Summer Reading Creative Assignment Options

Choose ONE of the options below and complete it according to the project description. You will need to bring the completed project with you on the first day of school.

1. Movie Poster: Imagine your novel is going to be made into a full length movie produced by Steven Spielberg. You have been hired to design a movie poster that includes a title, catch phrase, and detailed picture. You must choose actors to play the main characters from novel. On the back of the poster you must type a 1 page explanation for why you chose the actors/actresses you did and how you think they will portray your novel characters. (Poster)

2. Timeline of Events: Create a Sequence Chain that contains 25 or more boxes with the plot of your novel. These boxes should include a detailed picture with a sentence. You must also label the Exposition, Rising Action, Climax, Falling Action, and Resolution. (Poster)

3. Movie Trailer: Your novel is being made into a full length motion picture. You work for a production company that has been hired to film a movie trailer. Create a movie trailer (video recording or iMovie) that gives sufficient background for your novel and persuades your audience to go and watch the movie. The video must be a minimum of three minutes.

4. Letters: Create “pen pal” letters between two of the characters in your novel. The letters should contain key details given to you from your novel and should be 1 page in length per letter. There should be 4 letters in total. You should be writing these letters through the point of view of the character you are choosing to portray.

5. Write Three Poems: Write three poems that have a minimum of three stanzas with three or more lines per stanza. Your poems must incorporate imagery, figurative language (metaphor, simile, personification, symbolism) and connect to one of the themes in your novel.

6. Newspaper: Create a newspaper that would be published during the setting of your novel. Must include images, headline stories, ads, and advice columns that match the time period of your novel and express your understanding of the setting. (must fold/function like an actual newspaper)
