

Eastmont School District #206 Relationships, Relevance, Rigor, and Results

K-12 Non-Athletic Competitions for 2018-19

Eastmont High School

ASL	Students meet once per week, can attend a regional competition and qualifying students compete in a state competition. Put on "Sign Idol" annually.
Band	Large Group Contest: Bands perform as a class to receive judges' critique. Solo/Ensemble: Students compete as individuals/small groups for judges' critiques. Qualifying students may attend state competition.
Choir	Large Group Contest, Festivals in-State and out-of-State every other year... Also hosts "Voice of Eastmont." Solo/Ensemble - Students compete as individuals/small groups for judges' critiques. Qualifying students may attend state competition.
Debate	Meets after school twice a week. Qualifying individuals/teams may attend a state competition
Drama	Meets once a week. If selected by 5 th Avenue judges, club may attend the 5 th Avenue awards ceremony in Seattle.
FBLA	Meets once per week. Students can go to regional/state competition.
FFA	Meets once per week. Students compete at a regional conference. Qualifying students may attend state competition.
Knowledge Bowl	Meets twice per week during competition season. Students compete in periodical competitions. Qualifying teams may attend a state competition.
Skills U.S.A.	Meets once per week during competition season. May attend a state competition if teams/individuals qualify.
Sports Medicine	Students meet once a week before school during the few months before the competition. Qualified students attend the state competition each year.

Eastmont Junior High School

Band	Large Group Contest: Bands perform as a class to receive judges' critique. Solo/Ensemble: Students compete as individuals/small groups for judges' critiques. Qualifying students may attend state competition.
Choir	Large Group Contest: Choirs perform as a class to receive judges' critique. Solo/Ensemble: Students compete as individuals/small groups for judges' critiques. Qualifying students may attend state competition.
Drama Club	Meets once per week. If selected by 5 th Avenue judges, the club may attend the 5 th Avenue awards ceremony in Seattle.
FBLA	Meets once per week. Students compete at a regional conference. Qualifying students may attend state competition.
FFA	Meets once per week. Students can go to regional/state competitions.
Skills U.S.A.	Meets once time per week during competition season. May attend a state competition if teams/individuals qualify.

Sterling (Intermediate Grades)

Band	Large Group Contest: Band performs as a class to receive judges' critique. Solo/Ensemble: Students compete as individuals/small groups for judges' critiques. Qualifying students may attend state competition.
Choir	Large Group Contest: Choir performs as a class to receive judges' critique. Solo/Ensemble: Students compete as individuals/small groups for judges' critiques. Qualifying students may attend state competition.
Math is Cool	Meets after school with both individual and team competitions. Qualified students may attend state competition.

Clovis Point Intermediate School

Band	Large Group Contest: Bands perform as a class to receive judges' critique. Solo/Ensemble: Students compete as individuals/small groups for judges' critiques. Qualifying students may attend state competition.
Choir	Large Group Contest: Choirs perform as a class to receive judges' critique. Solo/Ensemble: Students compete as individuals/small groups for judges' critiques. Qualifying students may attend state competition.
Math is Cool	Meets after school with both individual and team competitions. Qualified students may attend state competition.

Elementary schools: Cascade, Grant, Kenroy, Lee, and Rock Island

Math is Cool	Meets after school with both individual and team competitions. Qualified students may attend state competition.
Eastmont STEM	Participation is open to all students in the designated grade level:   K-1st grade — Straw Towers 2nd grade — Egg Drop 3rd grade — Windmills 4th grade — Recycled Vehicles   5th grade — K'NEX 6th grade — Catapults 7th grade — Robotics  