In addition to receiving the grant, CDE commented that “the reviewers told me your application should be used as an example because it was so clear and concise. You did a really nice job outlining your plan and it was clear there was significant district buy-in.”

5. Todd Albrecht:

Todd Albrecht has been the Cañon City High School vocal music director for more than 20 years. In his time with us he has developed strong programs such as Tiger Ladies, Madrigals, and a world class show choir he calls Encore. Programs such as these, ones that win state recognition year after year, benefit from the desire and drive provided by immensely talented young men and women. However, there is no way they would achieve the level of success they have if it were not for their leader, Mr. Todd Albrecht.

At a time when the reputation of our high school hit a giant generational speed bump, Mr. Albrecht was kind enough to direct a special performance, ahead of schedule, to be shared with the entire state of Colorado at its annual school board association convention in Colorado Springs. On that day, in a matter of only 15 minutes, our board of education felt the attitude of the entire education community of the state of Colorado shift from one in which we might be expected to feel shame for representing the Cañon City School District, to one in which we could hold our chins high and beam with pride in knowing that we are producing such amazing young men and women who display such incredible talent.

This was one small event that took place on one significant day, and the work Mr. Albrecht and his students put in to pull off that performance may just be a blip on his career radar screen. We want him to know that we notice how day in and day out he mentors our children as if they were his own, sets incredibly high expectations for them, and supports their achievement of them. We notice how each and every one of his performers who go on to a bigger and better future because of the love, care and yes, joy he has instilled in them, will come running back to this community to share their wonderful talents in his honor.

Todd Albrecht is an extraordinary human being. He causes everyone around him to be a better version of themselves. He makes our world more beautiful. He brings us joy. We just want to take a moment to let him and our whole community know how truly lucky we are to have him in our midst, working on behalf of our children, right here in Cañon City, Colorado!
