RE: HB7013 – Special Districts Performance Measures and Standards

To enhance accountability and transparency, new regulations were established for all special districts, by the Florida Legislature, during its 2025 legislative session. Starting on October 1, 2025, or by the end of the first full fiscal year after its creation (whichever comes later), each special district must establish goals and objectives for each program and activity, as well as develop performance measures and standards to assess the achievement of these goals and objectives. Additionally, by December 1 each year (initial report due on December 1, 2026), each special district is required to publish an annual report on its website, detailing the goals and objectives achieved, the performance measures and standards used, and any goals or objectives that were not achieved.

District Management has identified the following key categories to focus on for Fiscal Year 2026 and develop statutorily compliant goals for each:

- Community Communication and Engagement
- Infrastructure and Facilities Maintenance
- Financial Transparency and Accountability

Additionally, special districts must provide an annual reporting form to share with the public that reflects whether the goals and objectives were met for the year. District Management has streamlined these requirements into a single document that meets both the statutory requirements for goal/objective setting and annual reporting.

The proposed goals/objectives and the annual reporting form are attached as exhibit A to this memo. District Management recommends that the Board of Supervisors adopt these goals and objectives to maintain compliance with HB7013 and further enhance its commitment to the accountability and transparency of the District.

Memorandum

To: Mark Vega, District Manager

Tampa Palms Open Space & Transportation (TPOST) CDD

From: Phil Chang, P.E., Director, Public Works

Date: August 8, 2025

Subject: 2023 Operations and Maintenance Assessment Methodology Report Review

The Tampa Palms Open Space & Transportation Community Development District ("TPOST CDD") requested that BGE, Inc. undertake a review, from an engineering perspective only, of the 2023 Operations and Maintenance Assessment Methodology Report (updated July 24, 2023) for Area 3 of the TPOST CDD. Our review does not include any legal or financial considerations.

Area 3 is generally located within the limits shown below:

August 8, 2025 Page 2

The 2023 Assessment Methodology Report ("Report") was prepared by Real Estate Econometrics, Inc. ("Consultant") with a stated goal to "determine the special and peculiar benefits that flow to the properties in the District" and to "apportion the special benefits on a basis that is fair and reasonable".

According to the Report, Area 3 of the District encompasses approximately 785 acres that includes 2,196 residential units (2 existing and 2 future apartment complexes, 1 condominium community, and five residential neighborhoods) as well as a mixture of commercial parcels (6 existing and 2 vacant). Area 3 is bounded by Bruce B Downs Boulevard and Interstate 75 to the northwest and northeast and the Tampa Electric corridor to the south. It is located within Tampa, Florida in Hillsborough County.

The District is responsible for the operation and maintenance of its infrastructure as well as the associated administrative costs and necessary reserves. Infrastructure may consist of items in the right-of-way such as streetlights, landscape, hardscape, irrigation systems, and stormwater system components as well as infrastructure outside of the right-of-way such as stormwater lakes/ponds, lake/pond stormwater management structures, wetlands and/or conservation areas. The properties within Area 3 receive a benefit from the operations and maintenance of the District infrastructure.

As part of their methodology, the Consultant reviewed the 2024 Budget line by line to ascertain three benefit determination categories (administrative, roadway and water management). They determined that administrative costs were about 28% of the Budget, roadway costs were about 67% and water management costs were about 5%. Based on this distribution, the Consultant then calculated what it deemed to be an appropriate share of benefit to each parcel owner under each benefit category.

Per the Report, all administrative costs benefit all properties within the District on an equal basis. Administrative costs would include those costs related to legislative issues, financial issues, legal services, security and District salaries. In consideration of this, an Equivalent Assessment Unit ("EAU") measurement was used by the Consultant to determine the benefit received for each parcel within the District. For this exercise, the Consultant established one (1) EAU for each residential (non-apartment) unit and one (1) EAU for each apartment parcel. Each commercial parcel was also assigned one (1) EAU. The proportionate share of the administrative costs was therefore based on each parcel owner's percentage of the total number of EAUs for Area 3. For example, the Consultant calculated that there are 828 EAUs and the total budget amount for Administration is $131,767. Therefore, the proportionate cost of one (1) EAU was calculated to be $159.14 (1 ÷ 828 x $131,767 = $159.14).

Similarly, for the roadway benefit category, the benefit to all parcel owners was based on their proportionate share or percentage of the total number of (vehicle) daily trips for Area 3. To determine the daily number of trips for each property type (i.e. single family residential, apartment, retail shopping center, etc.), the Consultant utilized the 10th edition of the Institute of Traffic Engineers (ITE) Trip Generation Manual. The Trip Generation Manual provides vehicle trip generation rates based on property use.

Utilizing trip generation rates and/or vehicle daily trips to determine proportionate share of roadway related costs is an accepted and common practice used by municipalities and public agencies. Hillsborough County and neighboring Pasco County, for example, include the use of trip generation rates from the ITE Trip Generation Manual in its mobility fee calculations. Therefore, the use of trip generation rates and/or vehicle daily trip values is appropriate in our opinion.

The ITE Trip Generation Manual is a widely accepted tool among traffic engineering professionals throughout the country for use in traffic analyses and traffic impact studies. It is nationally recognized and is considered a standard reference for municipalities and public agencies. The first edition of the Manual was published in 1976 and the latest edition, the 11th, was published in September 2021.

The Consultant indicated that they were engaged by the District to prepare the Assessment Methodology Report and began doing so in the summer of 2022. Although the 11th edition of the ITE Trip Manual had been published in September 2021 a few months before, the Consultant utilized the 10th edition which was published in September 2017.

The 10th edition of the ITE Trip Manual had been accepted and adopted several years prior to 2022 by public agencies nationwide including Hillsborough County. It is quite common, however, and is an acceptable practice for public agencies to delay the adoption of a newly published manual. This allows the public agencies, engineers and traffic professionals to acquire and familiarize themselves with an updated or newly/recently published version. In fact, in some jurisdictions, the 10th edition was not adopted until a year or more after it had been published. Therefore, it is quite common to delay the use of a newer edition of a manual up to a year or more after being published. Since the 11th edition of the ITE Trip Generation Manual was published less than a year prior to the start of the assessment, in our opinion, it would have been reasonable for a traffic engineer or traffic professional to have utilized the 10th edition instead of the 11th edition since it had been published less than a year before the start of the Assessment.

For the water management benefit category, the Report indicates that the proportionate share of the costs was calculated based on the impervious and pervious surface area of the parcels as a percentage of the overall impervious and pervious surface area of Area 3. Similarly, Hillsborough County collects an annual stormwater utility fee that is based on impervious surface area. The County bases its fees on actual impervious area for non-residential parcels and on an Equivalent Residential Unit (ERU) basis where one (1) ERU is equal to 4,267 square feet of impervious surface. A similar stormwater utility fee calculation system is used in Pinellas County. Therefore, in our opinion, using impervious and pervious area data as a basis to determine the proportionate share is reasonable.

The Hillsborough County Stormwater Program and Fees webpage indicates that the impervious area values it uses are based on information recorded by the Hillsborough County Property Appraiser (HCPA) and refers users to the HCPA website to search for those values. Similarly, Pinellas County has a Surface Water Assessment fee and also indicates that the building footprint impervious values used in its calculations are based on property appraiser data. Given that Hillsborough County refers users to the HCPA with regards to impervious area information, in our opinion, it is reasonable to refer to the HCPA for impervious area information also.

Aerial maps and geographic information system (GIS) data are utilized by the HCPA on its website and are available to the public. GIS data and aerial maps are also available from the Southwest Florida Water Management District (SWFWMD). Aerial maps and GIS data are often used by engineers performing hydrologic and/or hydraulic drainage modeling for large geographic areas or when typographic survey information is not available. When topographic survey information is readily available, it is generally advisable to use it. For the assessment methodology, in our opinion, it would not have been practical to undertake a topographic survey given the purpose of the assessment.

August 8, 2025 Page 4

With regards to aerial maps and GIS data, a typical and very simplified scenario of their use would involve an engineer retrieving impervious area data by identifying, digitizing, and/or measuring impervious surface areas found in the aerial mapping and/or GIS data being used. Those impervious area values would then be input into drainage modeling software to reflect the characteristics of the drainage basin or watershed being studied and then used for design or whatever the purpose is of the study in this scenario. Utilizing aerial maps and GIS data to quantify impervious areas is an accepted practice within the engineering community. Therefore, in our opinion, it was reasonable for the Consultant to use aerial maps and GIS data to calculate impervious areas.

Overall, in our opinion, from an engineering perspective, we believe that the methodology utilized in the 2023 Report as discussed in this memorandum is reasonable for the reasons noted.

Please note that the opinions expressed in this report are limited to an engineering point of view and do not consider any viewpoints from legal, financial or other perspectives. Additionally, our review and opinion do not include a verification of the calculations and values in the 2023 Assessment Methodology Report for Area 3 or any other documents. Our opinions are strictly limited to the comments made within this memorandum.
