Youth organizations should not expect to recruit members during school hours. These organizations may be allowed to present short programs during the noon recess or activity period. Student attendance will be on a voluntary basis.

Literature promoting non-sectarian youth groups will be distributed in the various buildings of the district only after approval by the Superintendent.