Starting the Conversation: College and Your Mental Health Webinar

Monday, March 8, 7:00 – 8:30 p.m. The webinar's panel of college administrators and a recent college graduate who experienced mental health challenges in college encourage transition age families to start conversations about mental health before students leave home. It is prudent to understand privacy laws, what can be communicated by college administrations, and that colleges differ in support. Students, parents/guardians welcome. Presented by the National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI) Central Middlesex. Co-sponsored by the Acton-Boxborough United Way and the Mystic Valley Behavioral Health Coalition. Attendees must register in advance for this webinar at namicentralsmiddlesex.org. Attendance limited. Questions may be submitted in advance to nami.cmsx@gmail.com.

We're asking students to join other Stoneham contributors in a Call for Art on the topic of American Democracy. Stoneham for Social Justice will be putting on an art event in the common on the past, present, or future of American Democracy. If any students are interested, please submit photos or other media files of art to stonehamsocialjustice@gmail.com by March 5, 2021.
