1. Nutritional Services Department:

Once every 3 years, the Colorado Dept. of Education School Nutrition Unit is required to complete an Administrative Review for all Colorado School Districts participating in the National School Lunch Program. The process consists of a comprehensive review of free and reduced processes, the reimbursement system, menu quality, meal patterns, program finances, food safety, procurement, employee training, program outreach and many other general areas of the program. The purpose of the AR is to ensure program compliance, offer technical assistance and acknowledge the positive efforts in serving nutritious meals to students. Our Nutritional Services Department received their Administrative Review the last week of January, 2018 and they are being recognized tonight for receiving a review that was filled with an abundance of commendations and zero findings in our cafeterias. CDE indicated that Canon City is a "poster child" for school nutrition programs and that they wished all programs were as well ran as ours.

Our day to day success is always a team effort by our entire department, however tonight we are recognizing key personnel that were directly responsible for our stellar review results:

Janelle Grooms - Manager of Nutrition Services
Destiny Dunaway - Nutrition Services Secretary
Rhonda Gilliom - Washington Kitchen Supervisor
Robin McCluskey - Harrison Kitchen Supervisor
Wanda Adamic - Harrison Asst. Kitchen Supervisor
Michelle Bracco - Washington Asst. Kitchen Supervisor
Lindsay Young-Sporing - Harrison Asst. Kitchen Supervisor
Camisha Ewton - Harrison Food Server
Jocelyn Fallis - Washington Food Server
Jeanne Knight - Harrison Food Server

Sam Tilton - Harrison Food Serve
