Permission to Publish Student Work on the Web

McDowell County Schools highlights the exciting projects, programs, and activities taking place in our schools, as well as celebrating the accomplishments of our students and staff.

These stories may appear:

- On the McDowell County Schools websites, www.mcdowell.k12.nc.us.
- In district or school newsletters or other publications.
- On district approved social media, such as Twitter, Facebook, and YouTube.

In addition, as new technologies become available, McDowell County Schools may use them to publish district and school information. McDowell County Schools recognizes the importance of employees, students, and parents engaging, learning, collaborating and sharing in digital environments as part of 21st Century learning and strives to ensure that digital tools are used responsibly and safely.

By signing below, you give permission and consent for McDowell County Schools to use your student's first name, image (video and still), voice, and work on district approved Internet sites and in the media.
