

Lincoln School of Science and Technology 2022-2023 TITLE I OVERVIEW

What is Title I? Title I is a federally funded program to ensure that students have a fair, equal, and significant opportunity to obtain a high-quality education and to reach, at a minimum, proficiency with challenging academic standards in reading and math.

Who are the Title I Staff Members at Lincoln School of Science and Technology? Teacher Rachel Ortega and paraprofessional Danielle Filler are paid from Title I funds. These staff members work with students in grades kindergarten through fifth.

How is Parental Involvement Encouraged by Title I?

- $3,346 ($12.92 per student, based upon October 2021 Count) is set-aside to support parent involvement for K-5th grade students. This includes supplies for Open House/Back-to-School, Parent/Teacher Conferences, brochures for parents regarding instructional strategies, child care for parents when attending family nights, and supplies for Family Nights.
- Code: LSST - 22.125.2.2900.0610.000.9211

What financial support is given by Title I funds to Lincoln SST? Title I allocations are based on the number of students who qualify for free/reduced lunch. 56% of the students qualified for free/reduced meals (as of October Count, 2021). For the 2022-2023 school year, Lincoln will receive approximately $107,934 in Title I Funds to support the following:

- Salaries for staff noted above
- Parent Involvement Funds
- MTSS stipends

What is the Title I School Improvement Plan? The Title I School Improvement Plan is the Lincoln Accreditation/Accountability Plan. The school goals are revised each fall. If interested in participating with the team that develops these goals and monitors progress, contact Mr. Olguin, principal, at 276-5830.

Parents Right to Know:

Parents of students in Title I schools can request information regarding their child's teacher, including, at a minimum: (1) whether the teacher has met the State requirements for licensure and certification for the grade levels and subject-matters in which the teacher provides instruction; (2) whether the teacher is teaching under emergency or other provisional status through which State qualification or licensing criteria have been waived; (3) the college major and any other graduate certification or degree held by the teacher, and the field of discipline of the certification or degree; and (4) whether the child is provided services by paraprofessionals, and if so, their qualifications.
