The HOA has requested the tree be removed due to its unaesthetically pleasing appearance. Mr. Cox explained that the HOA has authority to cut the tree at the edge of its property which would for the most part, remove the bulk of the tree.

TENTH ORDER OF BUSINESS

Staff Reports (Continued)

A. District Counsel

Mr. Cohen, during his update to the Board, noted that during the discussion held with the Master HOA it was determined that an agreement is needed between the Master HOA, the Heritage Harbour South CDD and the Cal Ripken baseball league regarding their use of the fields that are owned by the CDD and managed by the Master HOA. The Board discussed the preparation of the agreement and it was concluded that Mr. Cohen will work with the Master HOA for the drafting of the agreement.

Mr. Cohen provided an update of the Aquaterra contract that was entered into by the Master HOA on July 6, 2018. He noted that the agreement has the Master HOA collecting funds from all the sub-associations and making single payments to Aquaterra. He reminded the Board that this does not affect, as he sees it right now, the ability to terminate the CDD agreement with Aquaterra as of April 7, 2021. The Board members discussed and determined that they should continue to monitor the arrangement as it moves closer to April 2021.
B. District Engineer

Mr. Cox informed the Board that for medical reasons, Mr. Schappacher was not able to be present and not able to provide an update on the engineering agenda items.

D. District Manager

Mr. Cox reminded the Board that the next regular meeting was scheduled for Tuesday, March 5, 2019 at 4:00 p.m. at the Stoneybrook Golf Club.

Mr. Cox provided an update of the December 2018 financials and distributed a report of the credits provided back to the CDD for Off-Duty Deputy shifts that were not filled. Mr. Cox explained that the Sheriff’s Office has agreed to provide refunds in the future for unfilled shifts versus credits.

Mr. Cox reviewed the activities timeline and action item list with the Board.

ELEVENTH ORDER OF BUSINESS

Supervisor Requests

Ms. Patterson, during Supervisor requests, provided a general comment against the posting of negative social network comments by members of the community.
