It shall be the duty of the administration to develop guidelines for the prevention and intervention of students with suicidal tendencies or on-campus attempts or gestures. Such guidelines shall address the areas of confidentiality; responsibilities of counselors, nurses, and administrators; and emergency procedures for on-campus suicide attempts or gestures.