CODE OF STUDENT CONDUCT

This Code of Student Conduct applies to all LDCC Community College campuses.

Statement of Authority

The College has the legal right and moral obligation to establish rules for academic and personal conduct and to deny admission to applicants or continued enrollment to students who do not meet/maintain these standards identified as “responsibilities” as well as the rules of the College and its departments. Counseling and/or sanctions will be imposed on students or student organizations that are found in violation of these standards. The College reserves the right to review any action taken by civil or judicial authorities regarding any LDCC student or student organization.

All students admitted to the College accept the responsibility to conform to all LDCC rules and regulations. The College will make every reasonable effort to make the rules and regulations available. Each student is responsible for becoming familiar with and abiding by them.

Students will not give or receive any unauthorized aid on any examination or paper. If a student witnesses anyone else doing so, that student must be reported immediately to the faculty member and/or the appropriate College administrator.

1. A student may be formally charged with misconduct for violation of any of the “Regulations Governing Student Behavior.”
  - a. In cases of violations of academic integrity (academic honesty/dishonesty) or a student’s failure to adhere to minimum professional standards, the faculty member has the authority to assign a course grade of an “F” to the student and/or may refer the case to the Academic Appeals Committee for action.
  - b. In cases of behavioral misconduct in the classroom, the faculty member has the authority to dismiss the student from the class for 24 hours.
2. A student charged with misconduct retains all College rights until due process is completed, unless there is evidence that the student:
  - a. Has been convicted of a felony within a year;
  - b. Has been formally charged with commission of a felony of such nature that the student’s presence on campus is potentially dangerous to the safety of the College;
  - c. Has engaged in any activity of such nature that presence on campus is potentially dangerous to the health and safety of the College, whether or not civil or criminal charges have been made or penalties imposed.

In the above situations, the student may be temporarily barred from the campus until due process is completed.

Honor Code

All members of the College community are expected to respect the principles of honesty and mutual trust embodied in the honor code. Students are responsible for preparing their own written work in every class unless specifically permitted by the instructor to combine efforts on an assigned project. Students are expected to understand the meaning of plagiarism and to avoid all suspicion of plagiarism in papers prepared. Furthermore, students are expected neither to sanction nor to tolerate violation of the honor code by others.

ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT SECTION ONE

1.01 Types of Academic Misconduct

Although all academic misconduct is wrong, premeditated acts of academic misconduct represent a greater threat to the integrity of the College than do unpremeditated acts of academic misconduct. The following definitions of and distinctions between unpremeditated and premeditated academic misconduct are established.

- 1.01:01 Unpremeditated academic misconduct is an act of academic misconduct taken without advance contemplation, prior determination, or planning, or full understanding that the act is considered academic misconduct: e.g., on the spur-of-the-moment, seizing the opportunity to cheat; collaboration to a greater degree than is permitted in a particular situation; and careless or incomplete documentation of sources.

- 1.01:02 Premeditated academic misconduct is an act of academic misconduct which grows out of advance contemplation or meditation, prior deliberation, or planning which may, but not necessarily, include the preparation of a written plan or notes. Although prior thought and planning is requisite to premeditation, this prior thought and planning need not exist for any particular period of time before it is carried into effect.

1.02 Categories of Academic Misconduct

- 1.02:01 Cheating is the intentional use of inappropriate assistance, information, materials, or study aids in any academic exercise. Cheating includes the use of unauthorized assistance, information, or materials on tests, homework, quizzes, papers, projects, and all other academic assignments. Additionally, students who provide such unauthorized assistance are also responsible of cheating.
- 1.02:02 Fabrication is defined as altering official college documents, forging signatures of college officials or other individuals, or changing grades and other academic records. Fabrication also includes submitting false records to gain admission to the College. Furthermore, any oral or written misrepresentation of truth in any communication with College administrators, faculty, or staff is also fabrication
- 1.02:03 Plagiarism involves submitting another person's ideas, words, data, arguments, or sentence structure as the student's own without proper documentation.
- 1.02:04 Misrepresentation is intentionally presenting oneself as someone else, or intentionally misrepresenting a condition or situation to gain credit or concessions on academic work, including make-up tests, projects, and class assignments.
- 1.02:05 Violation of class rules is the intentional failure to follow the class policies concerning assignments and behavior.
- 1.02:06 Complicity is the willing involvement with others in any academic misconduct.
- 1.02:07 Software Fraud is the unlawful downloading and copying of computer software used in the creation of academic work.
- 1.02:08 Multiple submissions of work involve handing in academic work that was done previously by the student for another class, or by someone else.

1.03 Disciplinary Sanctions for Academic Misconduct

Depending on the type of violation, the number of times a student has committed an offense, and the discretion of the instructor, penalties may include any combination of the following:

- 1.03:01 Assignment of a reduced grade on a paper, project, assignment, or exam
- 1.03:02 Reduction of final grade for the course.
- 1.03:03 Assignment of a grade of "F" for the course
- 1.03:04 Assignment of a grade of zero on a paper, project, assignment, or exam

- 1.03:08 Removal from the course in which the academic misconduct occurred with a letter grade of "F"

- 1.03:09 Counseling – Students are directed to seek counseling for a period of time to be designated by the counselor.
- 1.03:10 Academic Suspension – this suspension is for a specified period of time and the student may apply for readmission to the College subsequent to expiration of the specified time. (to be used by the Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs or Academic Appeals Committee.)
- 1.03:11 Expulsion – permanent separation from the College. (to be used by the Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs or Academic Appeals Committee.)

If the student is suspended or expelled before the published automatic “W” grade deadline date, the student will receive a “W” in currently enrolled course(s). If the student is suspended or expelled after the published automatic “W” grade deadline date, the student will receive an “F” in currently enrolled course(s).

In cases of serious violations, a notation that the student is not eligible to return to the College is noted on the student’s Academic Transcript until it is cleared. In cases of dismissal from the College, the record is permanent.

1.04 Administration of Penalties

Faculty members assign penalties to the student based on the above criteria. Student appeals of the penalty are directed to the appropriate Academic Supervisor. Should the student’s violation of the Academic Honor Code warrant probation, suspension, or expulsion, the matter is referred to the Academic Appeals Committee.

Due Process for Academic Misconduct

Instructions for Documenting Alleged Acts of Academic Misconduct:

If an alleged act of academic misconduct occurs in a class, the following due process steps will be followed.

- 1.05:01 Initial Hearing: The instructor will verbally notify the student or send a written notification of the alleged charges and evidence against the student using the Allegation of Academic Misconduct Form; will promptly complete an online Academic Integrity Reporting Form; and will document all evidence, determine the sanctions, and contact the student in writing of the outcome and the opportunity to respond.
- 1.05:02 The Instructor’s Academic Supervisor will schedule a meeting with the student and the Instructor will present a copy of the Allegation of Academic Misconduct Form to the student. Failure of the student to attend this meeting will be interpreted that the student will take responsibility for the act of academic misconduct. The student will be given the opportunity to refute the charges in writing. The instructor and the academic supervisor will then jointly determine if the charges are justified or are to be dismissed.
- 1.05:02 Students who do not agree with charges and/or sanctions may appeal writing to the Academic Division Chair in within 10 working days of the date listed on notification. The Academic Division Chair will convene the Academic Appeals Committee. The Academic Appeals Committee will determine if the academic misconduct is premeditated or unpremeditated, review the evidence and impose the appropriate sanction(s) for the academic misconduct. The Academic Division Chair will notify the student within 10 working days of the outcome from the Academic Appeals Committee.
- 1.05:03 Students who do not agree with charges and/or sanctions from the Academic Appeals Committee may appeal in writing the decision within 10 working days to the Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs who makes the final decision on the case.
