Notice to Quarry Community Development District Residents

The Board of Supervisors (“the Board”) of the Quarry Community Development District (“the District”) currently has one vacancy in Seat #4 with the term expiring November 2022. The Board is seeking a Qualified Elector candidate to fill these seat.

Per Florida Statute, 190.003(17), A Qualified elector means any person at least 18 years of age who is a citizen of the United States, a legal resident of Florida and of the District, and who registers to vote with the Supervisor of Elections in Collier County, where the District land is located.

All interested and qualified candidates are asked to contact the District Manager, Bob Koncar, by email at Bob.Koncar@Inframark.com; telephone at (904) 626-0593. The Board would prefer (but not exclusively) individuals that have a background and/or expertise in accounting or project management. Any correspondence of expressions of interest and/or résumés that candidates would like to have presented to the Board for consideration of their candidacy must be provided to the District Manager. All interested residents are requested to submit their resumes or letters of interest to Bob Koncar no later than November 11th, Wednesday, by 5:00 pm. Please note that all materials provided become part of the public record. Interested candidates will be required to attend the next meeting so that they may address the Board regarding their candidacy, and, if appointed, be able to immediately assume office at that meeting. The Board may select a candidate at the November Board meeting (which may be a Zoom meeting) which is scheduled for 1:00 pm, on Monday, November 16th.
