

Message from the Meadows

March 1, 2019

Positive Moments

- Wonderful Assembly and messages about choosing kindness from Basketball Jones
 - Thank you to our Kindness Club for providing the opportunity

Updates and Information

• March is Reading Month!!

- Kicked off today with a welcome video shared in classrooms!
- Our focus this year is iREAD and the calendar of events is coming home with your child today.
- We will be TWEETING out reading pictures all month...feel free to join us by snapping family or student reading pictures and using #SMEReads
- Thank you for helping us to encourage your children to READ

• Spring Book Fair

- Runs Monday through Friday, March 4-8. Info flyer attached: Book Fair
- If you are able to volunteer we still have some slots available: <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/20f0448aba62ca2fa7-dinomite>
- New this year; you don't have to send cash or check with your child, you can sign up for an eWallet: eWallet

• Pastries for Parents

- We hope to see all of you next FRIDAY MORNING, MARCH 8, beginning at 7:15 for our annual Pastries for Parents event! Grab a donut and coffee, relax in the cafeteria, visit the book fair, or find a cozy spot to read with your child 😊

• Authors in Chelsea

- We are excited to welcome Cynthia Lorde here at South on March 12 and 13 as part of this annual opportunity from Chelsea District Library. Information from CDL is attached here: Authors Press release

•

- In case your child comes home next Tuesday (March 5) and reports that the "Emergency Responder Team" was called, please know that we are running District-wide drills for those teams this month.

• Softball Camp Opportunity

- One of our 8th grade students is running a camp for her Passion Project; info attached here: Softball

Happy Weekend,

Mrs. Battaglia
