties of the results and outlining additional options available.

Volunteer Children's Act: Federal criminal history record clearances by the FBI are available for Pennsylvania residents who are applying for the following positions in Pennsylvania: child care services; public or private schools, foster parents, adoptive parents. This Unit reviews and forwards the FBI information to the Pennsylvania State Police, which returns it to the VCA Unit. Unit staff review and dispense the results to the affected agencies.

CareCheck Unit: this unit performs Child Abuse and Criminal History Clearances for relative/neighbor child care providers who care for children in the subsidized child care program. The intent is to help parents make informed decisions about their child care provider. Information is provided to the Unit from the Child Care Information Services (CCIS) and the County Assitance Offices. The results of the Clearance reviews are relayed back to these agencies.

Accepts and assigns for investigation reports of child abuse. Also provides information and referral to local programs.

Database unit: This ChildLine Section maintains the records of the pending complaint file (alleged child abuse investigations), central register (confirmed child abuse reports) and the unfounded file (reports awaiting expunction). All other sections rely on this unit to provide prior history information to child abuse invesigators, fulfill requests for background checks, and statistical data for reports.

Verification Units:
The state of Pennsylvania requires all prospective child care service and school employees to obtain child abuse clearances from the Department to ensure they are not a known perpetrator of child abuse or student abuse. Child care agencies are prohibited from employing any person who will have direct contact with children if the individual was convicted of certian criminal offenses or was named as a perpetrator of a founded report of child abuse within five years preceding the request for a clearance.

Washington/Greene/Fayette

Service Description
Provides services for anyone in need through various programs, as follows:

1.) SHELTER/REHABILITATION:
Up to 62 men and 32 women and children can be housed at any one time at the Washington City Mission and Avis Arbor Women's Shelter, respectively.

The Men's Next Step Program is an extension of the Men's Shelter. These living quarters are available to men who have successfully completed our program and have gainful Employment. The purpose of this program is to allow these 10 men to live in very low cost arrangements while they save for an apartment of their own.

2.) STORES:
Four Hidden Treasure thrift stores--located in Canonsburg, Donora, Washington, and Waynesburg--offer used merchandise of excellent quality at very affordable prices. Purchases at the stores provides revenue to continue the Mission's programs. Each stores is a ministry in the community, offering free or reduced cost merchandise to those who are in need.

3.) FOOD:
Provides meals to residents as well as anyone who walks in from the street. Also serves food as a food distribution center and accepts a surplus of perishable food items and then distributes them to other shelters and service providers to feed more homeless and near-homeless.

4.) RECYCLING:
Operates 9:00 A.M. - 4:00 P.M. every Monday through Saturday.

5.) EMERGENCY ASSISTANCE:
Provides emergency food, clothing, and other household-related items to vicitms of fire, natural disasters, and the needy.

6.) MEDICAL CLINIC:
Offers free medical care for basic health care needs and minor health care problems to residents and other homeless individuals. This is provided by volunteer doctors and nurses through the Arubucke Clinic, founded in 1993.

7.) CHRIST-CENTERED TRAINING & REHABILITATION:
All residents are eligible to participate in Christ-centered rehabilitation. They attend chapel programs on Sunday mornings, Thursday evenings, and even morning devotions.

8.) RECOVERY IN CHRIST:
This program deals with the underlying causes of homelessness and addiction in an intense and dynamic manner. In addition, individual and group pastoral counseling is provided along with other supportive services to those who are in need.

9.) "WORK OUT":
This program is for eligible residents who have participated and have been successful in the Mission program for 30 days or more. Participants will work for employers outside of the Mission, while continuing to reside in and receive full support of all of the Mission's services and programs. Upon reaching a savings goal, they are then assisted with making a healthy transition to independent living.

10.) WORK READINESS:
All residents must participate in "Work Readiness" training. This involves working at the Mission, in the recycling center, or in other areas. The residents not only help the operation of the Mission, but they learn valuable, marketable job skills, time management, and good work ethics.

Available Hours
Phone answers 7 days a week 24 hours a day and the shelter is available at any time if space permits. Store hours are 9:00 A.M. -4:00 P.M.

Service Description
Universal Services (low-income) programs may include: special payment arrangements and weatherization (non-emergency).

CARES (Customer Assistance Referral and Evaluation Services)
 The CARES program offers personalized assistance to customers having difficulty paying their gas bill. We know that life can sometimes surprise people with the unexpected. That's why we offer a helping hand during temporary hardships. Our Universal Services representatives are trained to be helpful in situations requiring sensitivity, resourcefulness and have the ability to assist customers through short-term financial problems. Basic budget counseling, customized payment plans, and linkage to energy grant programs/community resources form the supportive framework of the CARES program. To learn more about CARES call our Universal Services department at 1-800-537-7431.

Warm Choice is a free weatherization program that first identifies an energy picture of your home and then takes action to seal up areas where heat escapes. This free program is designed for customers with low incomes and high gas usage. The goal is to help customers better manage energy use and gas heating costs by reducing natural gas consumption. To learn more about Warm Choice call 1-800-537-7431.

The Emergency Repair Program offers financial assistance for the repair or replacement of natural gas furnaces, water heaters, service and house lines and space heaters serving as the primary heat source for a residential dwelling. This program is designed to address emergency situations that involve unsafe service conditions for residential heat customers with low incomes who own and are living in their home. To be eligible to receive a grant through the Emergency Repair program, the customer must meet strict income guidelines. Funds are limited on an annual basis. To learn more about the Emergency Repair program, call our Universal Services number at 1-800-537-7431.

Medical Certification: We will delay termination of service for up to 30 days when you have a licensed physician complete a medical certification form stating that termination would be hazardous to the health or safety of a permanent resident of your home.

For more information, please call: 1-888-460-4332.

Third Party Notification: this service can be a "safety net" if you or someone you care for misses a payment on the monthly gas bill. A third party can be notified if service is in danger of being shutoff for non-payment. This doesn't mean that the third party is obligated to pay the bill, and it doesn't necessarily prevent the shutoff. But it does alert the third party that the person is having problems and might need help or advice. Third-party notification is especially helpful for someone who lives alone or who's dealing with chronic illness. To request this service, both parties should complete the authorization form and return it to Columbia Gas at the address on the form. If you would like more information, please call: 1-888-460-4332.

Commission for Women

Organizational Information

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
The mission of the Pennsylvania Commission for Women is to identify and advance the diverse needs and interests of Pennsylvania women and girls; to inform, educate and advocate for its constituents; and to provide opportunities to empower women and girls to reach their highest potential.

History of Organization
The Pennsylvania Commission for Women was established by Executive Order in 1974, by Governor Milton J. Shapp. The formation of a Women's Commission legitimized many concerns of the women's movement and brought them into the mainstream of the political process. The Commission has evolved from its initial purpose of bringing the laws of the Commonwealth into compliance with the Equal Rights Amendment. While still a vehicle for change, today's Commission is an ardent advocate for health care, business and human rights legislation. It encourages the formation of County Commissions for Women and facilitates coalitions among women's organizations across the State. In keeping with its mission, the Commission continues to break down barriers, gain footholds, and empower the women of Pennsylvania. Governor Edward G. Rendell signed the most recent Executive Order on June 22, 2003. Governor Rendell appointed twenty-six members to the Commission and Leslie Stiles as Executive Director.

Connect Information Service

Early Intervention Hotline

Organizational Information

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
The CONNECT Helpline assists families in locating resources and providing information regarding child development for children ages birth to age five. In addition, CONNECT can assist parents by making a direct link to their county Early Intervention program or local preschool Early Intervention program.

History of Organization
While all children grow and develop in unique ways, some children experience delays in their development. Children in Pennsylvania with developmental delays and disabilities benefit from a state supported collaboration among parents, service practitioners and others who work with young children needing special services. The Pennsylvania Early Intervention program provides support and services to families with children birth to age five with developmental delays and disabilities. Early Intervention builds upon the natural learning opportunities that occur within the daily routines of a child and their family.

Service Description
Pennsylvania Protection & Advocacy, Inc. and the Disabilities Law Project have merged to form the Disability Rights Network of Pennsylvania (DRN). The result is a more comprehensive, stronger, seamless advocacy system for persons with disabilities. This agency will provide the full range of legal, policy and advocacy services necessary to protect and advance the rights of persons with disabilities.

Disability Rights Network of PA is a statewide, non-profit corporation designated as the federally-mandated organization to advance and protect the civil rights of all adults and children with disabilities. DRN works with people with disabilitities and their familiies to ensure their rights to live in their communities with the services they need, to receive a full and inclusive education, to live free of discrimination, abuse and neglect, and to have control and self-determination over their services.

People can contact DRN's Intake Team to seek advice about disability rights, access to services, abuse and neglect, and other issues by calling the tollfree number or sending an email. The intake system is staffed by intake workers who take basic information from the callers, full time intake advocates who address advocacy issues and full time attorneys who address legal advocacy issues.

Service Description
This service is responsible for enforcing a new law which allows Pennsylvanians to avoid unwanted telephone solicitation calls. Telemarketers are prohibited from calling anyone whose name is on the new "Do Not Call" list. There is no fee for registering on the list. Once enrolled, your name and telephone number will remain listed for five years, or until that telephone number is no longer valid. Since the list is updated quarterly, please be advised that there will be a delay between the time you register on the list and the time the telemarketers receive your information.

Service Description
The National Do Not Call Registry is open for business, putting consumers in charge of the telemarketing calls they receive at home. The Federal government created the national registry to make it easier and more efficient for you to stop getting telemarketing calls that you do not want. You can register online or call tollfree. Placing your number on the registry will stop most, but not all, telemarketing calls.

Service Description
Jurisdiction over domestic relations including the establishment, modification, and enforcement of support for spouses and/or children when there is separation, divorce or a parent absent from the home; complaints for custody of children, partial custody, visitation, and matters related therto; divorce, alimony, and equitable distribution.

Application Services: Accept applications for services from individuals referred to the DRS by DPW, from other agencies and jurisdictions, and from individuals.

Location Services: Attempt to locate non-custodial parents and the income, assets and health insurance coverage on non-custodial parents through all available Federal and State automated means and local resources.

Petition Processing Services: Assist individuals, whether or not represented by counsel, in the filing of support complaints and thereafter processing those support complaints in accordance with the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure. The DRS shall attempt to solicit relevant information directly from the applicant/recipient of services prior to a determination that services cannot be provided due to insufficient information.

Paternity Services: Provide the alleged father the opportunity to voluntarily acknowledge paternity or attempt to establish paternity, when necessary, by ordering genetic testing or referring the matter for further judicial proceedings.

Financial Assessment Services: Conduct a financial assessment of the child's needs and person's ability to provide support in accordance with the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure, using information available through automated or other means.

Establishment of Support Services: Establish an order of support, including medical support, in accordance with the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure.

Medical Support Services: Recommend the inclusion in all new or modified orders the requirement that health benefits or health insurance be provided as required by Federal and State statues.

Modification of support order services: Initiate proceedings to review and, if appropriate, petition the courts to modify support orders in accordance with State and Federal law, or whenever a verifiable material and substantial change in circumstances becomes known to the DRS.

Enforcement Services: Use all available automated or other appropriate legal measures to enforce support orders, including but not limited to the following: initiating proceedings for income attachment; directing an employer to enroll dependent(s) in available health insurance and to deduct the required premium payment from the employee's income; petitioning the court for contempt sanctions; automatically intercepting unemployment compensation or an IRS income tax refund for all cases meeting the certification criteria unless good cause is established; entering or assisting in entering liens against personal property of the obligor; initiate actions to seize financial assets and suspend, non-renew or deny driver's and professional or other licenses of delinquent obligors which are issued by any entity, political subdivision or agency of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Inter/Intra-state Services: Refer and monitor appropriate cases to other states or DRSs for provision of services and provide the aforesaid services to cases referred from the DPW, other states or DRSs.

Domestic Violence Services of Southwestern PA

formerly known as Greene County Women's Center

Organizational Information

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
Domestic Violence Services of Southwestern Pennsylvania is committed to providing services to women and their children who are abused or threatened with abuse. The shelter is a safe non-judgemental alternative to domestic violence. We are working toward making the community aware of the scope of domestic violence and its impact on individuals, the family and society.

History of Organization
Domestic Violence Services of Southwestern Pennsylvania was incorporated as Washington Women's Shelter, Inc. in 1986 and became fully autonomous at that time. In 1993 the agency was asked by PCADV (Pennsylvania Coalition Against Domestic Violence) to open an office in Greene County, (formerly known as Greene County Women's Center). In 2010 the agency also began service provision in Fayette County. The agency name was then changed to Domestic Violence Services of Southwestern Pennsylvania to encompass all three counties and to be more indicative of all the services provided. In 2009 the agency celebrated 25 years of continuous service.

Service Description
Legal consultation and representation for negotiations, administrative hearings, and court proceedings involving public education. Education about legal rights to special education services. Speakers and training available.

The ELC staff can provide information on the legal rights of public school students, help with problem-solving, written materials, and contacts. In some cases involving large numbers of children, they provide legal representation (though only in a relatively small number of cases).

Also, ELC is also involved with training, information-sharing, working with the media and advocating for children in Harrisburg and Washington.

The Education Law Center Help Line: Through the HelpLine, ELC staff answers questions from students, families, advocates and child-serving professionals about the legal rights of public school students in Pennsylvania. As of 7/1/07, the HelpLine will no longer be able to offer services to families with questions about special education or early intervention. This is because ELC's funder, the Disability Rights Network of PA (formerly PA Protection & Advocacy), will offer telephone consultation services itself rather than contracting with ELC to provide them. You can reach the Disability Rights Network at 800-692-7443 or 717-236-8110. For the ELC HelpLine, if your area code is 215, 610, 484, 717 or 570, pleace call (215) 238-6970 between the hours of 9 a.m. to 2 p.m., Monday-Thursday. Eldercare Locator

Organizational Information

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
The Eldercare Locator is designed to help older adults and their families and caregivers find their way through the maze of services for seniors by identifying trustworthy local support resources. The goal is to provide users with the information and resources that will help older persons live independently and safely in their homes and communities for as long as possible.

History of Organization
The Eldercare Locator began telephone operation in 1991 and the website was launched in 2001. The Eldercare Locator links those who need assistance with state and local area agencies on aging and community-based organizations that serve older adults and their caregivers. Whether an older person needs help with services such as meals, home care or transportation, or a caregiver needs training and education or a well-deserved break from caregiving responsibilities, the Eldercare Locator is there to point that person in the right direction.

Affiliations
The Eldercare Locator is administered in partnership with the National Association of Area Agencies on Aging.

Service Description
The Pa Elks Home Service Program is a home nursing service by a registered nurse offered to persons who have developmental disabilities. These disabilities include: cerebral palsy, epilepsy, muscular dystrophy, spina bifida, hearing, speech & visual disibilities.

The mission of this program is to support and promote the independence of individuals with developmental disabilities, by providing advocacy services in their home environment.

Services are provided by a registered Nurse and/or Medical Case Coordinator.

Services are provided in the person's home environment and without discrimination.

When a referral is made, a visit is made to the home for an intake and initial assessment. The needs of the family and environment are noted at this time. After discussing the needs with the individual or family, we help to determine the appropriate referrals for services. When referrals are made, we can assist with follow-up. Home visits are then made on an as needed basis.

Referrals can be made by a friend or concerned Elk, by a health care professional, by school personnel, by community and human service agencies, by a family member.
Permission must first be obtained from the individual or family.

Service Description
Family Behavioral Resources addresses behavioral, emotional, and autistic spectrum disorders and a psychologist or a physician must determine the services are medically necessary.

The goal of the therapy, conducted by either a therapeutic staff support, mobile therapist, or a behavioral specialist consultant, is to keep the child living with the family.

Therapeutic staff support works directly with the child implementing the treatment plan; a mobile therapist works with the child and the family while addressing the issue that affect the behaviors, and a behavioral specialist develops the treatment plan and supervises the case.

Specialize in services to meet the needs of those persons with autism.

Available Hours
Monday through Friday: 8:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M.

Eligibility Requirements
To be eligible for services, a family must be eligible for medical assistance. Wrap around services are for persons 21 years and younger.

FamilyLinks (Pittsburgh)

Organizational Information

History of Organization
Both the Parent & Child Guidance Center and The Whale's Tale were originally formed (PCGC in 1956; TWT in 1970) with similar family-based visions of providing a comprehensive and long-term approach to troubled children, adults and families. The agencies had their own approaches to reaching children and families: one had involuntary admissions and street-level services; the other had voluntary admissions and in-office services. Starting in the late 1990s, these organizations began independently to seek out a partner that could complement and supplement their programs. From a client perspective, a merger of the two agencies would result in the most comprehensive collection of prevention, intervention and rehabilitation services for Western Pennsylvania's residents. From an agency perspective, a merger would mean that the two agencies were able to build capacity, eliminate duplicate services and consolidate two administrations into one. In 2001, the agency served 32,316 clients, providing 537,046 professional hours and 74,682 bed days through five major service areas: Substance Abuse Services Community Services Residential Services Mental Health Services Mental Retardation Services Today, FamilyLinks is a non-profit social service agency that provides mental health and mental retardation programs, youth and family development programs, adult community services, alcohol and other drug treatment, and school-based prevention services to children, families and individuals throughout southwestern Pennsylvania.

Affiliations
Bloomfield Garfield Corporation Provides youth and family prevention and after-school services. Children's Hospital Collaboration on Family Support Centers to ensure prevention/counseling services and health care to abused, homeless youth. Operation Nehemiah Collaboration to provide mental health services in group homes. Child Watch Collaboration to mobilize community leaders to solve children's problems. Consumer Action & Response Team (CART) FamilyLinks proudly joins with Consumer Action & Response Team of Allegheny County (CART) in our ongoing efforts to improve the quality of our services for Allegheny County residents. CART is an independent project intended to improve services by helping consumers communicate with their service providers. Results of CART s efforts with FamilyLinks consumers are available upon request.

Flenniken Public Library

Organizational Information

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
The Flenniken Public Library provides equal access to information and programming for the entire community. It provides opportunities for intellectual, economic, and social growth with a special emphasis on literacy skills.

History of Organization
The Flenniken Library was started in 1946 by the Carmichaels-Cumberland Women's Civic Club. It was first located in the basement of the first National Bank in Carmichaels, now Community Bank. In 1959, the will of Earl T. Flenniken provided a sum of money to be used for a library in memory of his parents, William F. and Mary A. Flenniken. The library purchased the Werner Lund propery near the square and remodeled the large brick mansion. The opening was May 1, 1961. In 1972, the first floor of the building was expanded. In 1976, the Bowlby and Flenniken libraries combined to form the Greene County Library System. In 1982, an addition was built for a conference room and children's library. The library is now part of WAGGIN, a consortium of libraries in Washington, Greene, and Fayette counties that provides access to materials in all participating libraries and a unified online catalog.

Service Description
The Foundation for Wellness (formerly the Wellness Center) combines state-of-the-art equipment with a highly competent and qualified staff to provide a safe and extremely pleasant environment in which to pursue your individual fitness goals. A complete line of weight training equipment, twenty cardiovascular machines, a free weight room with 7,000 pounds of free weights and dumbbells, and a heated therapy pool make the Foundation for Wellness a great choice for obtaining whatever fitness goals you may have.

The Foundation for Wellness at Southwest Regional Medical Center is now offering personal training services. Personal training can help individuals increase strength, maximize flexibility or reduce body fat. Those combating depression, diabetes or arthritis can also benefit from personal training services. Participants will undergo a baseline assessment to evaluate blood pressure, body measurements, cardiovascular endurance and body fat. This functional assessment will help create a customized program and measure progress throughout training. Each program is personally designed to meet the goals and needs of the individual.

Service Description
The state is divided into six regions, this is the Southwest Regional Office. The wildlife conservation officer is responsible for enforcing the game laws, overseeing the deer management program, responding to dead wildlife, etc.

Wildlife Management: the Commission is responsible for managing all of Pennsylvania's wild birds and mammals. Wildlife Protection: enforce hunting and trapping laws to protect wildlife; investigate hunting accidents, conduct wildlife surveys, assist in wildlife research projects and provide educational programs. Wildlife Habitat Management: each State Game Land has an individual management plan designed to improve wildlife habitat and provide recreational opportunities. Information and Education: help to educate the public to better understand wildlife and the basic concepts of wildlife management. The agency offers various Hunter-Trapper Education Programs, and advanced education programs and Nationa Archery in the schools program, which fulfills physical education requirements of the state department of education while exposing young people to the shooting sports. The Commission manages more than 1.4 million acres od state game lands throughout the state, issues all hunting and furtaking licenses and wildlife rehabilitator and wildlife nuisance control operator permits; gather samples for wildlife diseases testing, maintains an elk viewing area with an educational pavilion in Elk County, as well as wildlife management areas in Crawford and Lebanon/Lancaster Counties. The agency also annually raises and releases about 200,000 pheasants; provides shooting ranges on many State Game Lands throughout the state; helps coordinate the Youth Hunter Education Challenge; and annually holds a Hunter Education Youth Essay Contest, as well as Working Together for Wildlife fine-art print competitions.

Service Description
Priority is given to caregivers with the greatest financial and social need, who are raising children with special needs.

Services include: Caregiver Training and Education, Care management, Family-centered Benefits Counseling, Limited reimbursement for services and supplies related to caregiving and access to caregiver support groups.

The Grandparenting Program is designed to provide assistance to older persons who are caring for the children of family members, and who reside in the same household. Once a referral is made, agency staff will visit the home and complete an assessment of the caregiver's needs. Based on the assessed needs, and the financial situation of the family, the caregiver may be eligible to receive reimbursement for in-home and center-based respite care services, and for limited supplemental services. An agency care manager will also assist the family in accessing other available community services.

The Grandparenting Program is an ongoing effort to provide intergenerational programming opportunities and to develop stronger ties with educational and child-care networks.

Service Description
Treatment for chemical dependency, including nicotine.

Greenbriar Treatment Center offers hope and help for people suffering from chemical dependency and support for the people who love them. Our approach is based on respect for the dignity of the people we serve, and the belief that addiction is a treatable disease.

Greenbriar's MISA (mental illness substance abuse) professionals help people in need of dual diagnosis treatment recover from both substance abuse and mental illness by individualizing treatment plans that address both issues in a comprehensive recovery plan.

An in-depth assessment by our professional staff will assist in the determination of the appropriate entry level to care. Treatment takes on many forms, depending on the severity of the addiction and may include medically monitored detoxification or inpatient rehabilitation. Other levels of care may involve day treatment, intensive outpatient treatment and individual counseling sessions.

Hershey School

Milton Hershey School

Organizational Information

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
The mission of Milton Hershey School remains true to the ideals upon which it was founded more than 90 years ago: In keeping with Milton and Catherine Hershey's Deed of Trust, Milton Hershey School nurtures and educates children in social and financial need to lead fulfilling and productive lives.

History of Organization
Milton Hershey School began as a dream and vision shared by chocolate magnate Milton S. Hershey and his wife, Catherine (Kitty). Unable to have children of their own, Milton and Catherine Hershey decided to use their wealth to create a home and a school for orphaned boys. On November 15, 1909, together they signed the Deed of Trust establishing the Hershey Industrial School (renamed Milton Hershey School in 1951). The following year, the first four boys were enrolled and began to live and attend classes in The Homestead, the birthplace of Milton Hershey.

Service Description
The IU1 Educational Campus at East Franklin provides education and related services to students in grades K-12 who are in need of highly supportive and comprehensive special education services that are not available in the public school setting. Each classroom is supported educationally and emotionally by a paraprofessional and social worker.

Autistic Support Services
Autistic Support Services offers students in grades K-5, a highly structured environment with emphasis on speech and language development and social skills training. These are essential skills for children afflicted by autism who often have difficulty interpreting body language, interacting with others, and changing routines. The program encourages development of independent learners capable of communicating and problem-solving.

Therapeutic Emotional Support
East Franklin offers separate Therapeutic Emotional Support (TES) programs for students at the elementary and secondary levels who meet criteria for emotional disturbance but also need the individual and group therapy. An individual Behavior Intervention Plan is created for each child. TES programs offer highly structured classroom environments with emphasis on positive behavior interventions. A child psychiatrist serves as consultant and manages students' medication.

Life Skills Support
The Life Skills Support Program (LSS) at East Franklin serves students who have intellectual abilities that prevent them from obtaining meaningful progress in a general education curriculum. The LSS program emphasizes functional academics, communication skills, self-help, social self-advocacy, vocational and community living skills with community-based instructions in real-life situations.

Service Description
Izaak Walton League of America is a conservation organization providing education and advocacy on environmental issues from the county level up to a worldwide perspective. At present the local chapter is concerned with several issues, including the establishment of a canoe/kayak waterway trail on Ten Mile Creek, from Waynesburg to the mouth just beyond Clarksville. They have also been active in working to keep the water quality ratings for the local creeks and rivers from being downgraded and have actually assisted in several of them being upgraded. The most serious concern at present is the environmental damage, both posible and actual, of the fracing by drillers into the Marcellus Shale. They are not against either mining or drilling, but are determined to see that these operations are executed in an environmentally-friendly manner. They believe that the technology is available, and want to see it used to protect our environment.

Active trout stocking of Ten Mile Creek sponsoring an annual day of fishing in October with a "Ladies Day" and a "Kids Day."

Active fly-tying class in coordination with the Greene County Parks & Recreation.

Active water monitoring unit.

Available Hours

Service Description
The C.A.R.L. Line (Community Assistance Resource Line) is an innovative program in youth suicide prevention. It is a 24-hour/seven-day telephone "Resource Line" for anyone who needs information regarding suicidal ideation in youth. The C.A.R.L. lines are staffed by trained clinical specialists. Although C.A.R.L. may function as a crisis intervention program for young people, its main purpose is to provide important information to parents, teachers, and other youth workers in order to identify and assist youth who are possibly experiencing suicidal ideation.

Service Description
The Kaleidoscope Therapy Center offers a social skills program for children and adolescents. Currently there are two social skills groups for children between the ages of 3 and 18 years who reside in Greene County. Group 1: children diagnosed on the Autism spectrum and Group 2: children that presently have a non-spectrum mental health diagnosis.

Children are placed in groups with peers of the same age and each group will consist of no more that 8 children. The groups will run for 12 weeks and meet two times weekly for two hours per session.

The goals of the social skills groups are to increase positive interactions with peers, promote sharing and learning to take turns, develop appropriate social and communication skills, increase compliance and promote independence.

Additional services include: individual therapy for children, adolescents and adults. Adult group therapy is offered for parents of children with mental health illnesses and/or disabilities. Psychological evaluations.

Service Description
The purpose of the Kinship Caregiver Program is to provide education, training, information and support to relative caregivers. This is a program being implemented under the Integrated Children's Service Plan (ICSP) and is categorized under the key strategy of "School Success". The program will work with the kinship caregivers, schools and community providers to promote school success for the children. The goals include: improving communication about the many services in our community that could help support the kinship cargivers & their family; offer written materials, monthly newsletters, program resources and fact sheets on a wide variety of issues that face the kinship caregiver in order to build the strength of the family; provide a forum for kinship caregivers and children to help identify and plan needed services and supports; train kinship caregivers about agency policies and help them prepare to be caregivers; help kinship caregivers to be actively involved in the children's education and become strong advocates.

Service Information

Service Area
Pennsylvania

Service Description
The PBA Lawyer Referral Service (LRS) refers callers to lawyers in the counties that do not have a referral service of their own. This service covers 45 of the 67 counties in the commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Lawyers participate in this service on a voluntary basis and have indicated the areas of law in which they will accept referrals. Computerization ensures lawyers are rotated automatically by county according to the type of case.

There is no charge for contacting the LRS. By using this service, the participating attorney agrees to grant Referral Service clients an initial consultation of up to one half-hour for a fee of $30; $15 of that fee shall be returned to the PBA Lawyer Referral Service with the client referral form. If it is the policy of the attorney to waive initial consultation fees, he/she is required to collect the $15 referral fee to be returned to the PBA.

If callers need a lawyer in a state other than Pennsylvania, they may contact that state's bar association.

Life'sWork of Western PA

Organizational Information

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
To value the self-respect that comes to the handicapped person as a result of being self-supporting.

History of Organization
Life's Work started in 1927 as an "experiment" to find out if women who were "handicapped by housework and children and could not leave their homes" could contribute to the family budget. Women were trained to be seamstresses, and their finished garments were featured and sold at fashion shows hosted by the region's socialites. By the late 1930's, the organization responded to the effects of the Great Depression and began serving immigrants and disable war veterans. It was called the United Vocational and Employment Service.

Make-A-Wish Foundation of Western PA

Organizational Information

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
Make-A-Wish Greater Pennsylvania and Southern West Virginia grants wishes of children with life-threatening medical conditions to enrich the human experience with hope, strength and joy. We are proud to have served more than 13,000 children in 57 Pennsylvania and 23 West Virginia counties in our nearly 30-year history.

History of Organization
Make-A-Wish® was founded in 1980 in Phoenix, Arizona. A small group of people there helped a very ill boy achieve his wish - to be a state trooper for a day. From that one wish made 32 years ago, more than 250,000 wishes have been granted throughout 62 chapters in the United States and in more than 30 countries around the world. Make-A-Wish Greater Pennsylvania and Southern West Virginia was founded in May 1983 in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. Bryan was a seven-year-old cancer patient who wanted to visit his favorite uncle in Texas for one of their famous piggy-back rides. Today the chapter has granted more than 13,000 wishes. We are the first chapter in the world to fulfill more than 700 wishes in one year.

Service Description
Megan's Law exists solely for the purpose of providing a means of protecting the public, especially children, from victimization by sexual offenders. This is accomplished by tracking the whereabouts of convicted sex offenders and providing notification to the public of the presence of a sex offender in their community. Utilizing the combination of tracking and notification, law enforcement and citizens are able to develop constructive plans, safety programs and victimization strategies to prepare for the presence of sex offenders in their neighborhoods.

Mental Health Association

Organizational Information

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
The mission of the Mental Health Association is to promote an environment of empowerment and acceptance for all people dealing with mental health issues through advocacy, education, and comprehensive support services. We foster opportunities for growth, recovery, inclusion, and most importantly HOPE. We envision a community in which all members with mental health issues are accepted, not stigmatized, and have an opportunity to reach their full potential.

History of Organization
Founded in 1965, the Mental Health Association of Washington County is a non-profit agency dedicated to assisting people with mental illness. For over 35 years, the Mental Health Association has played a leading role in advocacy, providing services, and educating the community. The Mental Health Association has been a catalyst for change in improving the availability and diversity of Mental Health services The Mental Health Association developed and operated the first social and vocational rehabilitation services in the county. Besides the current programs listed , the Mental Health Association provides technical assistance to the community. The Mental Health Association is an active member of numerous coalitions, committees, and advisory boards on a local, regional, and statewide basis.

Service Information

Service Area
District 2 covers field PA offices in Clearfield, Indiana, Johnstown, Kitanning and Ruff Creek.

Service Description
Coal Mine Safety and Health is responsible for enforcing the Mine Act at all coal mines. This includes conducting inspections, including four complete annual inspections of underground coal mines and two complete annual inspections of surface coal mines; investigating fatal and serious nonfatal accidents; issuing citations and orders for any observed violations; and conducting safety and health conferences with mine operators on citations and orders that are issued. For each violation cited, operators may be assessed civil money penalties. Additionally, Coal Mine Safety and Health approves roof control, ventilation, and training plans required to be submitted by mine operators, directs various mine safety and health assistance programs and trains and certifies instructors.

If coal mine inspectors find violations or other conditions that pose an immediate threat to the miners' safety or health, they have the authority to issue a withdrawal order for the affected area, remove the related equipment from service, and have the miners withdrawn until the conditions are corrected.

Coal Mine Safety and Health's organization consists of a small headquarters office located in Arlington, Virginia. Headquarters includes the Office of the Administrator, Health Division and Safety Division. The organization also consists of 11 districts with a total of about 45 field offices located throughout the coal mining regions. Each district is headed by a District Manager who reports to the Administrator for Coal Mine Safety and Health. There are approximately 2,100 coal mines located in 27 states.

Service Description
Our greatest objective is to see lost people turn toward our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ for the answers that they are seeking in their lives. Because of this we are intentional in our services and outreaches to see as many come to know Him as possible. There are numerous opportunities given to accept Christ as Savior during our services and many souls are saved each year in our church. We are called to be the salt of the earth and the light of the world, and at Gospel Tabernacle people are given a clear presentation of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Nathanael Greene Historical Foundation

NGHF

Organizational Information

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
Greensboro has been involved in a number of Art and Community centric activities since the early 70's. In 1994, The Nathanael Greene Historical Foundation (NGHF) was recognized as a formal 501 (c)3 chartered with the support and preservation of cultural activities and history in the area. In 2005, NGHF refined its scope to develop a well received annual conference and arts festival called the "Creative Communities Conference" and the "Art Blast on the Mon". Now in 2008, the Creative Communities has been expanded to a series of Monthly Seminars known as "Second Saturdays" designed to discuss emerging activities and developments in sustainable communities, arts education, networks, co-op marketing and a number of growing areas valuable to rural communities seeking to attract artists, services, and individuals to their community. To simplify things, we have added a simple statement to our vision. "Preserving the culture that is uniquely Southwestern Pennsylvania"

National Labor Relations Board

Region 6

Organizational Information

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
The NLRB has two primary functions: (1)To prevent and remedy unfair labor practices, committed by labor organizations or employers; (2) To establish whether or not certain employees desire labor organization representation for collective bargaining purposes, and which union.

History of Organization
Congress established the National Labor Relations Board in 1935 to adminsiter the National Relations Act, the primary law that governs relations between unions, employees, and employers in the private sector. The Act guarantees employees the right to organize and to bargain collectively with their employers or to refrain from such activities. The Act, which generally applies to all employers involved in interstate commerce, implements the national labor policy assuring free choice and encouraging collectively bargaining as a means of maintaining industrial peace.

National Runaway Switchboard

Organizational Information

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
Our mission at the National Runaway Switchboard is to help keep America's runaway and at-risk youth safe and off the streets.

History of Organization
NRS was established in 1971 to fill a need for comprehensive crisis intervention for young people in Chicago. It was conceived as a centralized organization with free 24-hour services, expertise in all youth-related issues and as an information clearinghouse of youth services. In 1974, the National Runaway Switchboard received an eight-month federal demonstration grant to establish a national hotline. During this time, 11,000 calls were received demonstrating the need for this type of service. Since then, NRS' capabilities and services have grown considerably. The 1-800-RUNAWAY hotline now handles more than 100,000 calls each year.

Service Description

The National Runaway Switchboard is the federally designated national communication system for runaway and homeless youth. Services include: 1.) A Crisis Intervention Hotline for youth in crisis/emergency situations. and 2.) An Agency Information Line --focuses on helping agencies who work with youth in crisis.

We are the federally-designated national communication system (hotline and website) for runaway and homeless youth. Youth and family members call 24 hours a day to work through problems and find local help from social service agencies and organizations. Some callers just need someone to talk to, others need help finding a shelter, food, medical assistance, or counseling. Some callers are on the streets, others are struggling with other issues and we work with them to identify options to prevent them from leaving their home, when possible and if appropriate.

Needy Meds

Organizational Information

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
Helping people who cannot afford medicine or healthcare costs by connecting them to the available financial assistance resources.

History of Organization
NeedyMeds was founded in 1997 by Richard J. Sagall, MD, and Libby Overly. MEd, MSW. Ms. Overly, a home health social worker working in Alabama put together a database on patient assistance programs to help her serve clients who could not afford to pay for their medication. Dr. Sagall, at that time, a family practitioner in Bangor, Maine, heard about the database from his friend and thought the information could reach many more people on the web. The website was launched on November 24, 1997, with the mission of providing information, free of charge, to anyone who needs help paying for medicine. In January, 2002, NeedyMeds became a non-profit corporation and is now based in Gloucester, MA. Ms. Overly has relocated to Baltimore, MD, where she works as social worker and is a member of the NeedyMeds Board of Directors. The website, which now averages 14,000 visitors every weekday to the homepage, with over 60,000 different page views a day.

Service Description

NeedyMeds.org has information on medicine and healthcare assistance programs.
They do not run a patient assistance program, and they do not supply medicine or financial assistance.

Follow these easy steps to search on their website and find assistance programs that will help with costs of healthcare.

Look for Low-Cost Medicine Programs:

1.Programs called PAPs (patient assistance programs) provide free or low-cost prescription medicine to low-income people who are uninsured or under-insured. Click on BRAND NAME DRUGS or GENERIC NAME DRUGS.

2.Click on the first letter of the name of your medicine in the alphabet bar. Click on the name of your medicine to learn about the program.

3.Look for all of your medicines, not just the most expensive. If your medicine is not on either list, it is not available through a PAP. Call the program if you have questions.

Look for Additional Assistance Programs:

When you go to their site click on the blue words to learn about finding other assistance programs.

1.Application Assistance is a resource of organizations that will help you find and apply for PAPs for free or a small fee.

2.Disease-Based Assistance is a database of programs that help with the costs associated with specific diseases or conditions.

3.Government Programs are state and federal programs that assist low-income residents.

4.Discount Drug Cards lists several categories of cards.

Check all the categories and look for all your medicines.

Other assistance listed on the website include
- Disease-Based Assistance is a database of programs that help with the costs associated with specific diseases or conditions
- Free or low cost clinics
- Medication coupons offered on prescription and over-the-coutner medications
- Camps and Scholarships offered based on a diagnosis

- Application Assistance is a resource of organizations that will help you find and apply for PAPs for free or a small fee
- Government Programs are state and federal programs that assist low-income residents

NeedyMeds also runs a free drug discount card that can save users up to 80% off the cost of medications.

Nine to Five, National Association of Working Women

Organizational Information

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
To strengthen women's ability to win economic justice.

History of Organization
In 1973 a group of office workers in Boston got together to talk about issues which had no name -- sexual harassment, work/family challenges, and pay equity. From this beginning 9 to 5 emerged as the national organization dedicated to putting working women's issues on the public agenda. 9 to 5's constituents are low-wage women, women in traditionally female jobs, and those who've experienced any form of discrimination. Membership is open to all.

Nursing Board, PA

Organizational Information

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
Mission Statement: The State Board of Nursing establishes rules and regulations for the licensure and practice of professional and practical nursing in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and provides for the examination of all applicants. The Board examines all applicants for licensure and issues licenses for professional nursing and practical nursing to persons passing such examinations and meeting other qualifications for licensure. The Board establishes standards for the approval and operation of nursing education programs for the preparation of professional nurses (RNs) and prepares and distributes an annual list of all approved programs. In addition, the Board annually prepares and distributes a list of all Board-approved schools and institutions for the education of practical nurses (LPNs). The Board regulates certified registered nurse practitioners (CRNPs) and approves programs for their education. In addition, Act 99 of 2002 (effective 9/29/02) amended the Professional Nursing Law to include licensing of dietitian-nutritionists.

Parkinson Foundation of Western Pennyslvania

Organizational Information

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
The Parkinson Foundation of Western Pennsylvania provides services, support and education for those afflicted with Parkinson Disease and their families and supports medical research to discover the cause and cure. .

History of Organization
The Parkinson Foundation of Western Pennsylvania was formed in 1995 by volunteers with the purpose of supporting research efforts to find a cure and provide support for those with Parkinson Disease (PD) and their families. The Foundation was largely a volunteer effort until 2000, when the Foundation hired an executive director to expand patient services and public awareness, and to establish the Foundation's identity as an independent organization. The Parkinson Wellness Program was initiated in 2001, providing physical exercise, cognitive stimulation, and socialization, all tailored to the needs of people with PD. These programs are offered at five sites in western Pennsylvania along with a high-functioning exercise group through UPMC.

Service Description
The Early Intervention (EI) Program offers supports and services designed to assist families with infants and toddlers (birth through age two), with special needs, to promote the development of their child. Early Interventionists provide services within the child's natural environment. This typically includes the child's home, child care center, or other community setting. This approach is intended to help the child's caregivers learn ways to support their children within their daily routines and activities.

Related services include: physical therapy, occupational therapy, speech pathology, vision support, hearing support and social work services are provided as appropriate.

Pathways of SW PA provides EI services to 221 children residing in Washington and Greene Counties. All services are available year round and are provided at no cost to families. An additional service is the Rainbow's End Learning Center, Inc., located at 300 North St. in Waynesburg (724-627-5421).

Pennsylvania Cancer Control Consortium

PAC³

Organizational Information

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
It is the vision of PAC³ that, by working together in partnership across the continuum of cancer control, the Consortium will have a significant impact on improving the health of the citizens of the Commonwealth. Together we will ensure that research-based knowledge and understanding of the causes of cancer and its progression will allow us to develop and implement state-of-the-art prevention, early detection, treatment, and quality of life programs that are evidence-based and deliver high-quality care to citizens of the Commonwealth. The mission of the Pennsylvania Cancer Control Consortium is to reduce the human and economic burden of cancer for all citizens of the Commonwealth by working together as a collaboration of leaders from many organizations.

History of Organization
PAC³ was formed in 2001 and is guided by the Pennsylvania Cancer Control Plan (Plan). The Plan, designed in January 2004, is a blueprint with recommended strategies to advance cancer research, improve cancer prevention and treatment, increase use of proven detection practices, ensure quality of life for persons with cancer, and address health disparities. In May 2005, PAC³ achieved 501(c)(3) non-profit incorporation.

Legal Structure
Non-profit corporation

Funding Sources
The Pennsylvania Cancer Control Consortium (PAC³) is funded in part by the Pennsylvania Department of Health, and through a grant the Department receives from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, with in-kind support provided by the American Cancer Society (ACS), Pennsylvania Division, Inc.; University of Pittsburgh Cancer Institute; and numerous other PAC³ members.

Pennsylvania Housing Finance Agency

PHFA

Organizational Information

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
The Pennsylvania Housing Finance Agency is the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania's leading provider of capital for affordable homes and apartments. As a leader, we are always seeking new methods to serve the housing and community needs of all Pennsylvanians. To this end, the Board has set aside funds to create the PHFA Homeownership Choice Programs (HCP).

History of Organization
The Pennsylvania Housing Finance Agency was created by the General Assembly in 1972 to provide affordable housing for older adults, persons and families of modest means, and persons with disabilities. To date, the Agency has financed more than 130,000 houses and 54,000 apartment units while assisting 40,000 homeowners threatened with foreclosure. PHFA's funding comes from a variety of sources, including the sale of its own securities to private investors throughout the United States, and program fees and funds that may be passed through from the state or federal governments. Agency expenses are paid from fee and investment income; part of the investment earnings are used to subsidize housing programs. PHFA employs a staff of more than 260 individuals organized into three functional groups: Finance and Administration; Multifamily Housing Development; and, Homeownership Programs. The Agency maintains its headquarters in Harrisburg, with regional offices in Norristown and Pittsburgh.

Service Description
MULTIFAMILY RENTAL HOUSING:Affordable rental housing programs offer development sponsors financing from a wide variety of sources: PHFA general fund setasides; the sale of Agency-issued securities; federal HOME dollars; and, the allocation of housing tax credits. Restrictions and application deadlines vary among programs.

Housing Tax Credit Program: Provides owners of and investors in affordable rental housing developments with federal tax credits that offer a dollar-fordollar reduction in their tax liability. The credit may be taken for up to ten years. Tax credits are usually sold to investors with the proceeds used to cover development costs.

PennHOMES Program: Offers interest-free deferred payment loans to support development of affordable rental housing for residents who meet income guidelines. Can be structured as primary or secondary mortgage loans. Eligible sponsors include individuals, joint ventures, partnerships, limited partnerships, trusts and corporations, and may be for-profit or nonprofit entities. Funding is limited and applicants are encouraged to make maximum use of other public and private financial resources.

Keystone Home Loan PLUS Program:Families with children or persons with disabilities who are buying their first home are offered an even lower interest rate with no origination fee. The income and purchase price limits are lower than those of the Keystone Home Loan Program. Available with conventional, FHA, VA, and RHS loan types.

Keystone Home Loan Program: Provides residential mortgage loans to qualifying homebuyers who meet certain income and purchase price guidelines.Features below-market interest rates and origination fees. Loans are made through participating lending institutions across the Commonwealth and can be used to purchase both new or existing homes. Available in conjunction with conventional,FHA, VA, and RHS loan types.

Keystone HOMEstead: Downpayment and Closing Cost Assistance Loan Program
Made in conjunction with PHFA first mortgages,HOMEstead loans provide non-interest bearing second mortgages for downpayments and closing costs. Loans range from $1,000 to $35,000. HOMEstead funds in an amount up to $14,999 are forgiven at a rate of 20 percent per year over five years. Funds between $15,000 and $35,000 are forgiven at a rate of ten percent per year over ten years. HOMEstead loans are not available in all areas of the Commonwealth and are limited to borrowers with incomes at or below 80 percent of the area median income. Also,the property must meet federal housing quality standards.

Keystone Access Home Modification Program: Offers persons with disabilities, or households with a disabled family member, nointerest accessibility modification loans of between $1,000 and $10,000 in conjunction with PHFA first mortgage financing. Repayment is not required as long as the borrower occupies the home.

Keystone Access Downpayment and Closing Cost Assistance Loan Program:
Mortgage loans are provided in conjunction with the Keystone Access Home
Modification Program for persons with disabilities, or households with a disabled family member, who are not eligible for the HOMEstead program and need downpayment and closing cost assistance. This program provides deferred payment loans up to $15,000 without interest.Loans become due and payable upon the sale, transfer, refinance, payoff of the first mortgage, or non-owner occupancy of the property.

Keystone Purchase-Improvement Program: Allows borrowers to make up to $15,000 in home improvements in conjunction with the purchase of a home with an Agency first mortgage loan. This can include repairs, alterations, or modifications to improve the basic livability, energy efficiency, or safety of the property. The As-Complete Appraised Value must support the cost of the repairs.

PENNVEST On-Lot Sewage System Loans: Provide up to $25,000 for 20-year, very low interest rate loans to homeowners for the repair or upgrade of malfunctioning on-lot sewage systems. These loans are insured under the FHA Title I Home Improvement Loan Program.

Service Description
Services include providing legal assistance in areas such as: real estate, wills, consumer problems, medicare and other government programs. Referrals can be made to attorneys who have agreed to provide services at reduced rates.

SeniorLAW Center provides legal advice, information and referral services to seniors, resolving some problems immediately and serving as an important link to a wide variety of legal and nonlegal resources in the aging network. Through the Pennsylvania SeniorLAW Helpline (1-877-PA SR LAW or 1-877-727-7529), staff and volunteer attorneys give seniors across the state the information they need to protect themselves and their property, to ensure their rights are not violated, to make important personal planning decisions, to resolve a wide variety of legal problems, and, when necessary, to obtain additional assistance.

In addition, SeniorLAW Center staff provide legal advice and information at presentations to seniors and members of the aging network across the state.

Finally, we produce a quarterly electronic newsletter, the SeniorLAW News, that contains important and timely information, updates and alerts on legal issues that affect older Pennsylvanians

Pittsburgh Institute of Aeronautics

PIA School of Specialized Technology

Organizational Information

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
Pittsburgh Institute of Aeronautics (PIA) is committed to providing an educational experience that will prepare the learner to be a productive contributor to either the transportation or electronics industry and, at the same time, to serve to enhance the student's personal growth. The school is dedicated to the concept that not all members of the community can or should pursue academic postsecondary education - that society demands individuals who are well-trained and capable of not only satisfying current needs, but of growing into the ever expanding technological requirements of the future.

History of Organization
PIA, a premiere school of aviation maintenance, aviation electronics, and electronic systems training, was established in 1929. PIA's goal has been to provide its learners with the knowledge, skills, and attitudes that they need in order to succeed in their chosen career fields. With associations in every facet of the aerospace industry, PIA has placed its graduates worldwide, in aviation and in other high-performance organizations. PIA graduates hold positions ranging from newly employed field technicians to corporate leaders with global influence.

Service Description
Program offers a degree in Mortuary Science.

P.I.M.S. continues to provide thorough training in the mortuary arts and sciences. This training includes a theoretical understanding as well as personalized practical instruction by licensed funeral directors and embalmers. The school not only utilizes the facilities in its own building but also works in cooperation with the Allegheny County Coroner's Office to enhance the student's exposure to a wide range of applied experiences. The curriculum is also changing to reflect the current and future trends in the funeral profession. There is an appreciation of the complexities confronting today's funeral practitioner in such diverse areas as business management and accounting, psychology and counseling, marketing and public relations, and others. A computer science course is also available, as well as a Professional Seminar Series designed to keep students abreast of the different facets influencing the funeral service profession.

Organizational Information

Parent Organization
Community Action Southwest

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
Community Action Southwest serves as the catalyst to mobilize the resources of the entire community to enable families and individuals in Southwestern Pennsylvania to attain the skills, knowledge, motivations and opportunities to become self sufficient.

History of Organization
Community Action Southwest was founded in 1965 as a non-profit organization by community leaders in Washington and Greene counties. The initial focus of the agency was to identify local conditions that led to poverty, sensitize the community to the incidence and conditions of poverty, mobilize private and public resources to impact on poverty, and develop programs and services that would help eradicate poverty. Our mission remains much the same today. Our goal is to mobilize public and private resources to deal with the causes of poverty, not just its impact. Our role is to provide a hand up, not a handout, by incorporating self help and education into all of our programs and services. Nationwide, community action agencies are a network of independent organizations with a shared mission to help low income persons and families become economically self sufficient. "Maximum feasible participation of the poor" in program development, organizational governance, and employment is a unique feature of community action agencies. This strategy is the strength and key to success for community action agencies across the country. Today, Community Action Southwest operates some 30 programs serving more than 24,000 persons annually in the counties of Washington and Greene in the southwestern corner of Pennsylvania. CAS has an annual budget of $12 million, and employs 300 persons. The agency is directed by a twenty-two member Board of Directors, which is comprised of equal representation of the public sector (local officials), private sector (business, church and labor), and target sector (representatives of the poor who are democratically elected within their communities).

Presbyterian SeniorCare of Washington

Organizational Information

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
Presbyterian SeniorCare embraces the philosophy of caring to create communities rich in relationships, creativity and independence. Its philosophy of care transforms the traditional medical model of caring for older adults in a long-term care setting into a residential, home-like model.

History of Organization
Presbyterian SeniorCare began as a small home for eight Presbyterian women in Glenshaw, Pennsylvania. Since then it has grown into southwestern Pennsylvania's largest and most diverse provider of long-term care, housing and in-home and community-based services.

Service Description
Psychiatric Rehabilition is a recovery oriented approach that utilizes value clarification, skill teaching and programming, resource notification and other methods to assist an individual in meeting their Role Recovery Goal.

The goal of the Greene Arc site-based psychiatric rehabilitation service program is to develop awareness of self, recovery, rehabilitation, mental health services and supports, environmental domains, illness management and functional skills so that individuals with serious mental illness can develop the capacity to manage their lives, remain in the community and be able to assume additional roles in their living, learning, working and social worlds.

Through the activities of the psychiatric rehabilitation treatment program, the indidviual then works on restoring and/or learning the skills needed to compensate for the functional deficits, as well as accentuating the strengths he brings to the rehabilitiaton process.

Following an initial assessment, group and individualized rehabilitation services will be offered up to five days per week and will focus on the individual's Role Recovery Goal.

Renovate and Repair Loan Program

R & R

Organizational Information

Parent Organization
Pennsylvania Housing Finance Agency (PHFA)

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
In order to make the Commonwealth a better place to live while fostering community and economic development, the Pennsylvania Housing Finance Agency provides the capital for decent, safe, and affordable homes and apartments for older adults, persons of modest means, and those with special housing needs.

History of Organization
The Pennsylvania Housing Finance Agency is the Commonwealth's leading provider of capital for affordable homes and apartments. Created to help enhance the quality and supply of affordable homes and apartments for older adults, persons of modest means, and persons with disabilities, the Agency operates homeownership programs, rental housing development initiatives, and a foreclosure prevention effort. In its nearly 35 years of existence, PHFA has provided $8,000,000,000 of funding and tax credits for home mortgage loans and apartment units, while saving the homes of tens of thousands of families from foreclosure. In addition to its major programs, the Agency conducts housing studies, promotes counseling and education for renters and homebuyers, encourages supportive services at apartments it has financed, administers rent subsidy contracts for the federal government, and acts as an advocate to promote the benefits of decent, affordable shelter for those who need it most. PHFA also has a significant effect on employment. Its homeownership and multifamily rental programs offer vendors excellent business opportunities in the fields of real estate sales, development, law, construction, architecture, engineering, lending, housing management, and related disciplines. Other Agency-related measures affect employment and industry in a wide variety of fields and professional disciplines. By carrying out its mission, PHFA helps make the Commonwealth a great place to call home.

Parent Organization
Greene County Human Services Mental Health Program

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
Greene County's Vision & Mission Statement The Greene County Mental Health Program in consultation and collaboration with other stakeholders including consumers, board members, transitioning youth, seniors, and other concerned individuals developed our vision and mission statements. The statements show how the county mental health program continues to transfer its operational methods from one that is driven by authority to one that is individualized and person centered. Vision We envision that all Greene County residents with a behavioral health disorder of any type are offered the opportunities to attain a quality of life which is holistic and self directed. Within our community is the freedom to choose services which support hope, recovery, and responsibility. Mission The mission of the Greene County Mental Health Program is to assure that all of our residents with mental illness, emotional disturbance and/or substance use disorders are offered services and supports, which are seamless, accessible and offer choice. The County mental health program will accomplish this mission by facilitating, providing, and promoting a continuum of services which are built upon respect, responsibility and hope. These services will be non-linear; strength based and will enforce empowerment. They will enhance recovery along with resilience by utilizing community resources.

SIDS of PA

Organizational Information

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
We will continue our quest to eliminate Sudden Infant Death Syndrome and make an impact on our infant mortality rates throughout Pennsylvania… "in the belief that every child should live."

History of Organization
The Pennsylvania Sudden Infant Death Syndrome (SIDS) Alliance began to fulfill its mission of support, education and research in 1981. At that time a group of SIDS parents joined together to assure future SIDS parents the support they would need to work through the devastating grief they would experience.

New Pennsylvania legislation allows parents to abandon newborn babies at hospitals without fear of arrest and prosecution, as long as the child has not been abused.

You will be asked for health information to help the baby in the future. It is important that you tell the hospital about any health problems you or the baby may have. You don't have to give this information, but it is important. You may decide to take a health history form with you to fill out later and mail anonymously.

Forty seven other states presently have similar legislation.

Safety Kids, Inc.

Organizational Information

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
Keeping children safe from abduction, violence and exploitation by providing a unique, age-appropriate curriculum.

History of Organization
Safety Kids, Inc. (S.K.I.) was founded in 1998 to work hand-in-hand with children, parents, law enforcement personnel, and teachers to protect children from abuse, abduction, exploitation, violence, and injury through victimization. S.K.I. was an offshoot of Friends of Child Find, Inc. (F.O.C.F.), the non-profit organization working on only the area of missing children. F.O.C.F. was closed and Safety Kids, Inc. was created because the founder of both agencies felt the need to expand the areas of victimization of children beyond just abduction. S.K.I. addresses areas of concern such as bullying, weapon safety, drugs, and other issues.

Service Description
Safety Kids, Inc. developed a creative, new approach to the issue of personal safety in response to a need for more effective education on prevention. Over 85% of the children who are victimized know the perpetrator; therefore, the concept of stranger danger is ineffective! It puts a child in a position of feeling secure just because he or she knows the person when, in fact, this may actually lead to victimization. Charlie Check-First (the S.K.I. trademarked mascot) replaces that concept and has been readily endorsed by educators and law enforcement personnel. The curriculum for preschool and elementary age children and the materials for parents are highly praised and used in many locations.

Are You A Safe Driver?

Studies have shown that most experienced drivers never received safe-driving instruction; they got in a car and started to drive. Other drivers knew quite a bit about safe driving at one time, but have since forgotten. Still others have not kept up with the changes in highways, automobiles, traffic signs or the "rules of the road".

When it comes to actual driving, however, some studies show experienced drivers have fewer collisions than new drivers. Long-time drivers can generally handle a car better than new drivers, steering clear of trouble or getting out of a tight situation with confidence.

The Seniors For Safe Driving Program Is Designed to Help You Do A Better Job:
Understanding The Element Of Risk
Managing The Area Around Your Vehicle With Good Visual Techniques
Sharing The Highway With Other Drivers
Managing Vehicle Speed
Managing Vehicle Space As You Share The Road With Others
Handling Driving Emergencies
Understanding And Compensating For Visual Changes
Understanding Techniques For Improving Night Vision And Safety
Understanding Anti-lock Braking Systems
Understanding Supplemental Inflatable Restraint Systems
Understanding Children And Air Bags - Why They're A Dangerous Combination
Understanding Pennsylvania's Road Signs
Understanding Seniors and Prescription Drug Problems
Understanding Why Expressway Driving Is A Problem

Important Pennsylvania Law Change
There has been a change in Pennsylvania Law as it relates to the Senior Driver Improvement Classes and your automobile insurance discounts. If you are over 55 years of age and have successfully completed a Senior Education Program in the past, you only have to attend a one day refresher course to renew your insurance discount. If you have never participated in a Senior Driver Improvement Program in the past, you must attend a two day seminar to earn your automobile insurance discount. The insurance discount is 5% of total premium for a period of three years.

Servant Song Ministries

Retreat House & Spirituality Center

Organizational Information

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
Servant Song is an ecumenical, collaborative ministry of like-minded individuals who seek to further the message and mission of Jesus Christ for the betterment of humankind and the world. This ministry encourages and promotes spiritual growth and enrichment through prayer, silence, retreats, education, and spiritual direction in the Christian tradition

History of Organization
Servant Song Ministries was formed in early 2005---called forth by God and materially created by Larry and Donna Koller. Shortly after Christmas 2004 the seed of an ecumenical retreat house and spirituality center in Waynesburg (planted in hearts over 20 years ago) began to germinate. During this past year Servant Song Ministries was established as a PA non profit corporation (February 14, 2005), an ecumenical core ministry was assembled, a facility was purchased and renovated, and IRS designation as a tax-exempt 501 (c) (3) charitable organization was granted. The retreat house and spirituality center officially opened with a blessing service and dedication on January 28, 2006. Regular events and programming began immediately.

Accreditations and Licenses
An ecumenical team of independent, certified spiritual directors, ordained ministers and priests, religious and qualified/certified laity provide the services offered.

Shepherd Wellness Community

Organizational Information

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
Shepherd Wellness Community is a safe, compassionate Community empowering people affected by HIV/AIDS to live with dignity in the spirit of wellness.

History of Organization
Shepherd Wellness Community arose out of a desperate need. Societal denial, prejudice and fear characterized the early years of the AIDS epidemic. Many with the disease were afraid to be identified and an atmosphere of shame and fear were prevalent. Patients and their families were isloated and often ostracized. There was no place in Pittsburgh where people with AIDS could gather with their partners, families and friends in a safe, secure setting that provided shelter from the stresses they were undergoing. In 1987, four young men living with AIDS, a social worker, a physician and Father Lynn Edwards met to discuss what could be done. With initial funding from the Episcopal Diocese, they created a gathering place and resource center for people affected by HIV/AIDS. The first covered dish supper, held in October at the Church of the Good Shepherd in Hazelwood, brought together those suffering from the fatal illness, their families and friends for a simple meal and provided a desperately needed sense of shelter and communal sharing.

Service Description
Pediatric Specialty Care including: Burn Care, Cleft Lip and Palate, Orthopaedics and Spinal Cord Injury.

Every year, Shriners Hospitals for Children provides care for thousands of kids with orthopaedic conditions, burns, spinal cord injuries, and cleft lip and palate, in a family-centered environment with no financial obligation to patients or families. It's how Shriners Hospitals for Children has been Changing the World through Caring for Kids since 1922.

The hospitals specializing in orthopaedics are dedicated to providing medical and rehabilitative services to children with congenital deformities, problems resulting from orthopaedic injuries and diseases of the musculoskeletal system.

Burn Care: The Shriners Hospitals for Children specializing in burns have been leaders in burn care and research since opening in the mid-1960s. Treatment is provided for burn injuries and related scarring, along with physical and emotional rehabilitation.

Spinal Cord Injury Rehabilitation: In the early 1980s, Shriners Hospitals for Children opened the nation's first spinal cord injury rehabilitation centers specifically designed for kids. There, patients find a complete range of services needed in order to recover to the fullest extent possible.

Cleft Lip and Palate Care: Cleft lip and palate was added to the health care system's treatment disciplines in 2005.

Education: Shriners Hospitals for Children is proud of its role in medical education. In the past 20 years, more than 8,000 physicians have received residency education or postgraduate fellowship within the health care system. By maintaining relationships with more than 60 medical teaching facilities worldwide, Shriners Hospitals for Children fosters an academic environment committed to providing high-quality medical care to all patients.

Sojourner House

Organizational Information

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
Sojourner House is a faith-based residential rehabilitation facility where addicted women learn to break the inter-generational cycle of poverty and chemical abuse while in their own apartment with their children.

History of Organization
Sojourner House was named after the great African American preacher Sojourner Truth who spoke up for all women after having successfully fought for her own and her child's deliverance from slavery. An impressive speaker and a woman of strong faith, we believe that Sojourner Truth's victories inspire our mission - to help women overcome the slavery of addiction and to become free.

Sons of the American Revolution

Organizational Information

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
The SAR is a historical, educational, and patriotic non-profit, United States 501 (c)3 corporation that seeks to maintain and extend the institutions of American freedom, an appreciation for true patriotism, a respect for our national symbols, the value of American citizenship and the unifying force of e pluribus unum that has created, from the people of many nations, one nation and one people. We do this by perpetuating the stories of patriotism, courage, sacrifice, tragedy, and triumph of the men who achieved the independence of the American people in the belief that these stories are universal ones of man's eternal struggle against tyranny, relevant to all time, and will inspire and strengthen each succeeding generation as it too is called upon to defend our freedoms on the battlefield and in our public institutions.

Southwestern Pa Human Services, Inc.

SPHS

Organizational Information

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
The mission of Southwestern Pennsylvania Human Services, Inc. is to identify and provide for health and social service needs throughout the southwestern Pennsylvania region. Southwestern Pennsylvania Human Services, Inc. has been providing a wide variety of human services to individuals and families throughout Fayette, Greene, Washington and Westmoreland counties for over 45 years.

History of Organization
More than 40 years ago, a group of Mon Valley citizens joined together to develop an organized, collaborative network for the delivery of health and human services. After many transitions, a multi-corporate system consisting of Southwestern Pennsylvania Human Services, Inc. (SPHS) and seven affiliate corporations evolved. Today, SPHS provides the full range of management/administrative services and central oversight to a comprehensive health and human service provider system, which allows the affiliates to concentrate their energies on direct service delivery throughout the four county region of southwestern Pennsylvania.

History of Organization
Southwood Psychiatric Hospital was built and founded in 1984. Traditional acute inpatient services for children and adolescents grew to include a variety of hospital- and community- based programs. These expansions included the opening of several Long Term Residential Treatment Programs, as well as a variety of community-based services, including EPSDT (Early Periodic Screening Diagonsis and Treatment) and Family Based Services which are both in home programs. A private academic school license was added in 1995 to enhance treatment services. The school currently serves both students in residence at Southwood, as well as "commuter" students that are approved for specialized education services.

Service Description
Speech to Speech Relay is a service mandated by the Federal Communications Commission that enables people with a speech disability to use their own voice, voice prosthesis or communication device to make a phone call.

This service provides an alternative to a TTY device. Many people with a speech disability often have physical disabilities and therefore may not possess the required manual dexterity to type, or to type as fast as they wish.

An STS phone call is a relayed call. The speech of one person is relayed to the other by a communication assistant in a three-way-call environment.

Confidentiality of all calls is required by U.S. law.

Each state has their own individual toll-free number for this service.

SRMC Center for Recovery and Wellness

Organizational Information

Parent Organization
Southwest Regional Medical Center

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
To provide recovery based treatment for individuals who suffer from mental illness. Our goal is to empower individuals to manage their illness, giving them the tools to help to improve their quality of life. We accomplish this through group, individual, couples, and family therapy modalities. The groups offered: the Acute Partial Hospitalization program which is very intensive and is a diversion from hospitalization, the Intensive Outpatient Program is various in it's intensity based upon individual need, and the Structured Outpatient Program which is suited for older individuals who are struggling with mental health issues related to changes in life. Also our Medical Director Richard Ajayi, M.D. specializes in the treatment of addictions and he offers suboxone as a treatment for opiod dependence.

History of Organization
The Center for Recovery and Wellness opened its doors in March of 2011. The Center was opened in response to the need of the community to provide levels of care that previously did not exist in the community

Accreditations and Licenses
The Center for Recovery and Wellness is licensed as a Partial Hospitalization Program and a Outpatient Psychaitric Clinic. We are also accredited by the Joint Commission of Hospitals.

Service Description
Through a partnership with Diversified Clinical Services, Southwest Regional Medical Center offers a new and comprehensive facility featuring specialized wound care and hyperbaric medicine.

This interdisiplinary approach to treatment involves a variety of therapies and techniques including: debridement, dressing selection, special shoes and patient education. When wounds persist, a specialized and holistic approach is required for healing. Systemic Hyperbaric Oxygen Therapy (HBOT) involves the systemic delivery of oxygen trhough pressurized chambers and is a proven method to advance healing.

SRMC Wound Care and Hyperbaric Center is an outpatient, hospital-based program that works in conjunction with a patient's primary care physician.

St. Hugh Roman Catholic Church

Organizational Information

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
We are the caring, healing, vibrant Catholic Eucharistic faith communities, who celebrate and promote the Divine Mercy of God through prayer and service. We proclaim Christ - yesterday, today and forever greater - through a variety of liturgical, devotional, musical and educational experiences.

History of Organization
Catholicity in the Carmichaels area dates back to the early colonial days. The town of Carmichaels, PA, was named by and for the early John and James Carmichaels' families. James Carmicahels settled near the present town site in 1767, giving the community his name. As early as 1771, a small band of Catholics headed by Felix Hughes grouped together and asked that a Catholic priest be sent to serve the needs of the people of Western PA. Unfortunately, many years passed until a church could be constructed and stand near the site where the first Catholic masses held in Carmichaels were offered. Interestingly enough, the Church of St. Hugh was named in honor of the late Bishop Hugh C. Boyle of the Pittsburgh, PA Diocese, and no way connected with the early colonist Felix Hughes. For many years the territory around Carmichaels remained largely farming country while the neighboring community of Nemacolin, PA was a fast growing mining community. Among the many settlers in this mining town were many Catholics - Catholics without the services of a parsh or priest. Sensing the needs of the people in this area, two zealous priests, Father Kolb of All Saints Church in Masontown, PA and Father Blazic of Our Lady of Perpetual Help in Leckrone, PA took turns in coming to the area for masses. On Christmas Day, 1928, the first mass was celebrated in the Church of Our Lady of Consolation in Nemacolin, PA.

Service Information

Service Description
Residential Treatment: A residential treatment program is a longer term program (lasting from 3-12 months, or more) for children and adolescents with long-standing behavioral health problems. The program offers physician led, multi disciplinary treatment teams that address overall medical, psychiatric, social and academic needs of the child. A balance of therapies and activities are offered in a safe, structured setting.

The Stepping Stones Treatment Program: Stepping Stones programming consists of numerous groups and therapies to include individual, group, family therapy, medication education, developmental skills building as well as social skills, groups, expressive therapy, nutrition groups, behavior modification and Alpine Tower.

An interdiciplinary team approach is used to design the treatment program and personal goals for each resident. This interdisciplinary team consits of highly qualified staff in the areas of Psychiatry, Nursing, Social Work, Education and Psychology. Our Therapist offers specialties in the areas of Rehabilitation, Psychotherapy, Family Therapy, Expressive Therapy and Sexual Abuse.

The Alpine Tower at Fox Run is a 50-foot high, wooden and rope climbing apparatus designed with more than 30 routes to the top. It is a treatment tool used to help people face - and solve - problems with confidence, trust, and self-esteem. The Tower offers challenges that are similar to those offered through high-ropes courses or rock climbing. It is designed to help an individual learn to trust and rely on others, as well as develop a respect for his or her own unique capabilities.

Service Description
Behavioral Health Rehabilitation Service--this program provides treatment to a child in their natural environment, including the home, school and community. A treatment team is comprised of one or more of the following: Behavioral Specialist Consultant, Mobile Therapist, and Therapeutic Staff Support. This team develops a treatment plan to meet the specific needs of the child and the family. Behavioral Health Rehabilitation Services require psychological evaluation to determine eligibility. The Stern Center will conduct this evaluation or if you have an evaluation that already determines need, you may contact them to set up an appointment.

Strengths-Based Therapy--this program is similar to Behavioral Health Rehabilitation Services but only provides one Mobile Therapist, for in the home, school and community. The Strengths-Based Therapist can begin services with a psychological evaluation or from a Strengths-Based Assessment, conducted over a two-week observation for a determination of need. Though service is less intensive and takes a more positive outlook in the treatment planning, the Strengths-Based Therapist also includes a case management element to assist in networking for the client and family.

Outpatient Therapy--provides individual, group, family and couples therapy covering a wide range of topics including anxiety disorders, depression, sexual, physical and mental abuse,anger management, addictions and other mental health disorders. This service is offered for both adults and children.

Family Based Therapy--provides short-term, intensive, in-home services designed to meet the needs of children, adolescents (ages 0-21) and their families who have experienced trauma and/or abuse. An evaluation conducted by a licensed psychologist or physician that prescribes Family Based Mental Health Services is needed for services to begin.

Psychiatric Services--are provided in the Connellsville Office. Dr. Ahmed Jahangeer, MD (a psychiatrist specializing in child and adolescent psychiatry) provides initial evaluation and ongoing medication management for individuals currently enrolled in outpatient services, family based services, strengths-based, or behavioral health rehabilitation services with the Stern Center.

Parent/Children Interaction Therapy--is a program in which parenting skills can be learned through counseling and observation using a two way mirror and parental coaching through the assistance of a trained and credentialed therapist.

Service Description
The primary goal of the Student Assistance Program (SAP) is to help students overcome these barriers in order that they may achieve, remain in school and advance. While Student Assistance Programs exist in other areas of the country, the structure and operation of the program in Pennsylvania is a unique expression of an integrated model serving the needs of Pennsylvania families and their students.

SAP is a systemic process using techniques to mobilize school resources to remove barriers to learning. The core of the program is a professionally trained team, including school staff and liaisons from community alcohol and drug and mental health agencies. SAP team members are trained to identify problems, determine whether or not the presenting problem lies within the responsibility of the school and to make recommendations to assist the student and the parent. When the problem lies beyond the scope of the school, the SAP team will assist the parent and student so they may access services within the community. The student assistance team members do not diagnose, treat or refer to treatment; but they may refer for a screening or an assessment for treatment.

SUID/SIDS Resource Center.

SIDS (originally the National SIDS Clearinghouse)

Organizational Information

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
The mission of the NSIDRC is to carry out coordinated clearinghouse activities on sudden infant death syndrome, including the collection and dissemination to the public, health and educational institutions, professional organizations, voluntary groups with a demonstrated interest in sudden infant death syndrome, and other interested parties of information. Information on related issues such as death investigations systems, personnel training, biomedical research activities, and information on the utilization and availability of treatment or prevention procedures and techniques, such as home monitors is also available.

History of Organization
The Federal Government identified SIDS as a cause worthy of special attention through several pieces of legislation, including the Sudden Infant Death Syndrome Act of 1974. This act fixed the responsibility of SIDS research upon the National Institute of Child Health and Human Development and designated the establishment of counseling programs through the Office of Maternal and Child Health-now and the Maternal and Child Health Bureau (MCHB). Public Law 96-142 enacted in 1979, established a national clearinghouse for the dissemination of information on SIDS to health care professionals, community service personnel, SIDS parents and the general public. Pursuant to the congressional mandate, the National SIDS/Infant Death Resource Center (originally the National SIDS Clearinghouse) has provided information services, educational materials, and technical assistance to those affected by a SIDS diagnosis. With the direction of MCHB in the mid-90's, NSIDRC has broadened its emphasis to include other infant death.

Tickets for Kids Charities

Organizational Information

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
Tickets for Kids Charities creates opportunities for underprivileged children to experience arts, cultural, educational, sporting, and family entertainment events and activities in their communities nationwide.

History of Organization
Founded in 1994, Tickets for Kids Charities is committed to enriching the lives of underprivileged children. We were established after realizing the number of empty seats and lack of diversity present at various shows, games, and events that could be filled by often-forgotten children and their families. Since our inception, Tickets for Kids Charities has reached over 1 million kids and their families who otherwise would not have the chance to attend quality events. Now that we have included one million children, we are focused on creating opportunities for the next million!

Try Again Homes, Inc.

TAH

Organizational Information

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
Try-Again Homes, Incorporated is a private, non-profit corporation committed to providing safe nurturing places for children in need and dedicated to the growth, development, and empowerment of individuals and families for healthier communities.

History of Organization
Try-Again Homes was incorporated as a private, nonprofit 501(c)(3) corporation in 1976 by a group of ministers and lay people who felt a strong need to help abused, neglected and troubled children and families. Today, we serve more than 800 families throughout Pennsylvania and West Virginia annually. Our cost-effective, progressive programs are alternatives to institutional care and are geared to enhance and strengthen the lives of our families.

Service Description

Eating Disorders: Anorexia, Bulimia, Compulsive Overeating are treated like any other addiction. We follow the 12 step model using Overeaters Anonymous as a support system for your recovery. It is recommended that an in-patient program has been completed within the last twelve months. The most important pre-requisite is the willingness to eat and follow a food plan of healthy eating. Exercise is moderate - usually walking to meetings within the community. Medical support and evaluations with a dietician are required.

Julie's House-- This is a specialized program for pregnant women and women with babies up to twelve months of age. It is a six month program. Each mother and child will be in a beautifully furnished apartment. Our new mothers will receive education on child care and be able to continue their drug and alcohol recovery through individual sessions and group therapy. This will be supplemented by educational groups on life skills, boundaries and budgeting. Relapse prevention will be an integral part of the program. Our goal is to support continued recovery for families and to assist in ending the cycle of addiction

VFW

Organizational Information

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
To honor the dead by helping the living.

History of Organization
The VFW traces its roots back to 1899 when veterans of the Spanish-American War (1898) and the Philippine Insurrection (1899-1902) founded local organizations to secure rights and benefits for their service: Many arrived home wounded or sick. There was no medical care or veterans' pension for them, and they were left to care for themselves. In their misery, some of these veterans banded together and formed organzations with what would become known as the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States. After chapters were formed in Ohio, Colorado and Pennsylvania, the movement quickly gained momentum. By 1915, membership grew to 5,000; by 1936, membership was almost 200,000. Since then, the VFW's voice had been instrumental in establishing the Veterans Administration, creating a GI bill for the 20th century, the development of the national cemetery system and the fight for compensation for Vietnam vets exposed to Agent Orange and for veterans diagnosed with Golf War Syndrome. The VFW also has fought for improving VA medical centers services for women veterans. Besides helping fund the creation of the Vietnam, Korean War, World War II and Women in Military Service memorials, the VFW in 2005 became the first veterans' organization to contribute to building the new Disabled Veterans for Life Memorial, which is being constructed in Washington, D.C., and is expected to open in 2010.

Service Information

Service Description
The Visions Program is an intensive, individualized, treatment program that provides a secure environment, programming and educational services for: males and females, ages 12-17 years old, IQ between 50-70. This program is designed to teach residents new ways to modify behaviors that prevent them from living safely and productively in the community.

A residential treatment program is a longer term program (lasting from 3-12 months, or more) for children and adolescents with long-standing behavioral health problems. The program offers physician led, multi disciplinary treatment teams that address overall medical, psychiatric, social and academic needs of the child. A balance of therapies and activities are offered in a safe, structured setting.

The Visions Treatment Program: Visions programming consists of numerous groups and therapies to include individual, group, family therapy, medication education, developmental skill building as well as social skills groups, expressive therapy, nutrition groups, behavior modification and Alpine tower.

The Visions Treatment Team: An interdiciplinary team approach is used to design the individual treatment program and personal goals for each resident. Along with the resident and parent/guardian, a highly qualified team consisting of a psychiatrist, RN/LPN, Therapist, Case Manager, Teacher, Mental Health Technician, Expressive Therapists, and Community Partners are all involved within this treatment process.

The Alpine Tower at Fox Run is a 50-foot high, wooden and rope climbing apparatus designed with more than 30 routes to the top. It is a treatment tool used to help people face - and solve - problems with confidence, trust, and self-esteem. The tower offers challenges that are similar to those offered through high-ropes courses or rock climbing. It is designed to help an individual learn to trust and rely on others, as well as develop a respect for his or her own unique capabilites.

Eligibility Requirements
Adolescent males and females may qualify for the program if they have the following: IQ between 50-70; Axis I psychiatric diagnosis; Individual has not been safely managed in a less restrictive environment; Individual is medically stable; Individual is not actively suicidal, homicidal or psychotic.

Watson Institute

Organizational Information

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
The Watson Institute, through its family of schools and services, helps children and youth with special needs to achieve their fullest potential in all aspects of their lives. Watson strives to provide programs that serve the needs of children with autism spectrum disorders, neurological impairments or serious emotional challenges with diagnostic, educational and therapeutic support; support to the families of these children through education, counseling, wraparound, outpatient services and respite programs; and training and technical support to educators, psychologists, therapists and others working in this field.

History of Organization
The Watson Institute is the legacy of Mr. and Mrs. David Thompson Watson. A Pittsburgh business leader and well-known international attorney -- representing such notables as A. M. Byers, Andrew Carnegie, W. H. Vanderbilt, Henry Phipps and Henry Clay Frick -- David Watson and his wife, Margaret, dedicated considerable time and resources for the care, education and treatment of children with disabilities. After David's death in 1916, the Watson's "Sunny Hill" summer estate in Sewickley, PA, became the D. T. Watson Home for Crippled Children.

Waynesburg Prosperous & Beautiful

Organizational Information

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
The mission of Waynesburg Prosperous & Beautiful represents a community endeavor to preserve and revitalize our historic downtown area as we cultivate a heightened public awareness of the educational, cultural and historical opportunities and convenience in shopping associated with visiting the Waynesburg Main Street area.

History of Organization
The concept of a renewed business district in Waynesburg dates back to the federal block grant programs of the 1970's. More recently, however, business owners and others sought a comprehensive strategy and methods for the long-range restructuring of the downtown area. Under the leadership of local stakeholders and merchants, contact was made with the Pennsylvania Downtown Center and an early organization was assembled and a public meeting was conducted in the fall of 2000. The Waynesburg Chamber of Commerce, along with representatives from Waynesburg College, assumed responsibility for the process and worked with consultants from the Pennsylvania Downtown Center and executives representing DCED. The Chamber of Commerce created a Downtown Revitalization Committee. This group, with the support and prestige of the Chamber, early funding from the College, and sound advice from the Pennsylvania Downtown Center led the community in a visioning year.

Waynesburg University

Organizational Information

Vision, Mission and/or Purpose of Organization
Waynesburg University educates students to make connections between faith, learning and serving so they may live and work faithfully, transforming their communities and the world. As a Christian comprehensive university, we strive to inspire and challenge every undergraduate and graduate student to a life of leadership and purpose for the glory of God.

History of Organization
Waynesburg University and the town in which it is located are named for the Revolutionary War hero, General "Mad" Anthony Wayne. The university was created by combining the assets of Greene Academy in Carmichaels, Pa., and Madison College at Uniontown, Pa. The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania chartered Waynesburg College on March 25, 1850 (it claimed university status in the fall of 2007). In autumn of the same year, the College building now known as Hanna Hall was begun; it was completed a year later. A Female Seminary connected with the College was also established in 1850 and its first classes were held in the Baptist Church.

Accreditations and Licenses
Waynesburg University is fully accredited by the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools and the Department of Education of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. The Chemistry program is approved by the American Chemical Society. The Nursing program is fully approved by the Pennsylvania State Board of Nursing and is accredited by the National League for Nursing. The Athletic Training Program is approved by the National Athletic Training Association and accredited by the Commission on Accreditation of Allied Health Education Programs (CAAHEP). The Education Department programs are accredited by the Pennsylvania Department of Education and is an affiliate of the Teacher Education Accreditation Council (TEAC)

Service Description

Customer Assistance and Referral Evaluation Service (CARES) is a special service for selected, payment-trouble customers who cannot pay the full amount of their electric bills due to a temporary hardship such as a serious illness, loss of income, or death of a primary wage earner. CARES is not designed to work with chronically delinquent customers or those with no intention of paying electric bills. CARES Representatives work with customers on a personal basis to help them identify available community resources.

Low-Income Payment and Usage Reduction Program (LIPURP) provides: Affordable monthly payments, Supplemental grant to help customers keep their monthly bill current. Customers must pay LIPURP payments on time.
2% pre-program arrearage forgiveness when monthly payments are made. Referrals for additional assistance.

Low-Income Usage Reduction Program (LIURP) provides: Free home weatherization to help reduce energy costs; Energy education and referrals for additional weatherization assistance.

Third Party Designation - With this plan, you can designate a friend, neighbor, relative, or social service agency to receive a disconnection notice should you miss your bill payments because you're away or ill. The party you choose has no obligation to pay the bill but can help you make payment arrangements and avoid disconnection. Call us at 1-800-Allegheny for more information or to sign-up.

$1 Energy Fund (DEF) administers the program to provide utility bill assistance to low-income customers. Contributions from shareholders, utility employees, and customers are primary sources of funding for these programs. Funds make payments directly to companies on behalf of customers who still have a critical need for assistance after other resources have been exhausted. West Penn Power matches DEF grants 100%.

Bill Extender Plan - If you receive Social Security or federal government pension benefits, our Bill Extender Plan may be right for you. We may be able to adjust the due date of your bill to coincide with the arrival of your monthly check. Call us at 1-800-Allegheny for more information or to sign-up.
