Connection, Response, Encouragement. An Open Forum

Join us for a responsive and open discussion surrounding the challenges, joys, and strategies of parenting during COVID19. This group is held by Care Manager, Clo Knight who understands the lifestyle impacts and struggle to find balance for parents and children during this time of social distancing.

You are not alone. Connect with fellow parents, share your experiences, process uncertainty, and discuss what works! This meeting is held in an open forum drop-in style in a safe and comfortable atmosphere for parents of all ages and backgrounds.
