

LINES OF COMMUNICATION

The Madison Central School District is committed to listening to suggestions, answering questions and addressing concerns, complaints or issues in a timely and efficient manner. Therefore, issues should be handled closest to the source by contacting the person responsible for the various areas of school operations. He or she has the most detailed information about his/her area of responsibility and is most prepared to offer assistance.

If you have questions pertaining to the school district or about your child's work, please do not hesitate to call.
