Legal Obligation

- Educational institution must respond in a manner that is not deliberately indifferent when it has actual knowledge of sexual harassment occurring in the institution’s education program or activity against a person in the United States.
• When sexual harassment or allegations of sexual harassment come to the attention of ANY EMPLOYEE of a K-12 district, all employees MUST report to the TITLE IX COORDINATOR

• Failure to report could lead to an inadequate response
  • Proof of deliberate indifference
  • Legal responsibility for sexual harassment
In order for Title IX to apply, the behavior must occur in the school’s “education program or activity,” further defined as:

- includes locations, events, or circumstances over which the recipient exercised substantial control over both the respondent and the context in which the sexual harassment occurs, and also includes any building owned or controlled by a student organization that is officially recognized by a postsecondary institution.

Off-campus activities covered if one (1) of three (3) requirements are met:

1. the off-campus incident occurs as part of the school’s operations;
2. the school exercised substantial control over the respondent and the context of alleged sexual harassment that occurred; or
3. the incident of sexual harassment occurs at an off-campus building owned or controlled by a student organization officially recognized by a college.
Confidentiality

- A licensed mental health professional at the school can maintain confidentiality.
- All other employees are required to report the matter to the Title IX Coordinator.
  - Title IX Coordinator is responsible for ensuring a proper response
  - Failure to report to the Title IX Coordinator could lead to an inadequate response by the school and could be used to demonstrate deliberate indifference.
- In instances of potential sexual harassment, employees cannot offer to keep the matter confidential and must contact the Title IX Coordinator.

Review the Title IX Investigation Process Flow Chart
Overview of Grievance Process

Initial complaint – Title IX Coordinator
TIXGP: Jurisdiction Defined

Occurring in the institution’s education program or activity

- includes locations, events, or circumstances over which the school exercised substantial control over both the respondent and the context in which the sexual harassment occurred

Against a person in the United States
Mandatory dismissal

- Would not constitute sexual harassment as defined in regulations
- Did not occur in education program or activity
- Did not occur against a person in the U.S.

Permissive dismissal

- Complainant notifies Title IX Coordinator in writing that Complainant would like to withdraw formal complaint or allegations
- Respondent is no longer enrolled or employed by school district
- Specific circumstances prevent the school district from gathering evidence sufficient to reach a determination
• Investigation gathers relevant and irrelevant information

• All information must be shared with both parties

• Parties have ability to review investigation report and outcome, provide comments/written questions and provide answers and limited follow-up
TIXGP: Burden of Proof

• Preponderance of the evidence

• Clear and convincing
• Decision-maker provides the parties with the opportunity to send questions or comments
  • 10 days to respond
• Decision-maker must determine:
  • Policy violation
  • Discipline
• Decision-maker issues an outcome letter to the parties

• In K-12, discipline decisions against students with disabilities may require a manifestation determination
  • A Manifestation Determination is a process, required by the Individuals With Disabilities Education Act (IDEA 2004), which is conducted when considering the exclusion of a student with a disability that constitutes a change of placement
TIXGP: Appeal

Procedural irregularity in the Title IX grievance process affected the outcome;

Newly discovered evidence that was not reasonably available at the time of the determination of responsibility or dismissal that could affect the outcome; or

Due to a bias or conflict of interest by the Title IX Coordinator, investigator, or decision-maker that affected the outcome.

  • Is it finalized?
• Outreach to parties to determine if follow-up questions are requested
