HOLD IT!

Do you know what you're building . . . ?

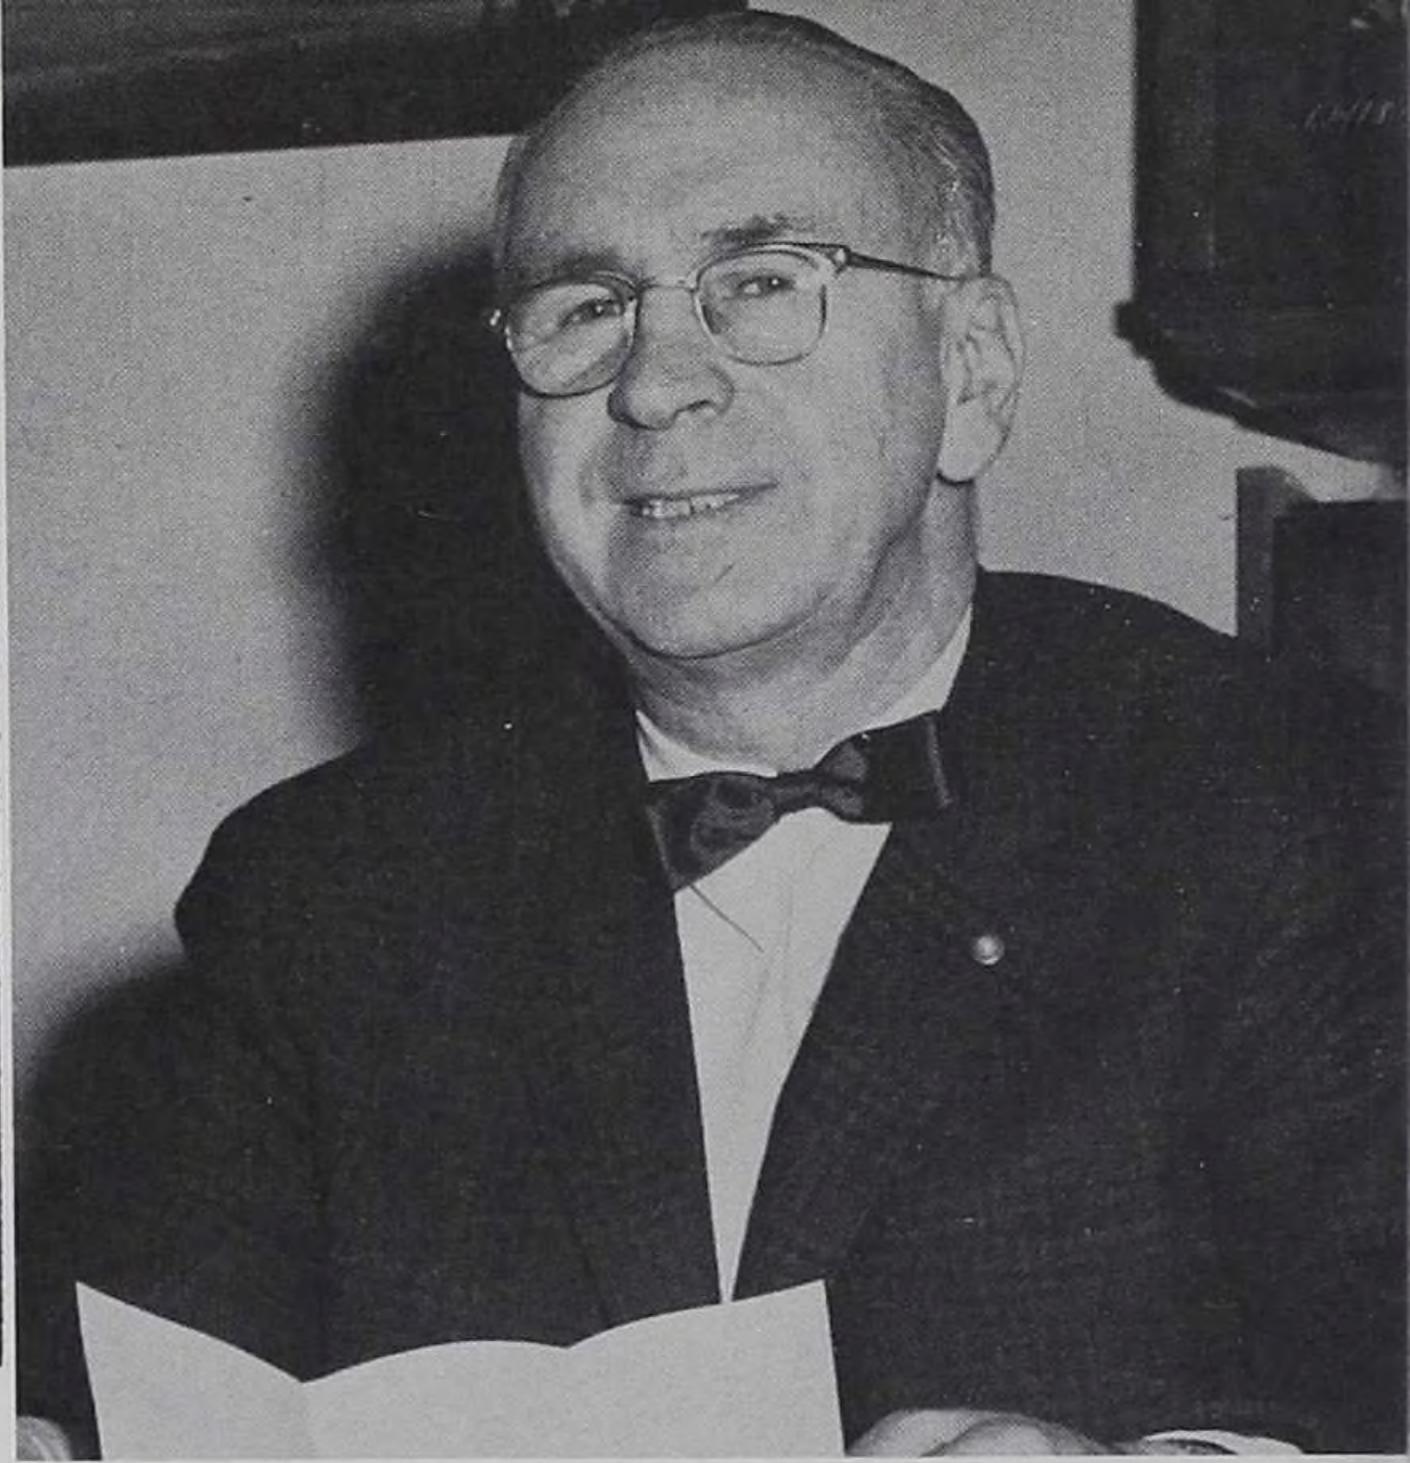

This school is much more than just bricks and mortar. A school is many things: It is the environment in which we spend our working hours—learning, growing up, forming friendships, planning our careers, variously succeeding and failing as we grapple with responsibility—a place that is never forgotten after graduation—a place to be built only with careful thought for its occupants and their purpose . . .

In the nurse's office, Miss Martha Balzano, school nurse, compiles health data on the students. She is pictured here testing Louise Majer's eyesight.

The head custodian's office is the hub of activity with the maintenance of the entire school plant. Head Custodian, Mr. Frank Doss, lays out chores for Mr. Simpson, Mrs. Scott, Mr. Piatt, and Mr. Drake.

The Dental Hygienist's office is where the hopeful and wary hold still for Miss Hawkins.

Mr. Gordan Short, Physical Education teacher and a football, basketball, and track coach, can sometimes be found here in the athletic office.

In his own office, Mr. Theodore Archer, Assistant Principal, interviews disciplinary cases.

The Classroom Areas

are places in which we study our subjects, hold club meetings, conduct homeroom business.

We decorate them for special occasions, have Christmas parties in them and, here too, we sweat out our final exams.

This year, the Neversink Chapter of the National Honor Society made good progress toward the realization of its goal—the respect and desire for scholarship by students of Port Jervis High School. A colorful day in New York at the height of the Christmas season was sponsored for the students that had made the first two honor rolls. The Society also purchased and distributed, for the first time, the handsome scholarship letters. The initiation of new members took place during an assembly in January.

The National Honor Society looks toward the completion of the new high school with hope that it will arouse a greater interest within the student body towards its ideals: scholarship, leadership, service, and character.

STUDENT COUNCIL

This year's Student Council combined both old and new ideas into a remarkably successful program. The second annual UNICEF drive and the Christmas canned food appeal once again won the support of the student body. The Council sponsored several dances, the homeroom decorating contest, and the Thanksgiving Day Queen Contest.

Following the initiation of President Doug Taylor, the Council undertook sponsoring of post-basketball game record hops and of a school spirit award of twenty-five dollars to be presented to the class judged best in game attendance and spirit. In terms of student participation, these proved to be two of the most successful activities. Suggestion boxes appeared in the halls of the school, and seventy-five dollars was raised for the Miss Carroll Memorial Scholarship Fund.

This year's Council was unique in several respects: it was the largest and the last Council in the old high school, and the problem of holding two separate elections was first presented in the spring.

The Student Council this year, as always, provided its members with a fine training in leadership, responsibility, and representative form of government.

MATH CLUB

The Math Club's aim was to increase interest in the study of mathematics in our school, and to prepare its members for the College Board Examinations.

The club elected Fran Zumpano president, Tex Harding vice-president, Lois Gallagher treasurer, Peggy Murray secretary, and Paul Ferrari Social Chairman.

Mr. George Frank, the club's adviser, directs math exercises which so increase speed and accuracy in taking the College Board Examinations.

The club has given to the superior math students of the junior and senior classes an opportunity of winning a scholarship by sponsoring the College Actuary Test.

SCIENCE CLUB

President	TONY MARTINEZ
Vice-President	JOEL JAGGIE
Secretary	SUE VILLAMENA
Treasurer	WILMA TELLER
Social Chairman	PAUL SIEGEL
Parliamentarian	GREGG SERVICE

The purpose of the Science Club, as described by its adviser, Mr. Howard, is to provide interested students with an opportunity to explore the scientific world "above and beyond the call of the textbook." To do this, the club holds weekly lunch hour meetings. Reports on new advancements in science are given by a different member each week.

This year, the club sponsored its third successful Science Fair in the gym and visited several large industrial plants in the area to see technology at work. It also staged several television programs over Channel 6. Mr. Howard explained that the great success of these programs, as all Science Club activities, results from the fact that the students themselves choose what areas they wish to explore; the scope of the club's activities depends on the wants and needs of the group.

W. Teller, H. Morgenstern, K. Kraft, T. Martinez, J. Robbins, Adviser Mr. Howard, A. Singer, J. Britt, J. Jaggie, M. Miller, G. Moskowitz.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS CLUB

The Industrial Arts Club is a fairly new organization. The club's interests include wood-working, metal-working, leather craft, and electricity. This group meets weekly and is supervised by Mr. John Metcalfe.

Although only in its second year, the club has progressed rapidly and is now one of the most active organizations in the school. The officers for this year are James Smith, President; and Ricky Spears, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer.

Left to right, SEATED: W. Purroy, R. Spears, Adviser J. Metcalfe, J. Smith, J. Piccolo, T. Gore. STANDING: P. Howlett, T. Hulse, M. Castle, R. Finch, S. Siegel, R. Grawi, A. Barber, J. Scully, J. Almborg, B. Lemke, R. Stevens, M. DeMond, K. Seiperman, J. MacKechnie, B. Newcomb.

OFFICE PRACTICE CLUBS

The Office Practice Clubs have various aims and objectives which include providing vocational training for the most typical clerical occupations open to high school students after graduation; providing training and practice in the use of the customary machines and devices used in modern business offices; along with this training the club tries to develop desirable work habits, courtesy, and consideration for others, and personal characteristics, attitudes, ideals, and habits considered necessary for success in the business office.

The aim of the Homemaking Club, under the guidance of Miss Crummey, was to supplement the homemaking courses through the use of available community resources, which provided an opportunity for the girls to develop special interests.

At each meeting there was a guest speaker who was a specialist in his chosen field. These fields included good grooming, food preparation, and clothing selection.

Two of the many projects of the club this year were a fashion show and a tea.

LATIN CLUB

The Latin Club, under the supervision of Miss Evelyn Harris, was organized rather late this year. Although the delay temporarily held up activities it did not dampen the spirit of the members. The club has viewed slides about Italy and initiated the new members with the now familiar lipstick and togas. The fitting climax to the proceedings was a banquet in honor of the new members. Officers include Ruth Muller and Brenda Sutton, Consuls; Joyce Hitt, Scriba-Quaestor; Tom Hazelton, Shirley Lafer, Maureen Waycie, Gloria Smith, Candy Reeves, Lois Gallagher, Aediles.

SENIOR COLLEGE CLUB

The aim of the Senior College Club is to give potential college students a chance to discuss problems that will be facing them upon entering college life. The club also attempts to develop interest within the student body in different colleges through bulletin displays and written articles.

The Board of Directors consisting of Ruth Muller, Fran Zumpano, Paul Ferrari, and Mike McLaughlin plans the agenda and leads the general discussions at the meetings, which are held at least once a month.

It is hoped that the efforts of the college members will promote a keener desire in our undergraduates to go to college.

The College Club for Juniors has a two-fold purpose. Primarily, the members, through visitations, research and discussion, attempt to discover new information pertaining to various colleges in order to make wise decision in selections of their own choice of higher educational institutions. Secondly, the members attempt to increase their knowledge in order to successfully compete in entrance and scholarship examinations through the promotion of cooperative efforts of the student body with the teaching staff.

COACH PAT FARACE

With every starting player from the previous year back on the squad, it was thought that we would have one of the best teams in the area. Although the team did not perform up to expectations, they played a few games that were more than worthy of praise.

Probably the best performances put on by Port were the two games with Monticello. In each case the athletes played inspired ball and made few mistakes. In some of their contests Port was clearly the better team, but made mistakes and lost games they were capable of winning.

VARSITY

BASKETBALL

Port's DUSO city record was only 2-11, but there were many games which were lost by close margins. The DUSO village record was considerably better with the squad compiling a 5-3 record, thus earning a position in the Section Nine Tournament.

Head coach Pat Farace did a fine job. Much of Port's success is owed to him. The team's highest scorers and best players were George Chandler and Tom Coleman; each was honored at the end of the season, Chandler being elected to All-DUSO honors and Coleman receiving honorable mention.

FRESHMAN CLASS

Under the leadership of Miss Harris, the class adviser, the ninth grade has been very successful. In the way of making money they have held the "Harvest Moon Ball," one of the first record dances to be held.

This ninth grade is the first accelerated group started at Port Jervis High. They are taking Biology and Plane Geometry, advanced courses. In the annual Science Fair, many prizes have been won by students in the ninth grade.

THE JUNIOR

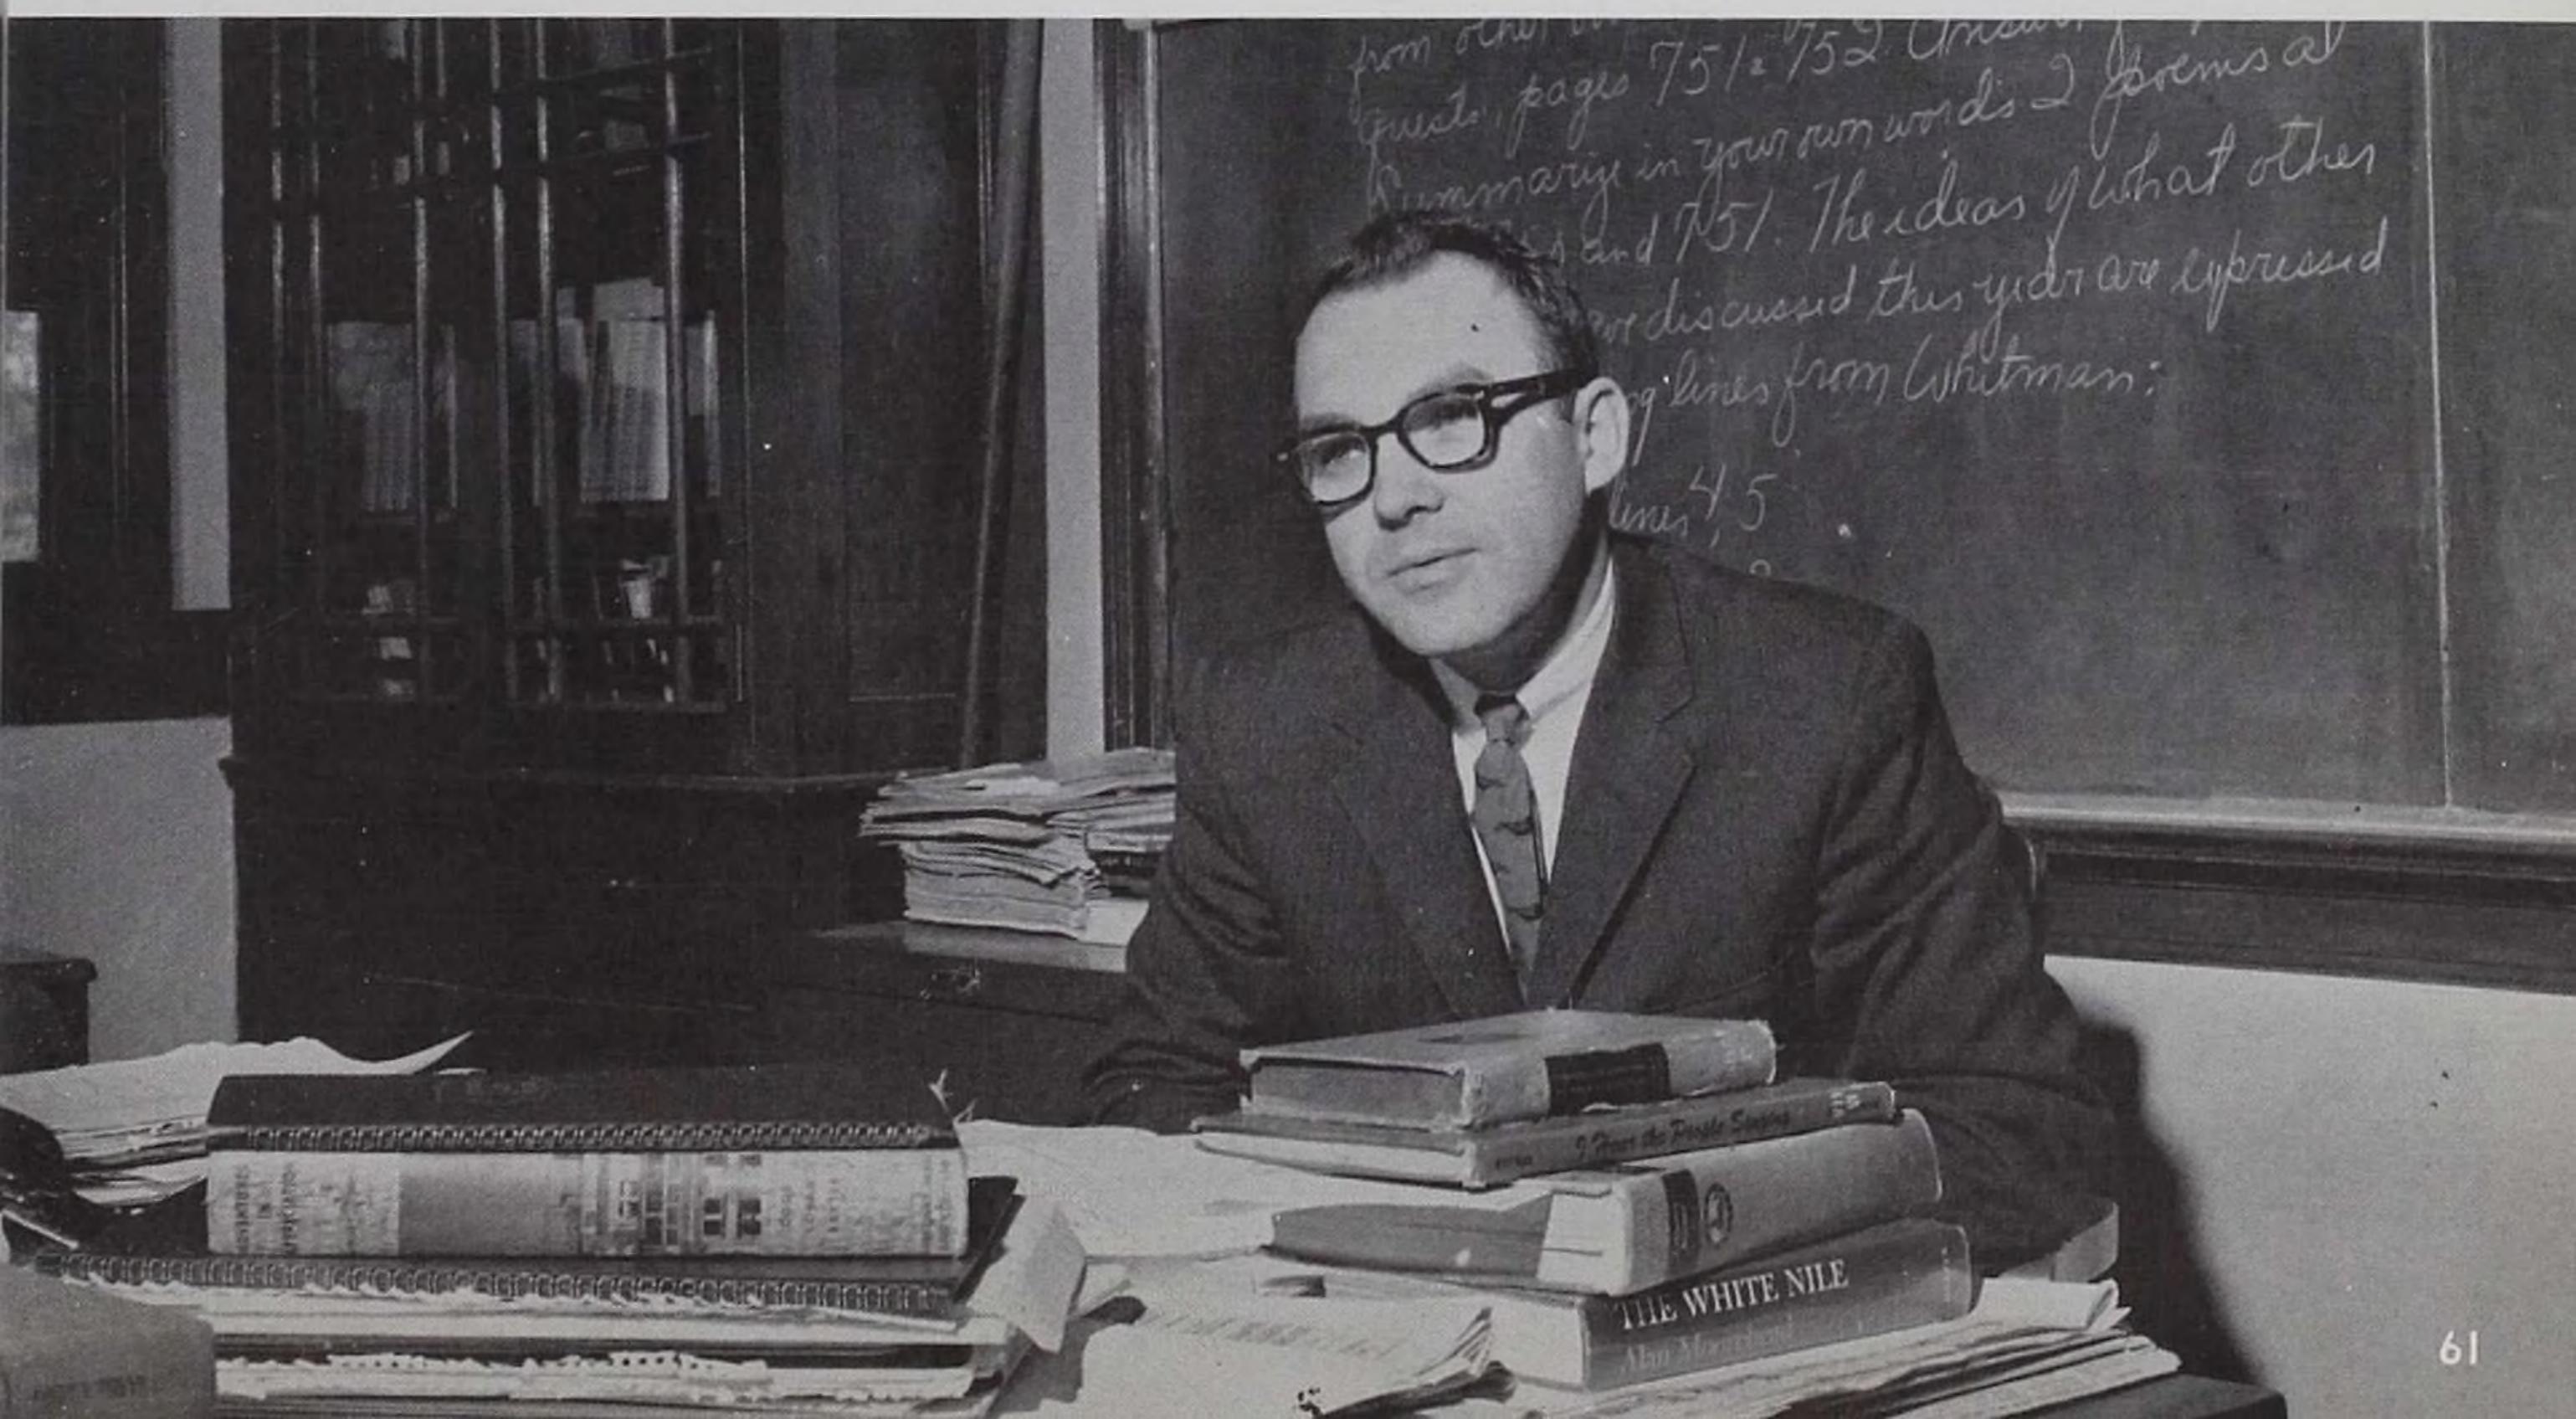

This year the Juniors have been very successful with their paper, The Junior Journal. During the football season they sold programs and shakers. In January they sponsored the Junior-Senior Prom with the theme of "Evening in Paris." The Juniors also excellently produced the play "Our Town," which won wide acclaim. An encore performance was requested at Drew University.

Coach Phil Chase explains that a good defense is just as important as a good offense.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

In almost every game the team performed exceptionally well when faced by such formidable opponents as East Stroudsburg, Middletown, and Poughkeepsie. E. Stroudsburg had easily overpowered all its former opponents except for a one point defeat. In spite of the odds that they came up against, the Redmen almost pulled one of the most startling upsets of the year by scoring three times against a team that had never been scored upon more than once.

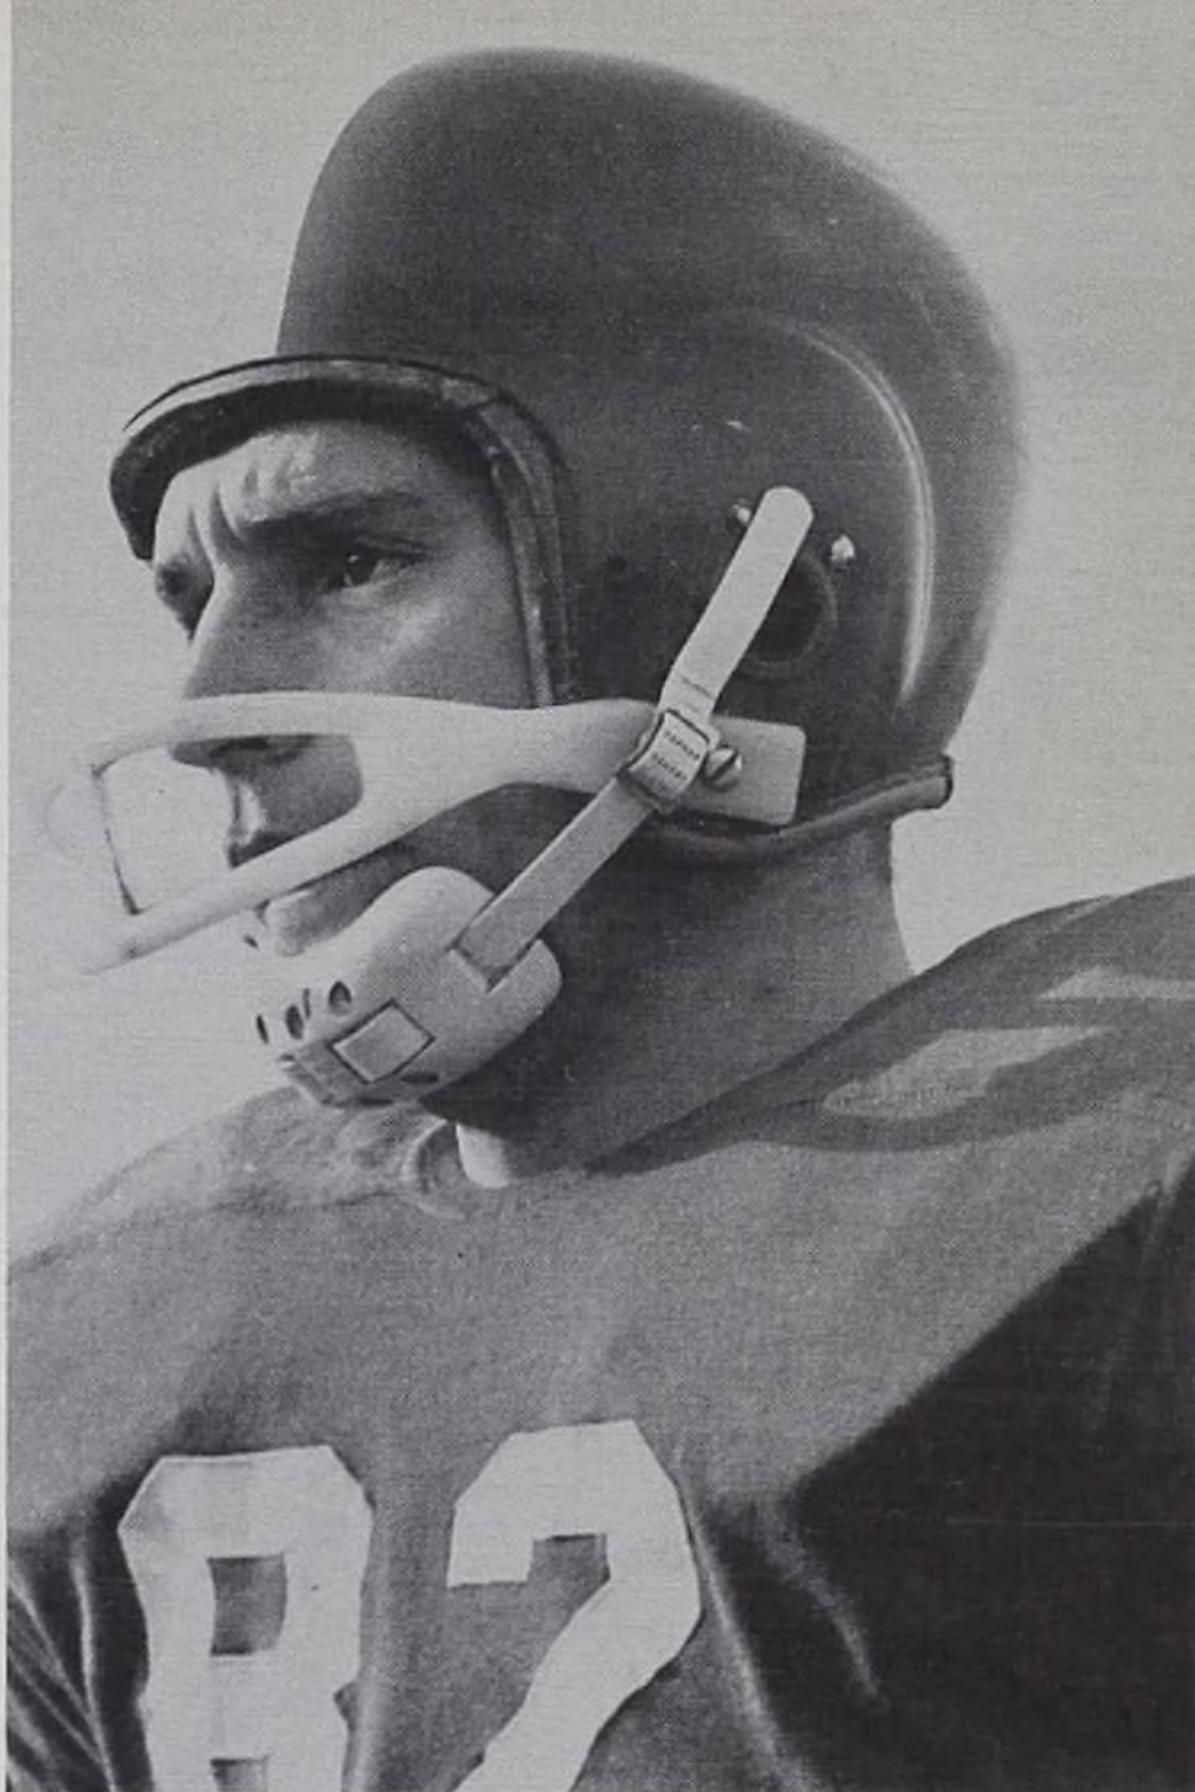

When Poughkeepsie came to P.J. they were undefeated in DUSO competition; because of this record the local sportswriters predicted that Port would suffer a solid thrashing. The Red Raiders again played hard, holding the mighty Poughkeepsie team to a scoreless tie until the final play of the game when Poughkeepsie scored a highly disputed touchdown. This game is considered by many to be one of the finest a Port team has ever played.

Four members of the Port squad were named on the first and second string ALL-DUSO teams! These players were: T. Coleman and S. Crine who made the first team, and P. Ferrari and G. Romaine who were elected to the second team.

The Raiders' success as a team was engineered by Head Coach Joseph Vigilone and his assistant Coaches Gordon Short and Phillip Chase.

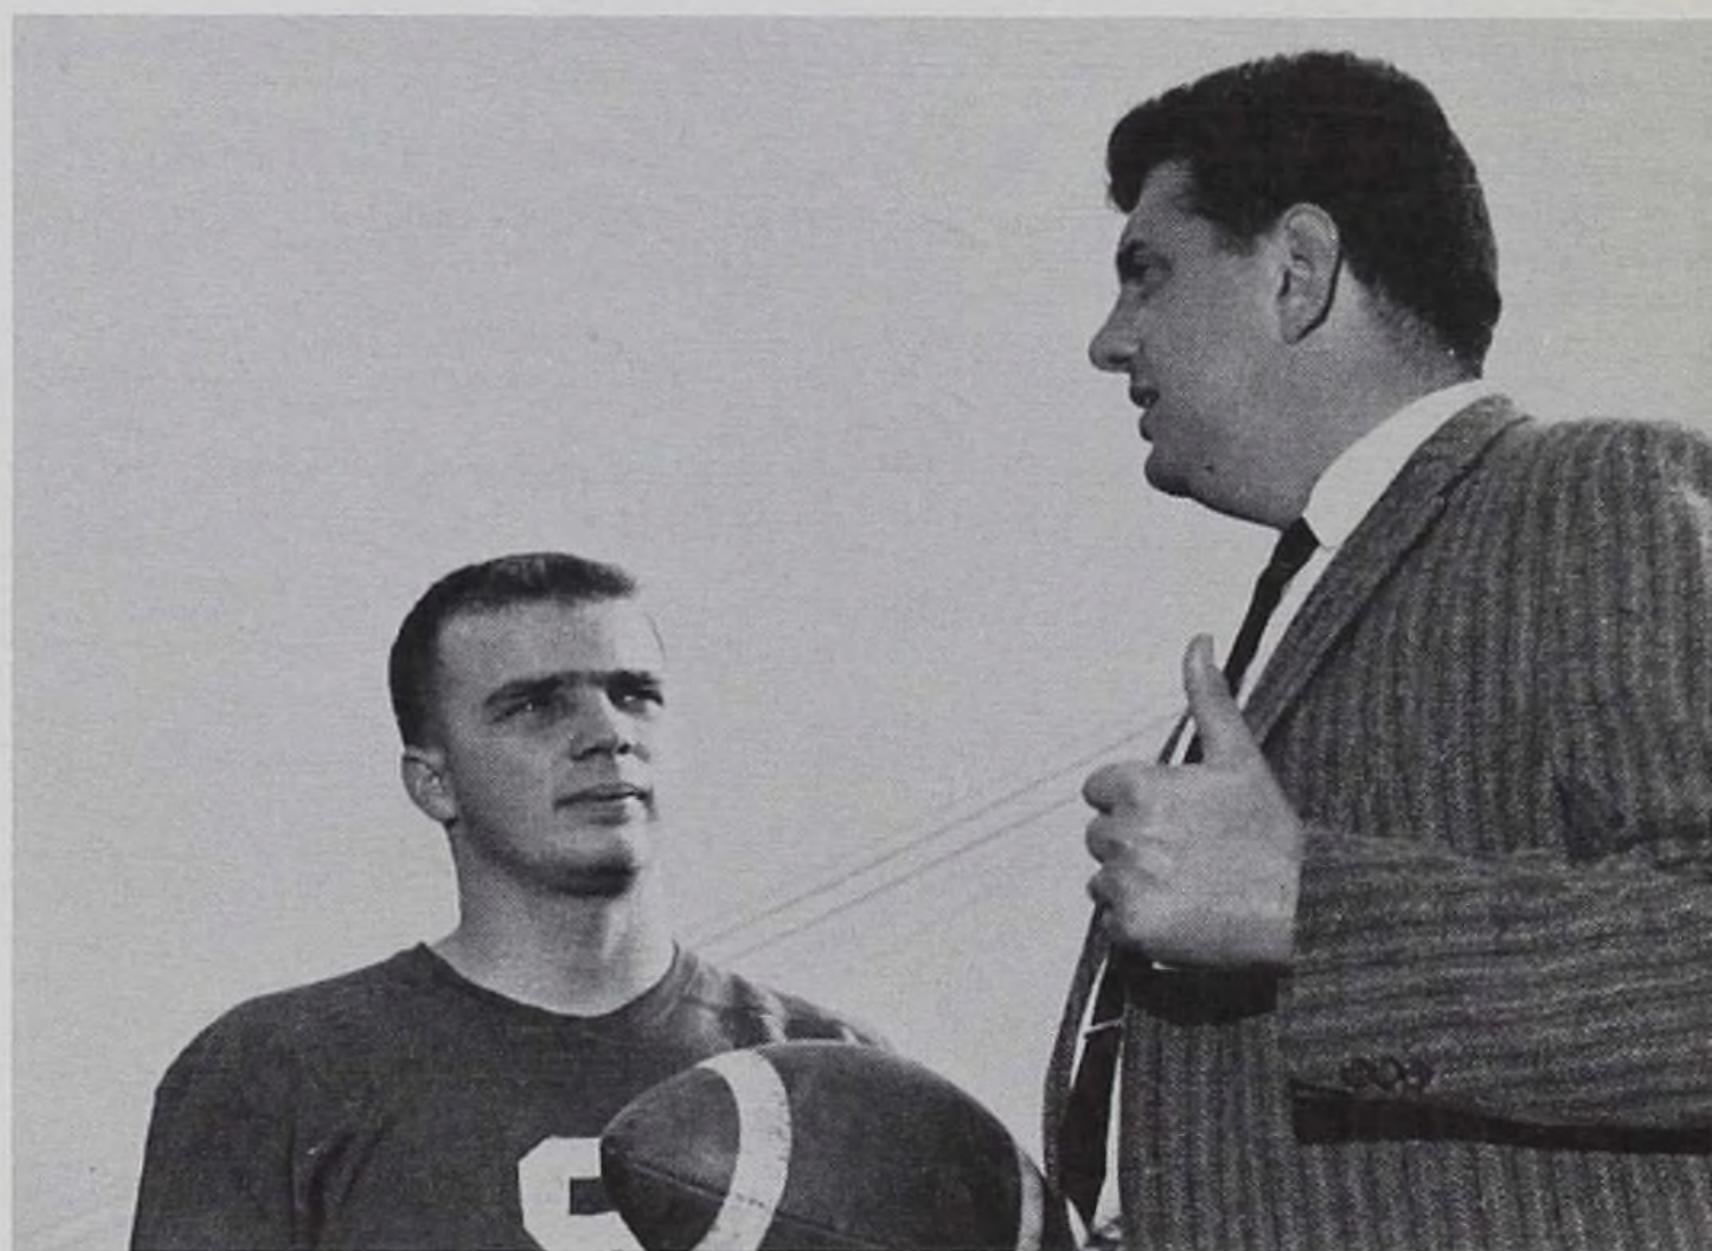

The school day doesn't end at 3:20 for the boys on the football team; strenuous hours of practice lie ahead.

Their uniforms are clean now, as they wait for their teammates, but once the workout begins they take on a different appearance.

TRACK AND CROSS COUNTRY

ROW 1: J. Quick, D. Butler, J. McAndrew, F. Paulich, T. A. Mackey, T. Harding, T. Westbrook, B. Forbes, Coach G. Short. ROW 2: J. Swingle, B. Bloomer, D. Taylor, J. Kean, A. Lertora, P. Acoveno, D. Wasman, G. Craig, Coach J. Pepin. ROW 3: R. Eyth, D. Dain, D. Parsons, P. Ferrari, S. Decker, P. Siegel, R. Shives, F. Adams. ROW 4: M. Corrado, D. Smith, M. Roberts, B. Bushweller, A. Kautz, E. Haycock, B. McCooey, A. Lamoreaux.

This year our track team has shown the ability to be one of the most successful in recent years at Port. The reason for this is because of the return of almost all of last year's athletes and many new members who have joined this year.

Head coach Gordon Short has been joined this season by Joe Pepin and Melvin Gottlieb. With the number of coaches increased, the team should improve due to individual instruction which is so important in such an exacting sport as track.

FRONT: Managers: E. White, L. Keys. STANDING: Coach J. Pepin, K. Karst, B. Gall, K. Kraft, J. Forbes, F. Pavlich, J. McAndrew, J. Kean, A. Lertora.

Endurance running depends as much upon stomach muscles as on legs, proper stride, and wind control. Coach Pepin insists on these exercises.

Coaches R. Zelno, P. Chase. ROW 1: J. Sacco, B. Morgan, S. Crine, J. Hinkley, D. Crine, T. Coleman. ROW 2: Manager E. White, J. Britt, J. Forbes, B. Seeber, J. Nolan, Manager G. Coleman. ROW 3: M. Connelly, G. Romaine, D. Backus, S. Biccum, E. Oppelt.

VARSITY BASEBALL

The only real problem for coaches Ralph Zelno and Phil Chase will be to find a good outfield to go with the veteran infield of Don Backus, third base; Tom Coleman, shortstop; Bill Morgan, second base. Steve Biccum and Mike Connelly had quite a bit of experience in the outfield last year, and Brian Seeber and Joe Nolan, a couple of freshmen, also have a good chance to make the grade. If Gibby Romaine and Jack Hinkley pitch the way they are capable of pitching, this year's Varsity baseball team should win over half their games, and close out this sports year on a happy note.

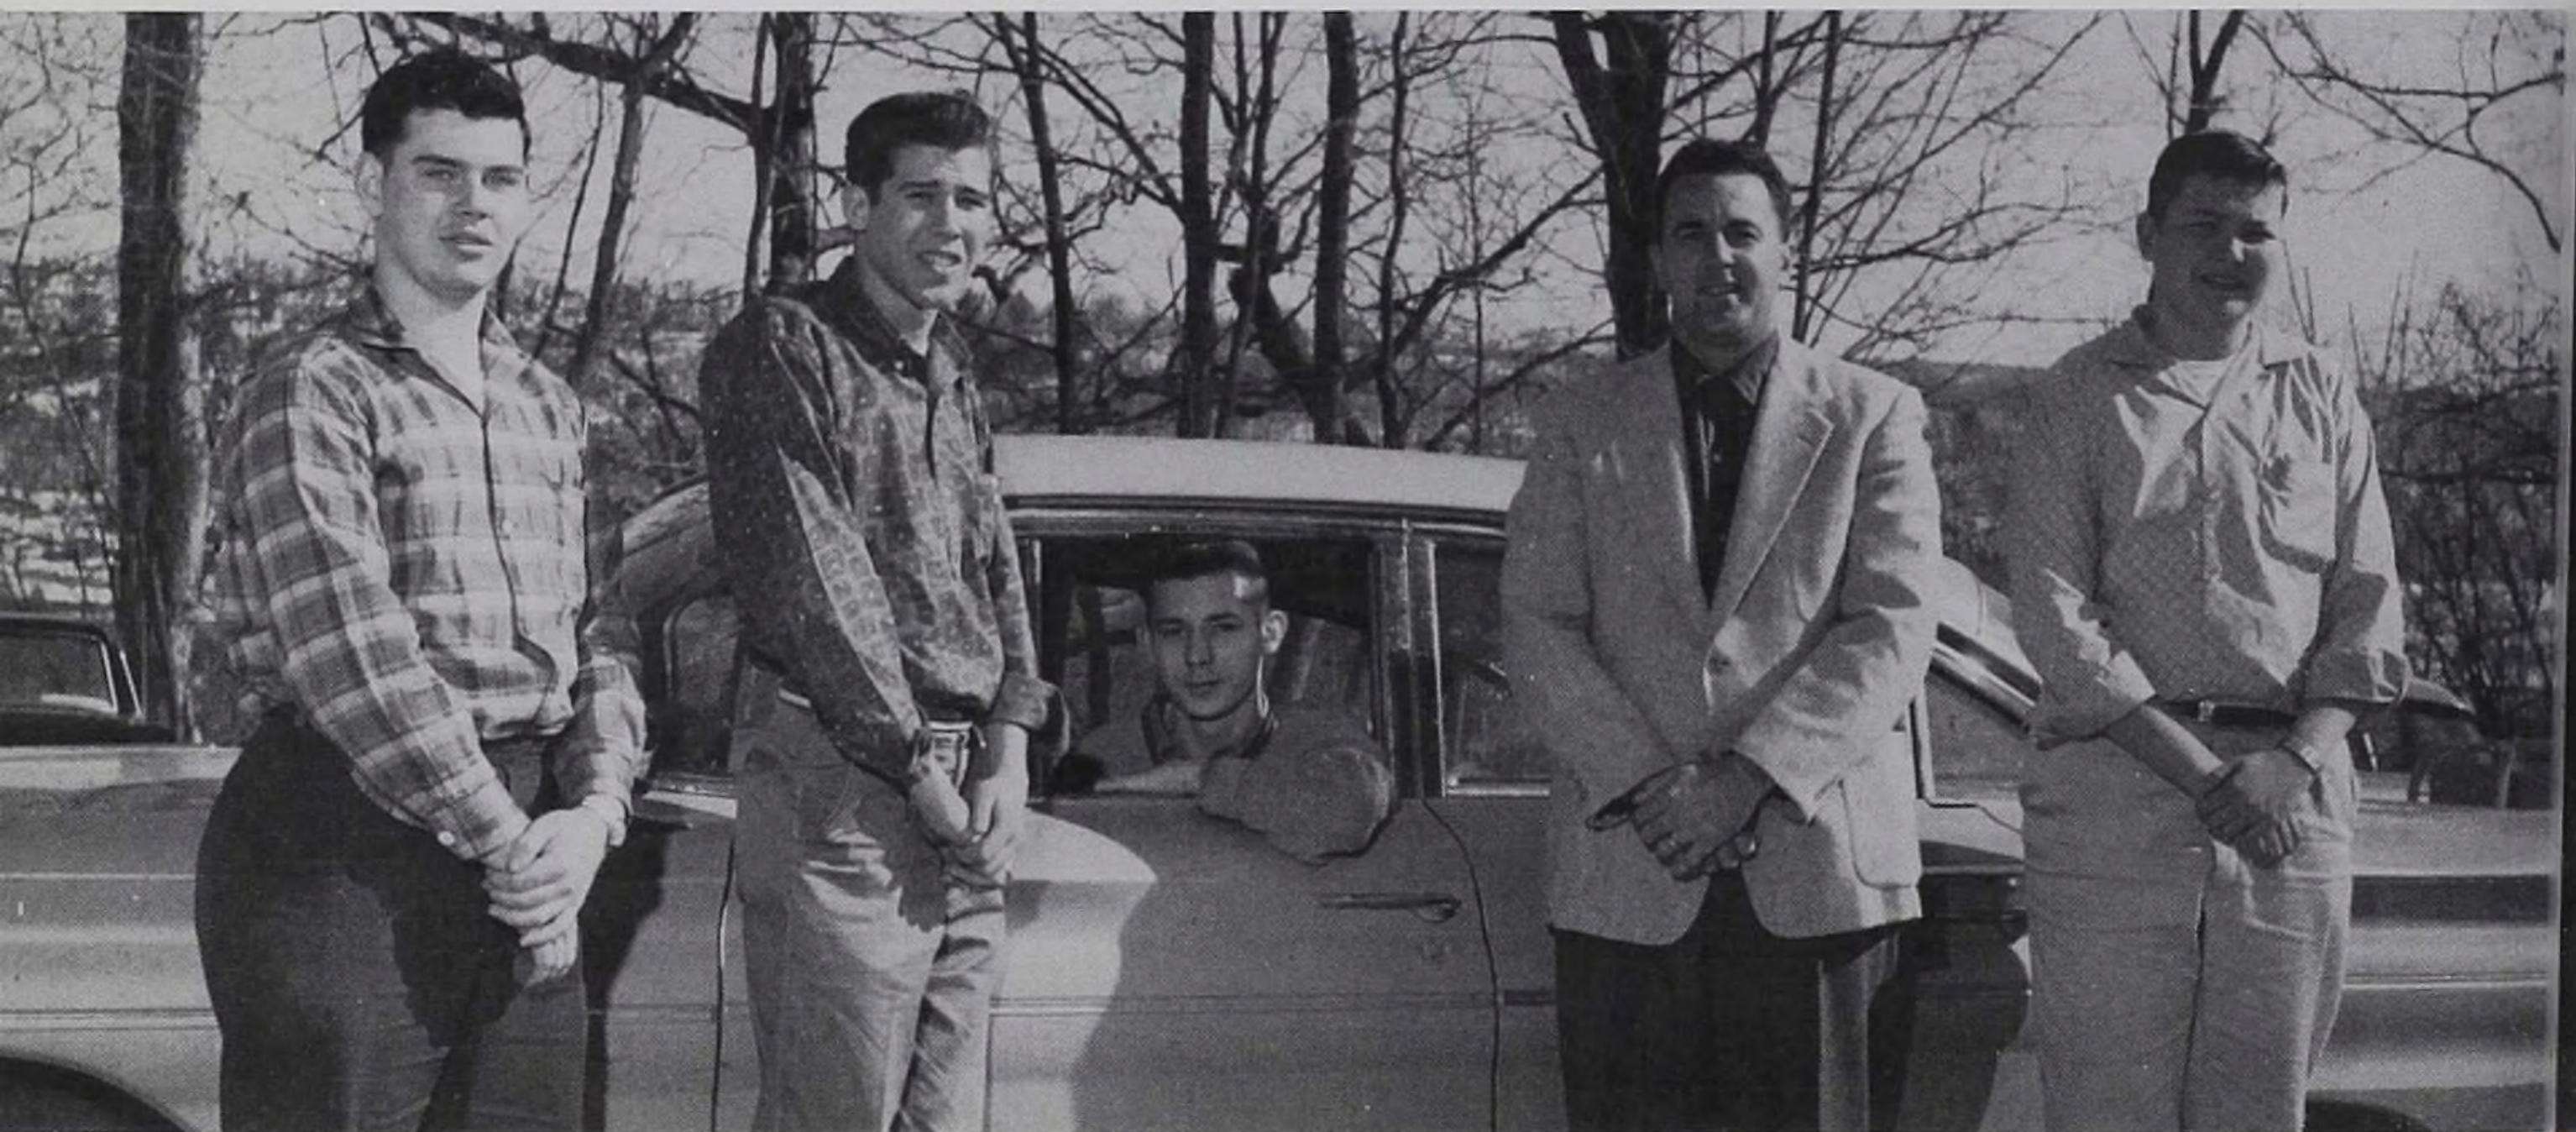

These seven comprise the nucleus of our hope for a very successful season. Captain Billy Morgan, Gibby Romaine, Steve Biccum, Assistant Coach Phil Chase, Head Coach Ralph Zelno and Tommy Coleman.

VARSITY GOLF

ROW 1: R. Lefferts, M. Miller. ROW 2: Coach Dickinson, D. Hiller, J. Livson, F. Woerner, G. Roderman.

One retires; one remains:

Miss Bernice Hassell of our junior high English Department (seated) posed for this picture with Mrs. Call of the senior high English Department, not knowing that we had planned this special page for her. We wish it were possible to split a dedication between two persons. In lieu of that, we dedicate this page to Miss Hassell in order to thank her for her more than thirty years of conscientious work on our behalf, and to wish her a happy retirement. We remember your classes, Miss Hassell; we remember your dry wit, your stern discipline, and we remember that you are one of the best teachers we had—we learned when we came to your room . . . we shall miss you. Good Luck.
