The President and Principal's Pen

March 16, 2020

Dear Parents,

Good afternoon! We hope you have had time to read the President/Principal's Pen that we sent to you last evening. We are going to work through our eLearning Program step by step. As we said last evening, we do not want this Program to cause any more stress than you are already feeling due to the circumstances surrounding today. Let us be patient with one another and communicate as much as possible. We believe that by working together we will be able to provide for the spiritual, educational, and emotional needs of our children.

Last Call for Book Pick-Up from School
Tonight - March 16 ~ 6:00 PM to 7:00 PM

We will open school tonight from 6:00 PM to 7:00 PM for any student who was absent last Thursday or any other student who forgot books and/or any other supplies they need to participate in the eLearning Program. Please come to the Main Entrance of the building.

We ask all families to have their students check their book bags this afternoon to be sure they have all their supplies. The students will not need their "specials" folders, The special teachers will make due without the folders. Thank you so much for your attention to this matter. See you tonight!

A parent shared this link with us. This might be a good way to help our little ones understand without giving them too much information. If you put Coronavirus in the search box, it will pop up and the video is free. Just a suggestion.

Thank you parents for all you are doing for your children as we work to find a new normal in the middle of this health crisis. We will be back in touch soon.

Most sincerely,

Miss Diane E. McCaughan
