Diversity Statement

Each of us is responsible for creating a safer, more inclusive environment. We must treat every individual with respect. We are diverse in many ways, and this diversity is fundamental to building and maintaining an equitable and inclusive campus community. Diversity can refer to multiple ways that we identify ourselves, including but not limited to race, color, national origin, language, sex, disability, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, religion, creed, ancestry, belief, veteran status, or genetic information. These diverse identities, along with many others not mentioned here, shape our perspectives. We recognize that the diversity students, staff, and faculty bring to this campus must be viewed as a resource, strength, and benefit to enriching our organizational culture. At RPCC, we expect everyone to work to promote diversity, equity, and inclusion not only because diversity fuels excellence and innovation but because we want to pursue justice. Acknowledging our imperfections while also fully committing to work, inside and outside of our classrooms, to build and sustain a campus community that increasingly embraces these core values is everyone’s responsibility.

Attendance and Tardiness

The RPCC Adult Education staff will monitor student attendance. Students who do not meet the minimum required instructional hours by pre-determined assessment dates or who have excessive absences may be dropped from the program. Any exceptions will be made at the director’s discretion.

If a student anticipates an extended absence, please inform the instructor that arrangements for distance learning may be made, if necessary. Excessive absences without proper documentation may result in the student’s termination from the program. Students who are dropped from the program may have to complete additional paperwork and testing for re-entry into the program depending on the time period.

Tardiness, being late to class, affects students’ education and increases the chances of failure. Tardiness interrupts lessons, class activities and interferes with the learning environment for all students. Consistently being late to class will not be excused and, if continuous, may result in the student being dropped from the program.

An Adult Education staff member will provide assistance to problem-solve issues related to attendance and progress towards academic goals.
