Choices for SHS Students/Families
(MUST CHOOSE ONE OF THE FOLLOWING FOR 1ST SEMESTER)

1. Sparta Virtual Learning Academy (SVLA)
   a. Must sign up by August 12
   b. 100% online for semester
   c. Taught by mix of SHS teachers or outside vendors (depends on enrollment of each course); we will try to keep the classes the students registered for in the spring.

2. In Building Learning- combination of the following per Coulee COVID-19 Compass (CC19C)
   a. 100% in building
   b. Cohort model (2 days in building, 3 days virtual)
   c. 100% virtual

(Students will be asked to pick one, and not bounce back and forth between each)
Safety Measures (some of them)

- Coulee Covid-19 Compass (CC19C) guides our decisions (slide 7)
- Staff is being health screened every day at SHS
- Asking staff and students not to come to SHS if ill or showing symptoms of COVID-19
- Limited entrance with hand sanitization when entering
- Sanitization when entering and leaving classrooms
- Staff will sanitize equipment, chairs, surfaces, etc. between use (longer passing times)
- No using of staff equipment (no sharing of any kind)
  - Students cannot use the pencil sharpeners in class
  - Must bring own supplies, (pencils, pens, charged Chromebook, etc.)
Safety Measures (continued)

Asking students to adhere to safety guidelines (there will be others)

○ DO NOT come to SHS if having COVID symptoms
○ Wearing a face covering
○ Hand sanitizing often
○ 6’ physical distancing with classrooms, hallways, etc.
○ No touching, PDA, holding hands, high fives, pushing, shoving, etc. (no physical touching)
○ No sharing of supplies
○ Staying in assigned seats
○ Will go through all of the expectations the first day, and will be reinforcing daily

What will a day look like at SHS?

- Student Perspective
- Morning Entry Doors (supervised, hand sanitizers):
  - Buses: Main Entrance (as in the past)
  - Drop-off/Student Drivers: Alton Ask Gym (change for drop)
- Students with IEPs should contact case manager with specific questions about modifications and supports.
- Students working during the day information
  - Different than in the spring.
  - Will be more restrictive for students who select in building learning.
Co-Curricular Update (as of Aug. 1)

- Start date for Sports:
  - Aug. 17 for B&G Cross Country, Girls Tennis, and Girls Golf
  - Sept. 7 for Football, Boys Soccer, and Volleyball
- Various summer camp opportunities (check with coach/advisor)
- There might not be transportation on virtual learning days; please plan accordingly.
Still finalizing plans for:

- What will lunch look like?
- What will happen if my student shows COVID symptoms?
  - We will have an isolation room.
  - Families will need to come and pick up student within a specific time frame.
- What happens if a student/staff tests positive for COVID?
- What will happen if my student does not follow safety procedures?
- Can my student come to SHS on the virtual days?
- Distribution of textbooks, school pictures, etc.
