Compliance Audit Overview

The Community Website Compliance Audit (CWCA) consists of a thorough assessment of Florida Community Development District (CDD) websites to assure that specified district information is available and fully accessible. Florida Statute Chapter 189.069 states that effective October, 2015, every CDD in the state is required to maintain a fully compliant website for reporting certain information and documents for public access.

The CWCA is a reporting system comprised of quarterly audits and an annual summary audit to meet full disclosure as required by Florida law. These audits are designed to assure that CDDs satisfy all compliance requirements stipulated in Chapter 189.069.

Compliance Criteria

The CWCA focuses on the two primary areas – website accessibility as defined by U.S. federal laws, and the 16-point criteria enumerated in Florida Statute Chapter 189.069.

ADA Website Accessibility

Several federal statutes (American Disabilities Act, Sec. 504 and 508 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973) require public institutions to ensure they are not discriminating against individuals on the basis of a person's disability. Community websites are required to conform to web content accessibility guidelines – WCAG 2.1, which is the international standard established to keep websites barrier-free and the recognized standard for ADA-compliance.

Florida Statute Compliance

Pursuant to F.S. 189.069, every CDD is required to maintain a dedicated website to serve as an official reporting mechanism covering, at minimum, 16 criteria. The information required to report and have fully accessible spans: establishment charter or ordinance, fiscal year audit, budget, meeting agendas and minutes and more. For a complete list of statute requirements, see page 3.

Audit Process

The Community Website Compliance Audit covers all CDD web pages and linked PDFs.* Following the WCAG 2.1 levels A, AA, and AAA for web content accessibility, a comprehensive scan encompassing 312 tests is conducted for every page. In addition, a human inspection is conducted to assure factors such as navigation and color contrasts meet web accessibility standards. See page 4 for complete accessibility grading criteria.

In addition to full ADA-compliance, the audit includes a 16-point checklist directly corresponding with the criteria set forth in Florida Statute Chapter 189.069. See page 5 for the complete compliance criteria checklist.

* NOTE: Because many CDD websites have links to PDFs that contain information required by law (meeting agendas, minutes, budgets, miscellaneous and ad hoc documents, etc.), audits include an examination of all associated PDFs. PDF remediation and ongoing auditing is critical to maintaining compliance.

Accessibility overview

Everyone deserves equal access.

With nearly 1-in-5 Americans having some sort of disability – visual, hearing, motor, cognitive – there are literally millions of reasons why websites should be fully accessible and compliant with all state and federal laws. Web accessibility not only keeps board members on the right side of the law, but enables the entire community to access all your web content. The very principles that drive accessible website design are also good for those without disabilities.

The legal and right thing to do

Several federal statutes (American Disabilities Act, Sec. 504 and 508 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973) require public institutions to ensure they are not discriminating against individuals on the basis of a person's disability. Community websites are required to conform to web content accessibility guidelines, WCAG 2.1, the international standard established to keep websites barrier-free. Plain and simple, any content on your website must be accessible to everyone.

ADA Compliance Categories

Most of the problems that occur on a website fall in one or several of the following categories.

Contrast and colors

Some people have vision disabilities that hinder picking up contrasts, and some are color blind, so there needs to be a distinguishable contrast between text and background colors. This goes for buttons, links, text on images – everything. Consideration to contrast and color choice is also important for extreme lighting conditions.

Contract checker: <http://webaim.org/resources/contrastchecker>

Using semantics to format your HTML pages

When web page codes are clearly described in easy-to-understand terms, it enables broader sharing across all browsers and apps. This ‘friendlier’ language not only helps all the users, but developers who are striving to make content more universal on more devices.

Text alternatives for non-text content

Written replacements for images, audio and video should provide all the same descriptors that the non-text content conveys. Besides helping with searching, clear, concise word choice can make vivid non-text content for the disabled.

Helpful article: <http://webaim.org/techniques/alttext>

Ability to navigate with the keyboard

Not everyone can use a mouse. Blind people with many with motor disabilities have to use a keyboard to make their way around a website. Users need to be able to interact fully with your website by navigating using the tab, arrows and return keys only. A “skip navigation” option is also required. Consider using WAI-ARIA for improved accessibility, and properly highlight the links as you use the tab key to make sections.

Helpful article: <http://webaim.org/techniques/skipnav>

Easy to navigate and find information

Finding relevant content via search and easy navigation is a universal need. Alt text, heading structure, page titles, descriptive link text (no ‘click here’ please) are just some ways to help everyone find what they’re searching for. You must also provide multiple ways to navigate such as a search and a site map.

Helpful article: <http://webaim.org/techniques/sitetools/>

Properly formatting tables

Tables are hard for screen readers to decipher. Users need to be able to navigate through a table one cell at a time. In addition to the table itself needing a caption, row and column headers need to be labeled and data correctly associated with the right header.

Helpful article: <http://webaim.org/techniques/tables/data>

Making PDFs accessible

PDF files must be tagged properly to be accessible, and unfortunately many are not. Images and other non-text elements within that PDF also need to be ADA-compliant. Creating anew is one thing; converting old PDFs – called PDF remediation – takes time.

Helpful articles: <http://webaim.org/techniques/acrobat/acrobat>

Making videos accessible

Simply adding a transcript isn't enough. Videos require closed captioning and detailed descriptions (e.g., who's on-screen, where they are, what they're doing, even facial expressions) to be fully accessible and ADA compliant.

Helpful article: <http://webaim.org/techniques/captions>

Making forms accessible

Forms are common tools for gathering info and interacting. From logging in to registration, they can be challenging if not designed to be web-accessible. How it's laid out, use of labels, size of clickable areas and other aspects need to be considered.

Helpful article: <http://webaim.org/techniques/forms>

Alternate versions

Attempts to be fully accessible sometimes fall short, and in those cases, alternate versions of key pages must be created. That is, it is sometimes not feasible (legally, technically) to modify some content. These are the 'exceptions', but still must be accommodated.

Feedback for users

To be fully interactive, your site needs to be able to provide an easy way for users to submit feedback on any website issues. Clarity is key for both any confirmation or error feedback that occurs while engaging the page.

Other related requirements

No flashing

Blinking and flashing are not only bothersome, but can be disorienting and even dangerous for many users. Seizures can even be triggered by flashing, so avoid using any flashing or flickering content.

Timers

Timed connections can create difficulties for the disabled. They may not even know a timer is in effect, it may create stress. In some cases (e.g., purchasing items), a timer is required, but for most school content, avoid using them.

Fly-out menus

Menus that fly out or down when an item is clicked are helpful to dig deeper into the site's content, but they need to be available via keyboard navigation, and not immediately snap back when those using a mouse move from the clickable area.

No pop-ups

Pop-up windows present a range of obstacles for many disabled users, so it's best to avoid using them altogether. If you must, be sure to alert the user that a pop-up is about to be launched.

RE: Seven Oaks Office Building and Excess Land
2940 Sports Core Circle
Wesley Chapel, Florida, 33544-8764

Dear Mr. Brizendine:

As requested, a detailed investigation, analysis and appraisal have been made of the market value of the fee simple estate of the referenced property, in as-is condition as of the appraisal date.

As requested, we have prepared a complete appraisal and are submitting this appraisal in a narrative appraisal report format. Included within the accompanying appraisal report are exhibits and documented data in support of the value conclusions. All material collected during our analysis has been retained in our files and is available for inspection upon request.

The subject consists of a 1.16 acre or approximately 50,530 square foot site that includes an existing, good quality 3,637 square foot office building. This appraisal assignment includes the market value of both the existing office building with underlying land and the subject's excess land. According to the "Settlement Terms Sheet in RE: S.B. Associates Petition Pursuant to Section 70.51", Florida Statutes for Parcel S12B as subject, the existing office building is allowed many typical office uses, while the vacant land is limited to several uses allowed under the Recreation designation. The subject restrictions on allowable uses and the limitations on density to total of 10,800 square feet building area on the 1.16 acres, leaves a remaining entitlement of approximately 7,163 square feet of building area and requires negative adjustments to comparable land sales.

We estimate $1,675,000 total subject market value for the office building with supporting land and the excess land and allocated as follows:

$ 1,275,000	Building & Supporting Land
$ 400,000	Excess Land
$ 1,675,000	Total Subject Value

Constructed in 2003, finished areas include a reception area, seven offices, a conference room, a kitchenette, file storage room, work room and two handicapped accessible restrooms. Each restroom has two fixtures. The building’s architecture and interior finishes are of good design, good quality materials and above average workmanship. The entry/reception area consists of a raised rotunda with decorative ceiling finish and chandelier, and the reception area floors consist of travertine tile. Other floor areas consist of good quality low pile commercial grade carpet, ceramic or porcelain tile and VCT. Each office has glass partial walls above a wainscot fronting the hallways. 	Site improvements are asphalt paving, concrete sidewalks, landscaping, lighting, underground drainage and laterals for municipal water and sewer. Site improvements appear adequate and functional. Economic lives of site improvements typically range between 20 and 50 years, depending on the item and its standard useful life.

PURPOSE, INTENDED USE AND DATE OF APPRAISAL

Purpose of this appraisal is to estimate, with the highest degree of accuracy possible, the market value, in as-is condition, of the fee simple estate of the subject property.

The intended user of this appraisal report is the client, Seven Oaks Community Development District, Scott Brizendine and Andrew Mendenhall. This appraisal report is prepared for the sole and exclusive use of the intended user and may not be relied upon by any third parties for any purpose whatsoever without the prior written consent of the appraiser. No additional intended users are identified by the appraiser.

The intended use is to evaluate the property that is the subject of this appraisal for assistance with potential acquisition, subject to the stated scope of work, purpose of the appraisal, reporting requirements of this appraisal report and definition of market value.

Property rights appraised are the fee simple estate of the subject property.

This is a complete appraisal in a narrative appraisal report format. Date of this appraisal is July 14, 2025, the last date of inspection. Date of report is August 6, 2025.

SCOPE OF APPRAISAL

The scope of work for this appraisal assignment includes the identification of the appraisal problem, which is the valuation of the subject property in its as-is condition. The steps taken in the analysis include:

Personal inspection of the property under appraisal.

In order to determine the competitive market of the subject, analysis was made of regional and neighborhood data and ascertainment of demographic and economic trends that affect the property and its intended use.

In order to determine the competitive market position of the subject, analysis was made of economic trends affecting the property, including supply and demand analysis of properties considered directly competitive in the market, resulting in analysis of highest and best use of the property, both as if vacant and as improved.

Description of the property site, including verification with applicable governmental authorities as to land use regulations, utilities, and property taxes, as well as non-invasive inspection and complete description of the physical characteristics of the existing or planned improvements. Please note that the appraisers are not engineers or contractors, and the inspection is limited to a visual inspection as to general quality and condition. While obvious impairments will be brought to the attention of the client, an inspection by a licensed engineer, pest control or other professional is always recommended.

Estimation of highest and best use of the site, both as if vacant and as improved.

Estimation of value using the sales comparison approach. There is adequate market data to support these approaches to market value.

In order to apply the sales comparison approach, research was made of sales comparable properties through two real estate sales reporting services and the Property Appraiser's Office. Each sale was inspected, photographed and the transaction verified with a party considered knowledgeable as to the details of the transaction and motivation of the parties, principally with the buyer, seller, real estate broker or manager involved. Qualitative and quantitative adjustments are made to comparable sales in order to obtain an indication of value of the subject.

Market research was made of national and local economic trends, survey of available financing and market derived equity returns, and research into appropriate financial and capitalization rates in order to estimate appropriate capitalization and yield rates applicable to the subject. Appropriate capitalization rates are applied to the estimated net income in order to capitalize the income to an indication of value.

Reconciliation of the value indications, with emphasis placed on the approach(es) considered most reflective of current market activity for final value estimate.

VALUATION DEFINITIONS

Estate is, “1. An owner’s degree, quantity, nature, and extent of interest or interests in property. There are many different types of estates, including freehold (fee simple, determinable fee, and life estate) and leasehold. To be an estate in land, an interest must allow possession (either now or in the future). See also freehold estate; leasehold estate. 2. The property of an individual at a point in time.”¹ As related to property, the terms estate and interest are synonymous for the purpose of this appraisal. Unless otherwise distinguished, the term property indicates real property in this report.

Fee simple estate is the property interest represented by, "absolute ownership unencumbered by any other interest or estate, subject only to the limitations imposed by the governmental powers of taxation, eminent domain, police power, and escheat."²

Leased fee estate or interest is, “the ownership interest held by the lessor, which includes the right to receive the contract rent specified in the lease plus the reversionary right when the lease expires.”³

Leasehold estate or interest is, “the right held by the lessee to use and occupy real estate for a stated term and under the conditions specified in the lease.”⁴

Excess Land - In regard to an improved site, the land not needed to serve or support the existing improvement(s). In regard to a vacant site or site considered as though vacant, the land not needed to accommodate the site’s primary highest and best use. Such land may be separated from the larger site and have its own highest and best use, or it may allow for future expansion of the existing or anticipated improvement.

Hypothetical condition is, “(1) a condition that is presumed to be true when it is known to be false. (Appraisal Institute Standards of Valuation Practice-SVP); or (2) a condition, directly related to a specific assignment, which is contrary to what is known by the appraiser to exist on the effective date of the assignment results but is used for the purpose of analysis. Comment: hypothetical conditions are contrary to known facts about physical, legal, or economic characteristics of the subject property; or about conditions external to the property, such as market conditions or trends; or about the integrity of data used in analysis. (USPAP, 2024 ed., page 4)”⁵ As an example, this condition is sometimes applied to an anticipated zoning change.

Extraordinary assumption is, “An assignment-specific assumption as of the effective date regarding uncertain information used in an analysis which, if found to be false, could alter the appraiser’s opinions or conclusions. Comment: Uncertain information might include physical, legal, or economic characteristics of the subject property, or conditions external to the property, such as market conditions or trends, or about the integrity of data used in an analysis. (USPAP, 2024 ed., page 4)”⁶

Market Value for the purposes of this appraisal, as defined in the Federal Register, Department of the Treasury Agencies’ appraisal regulations, “the most probable price which a property should bring in a competitive and open market under all conditions requisite to a fair sale, the buyer and seller each acting prudently and knowledgeably, and assuming the price is not affected by undue stimulus. Implicit in this definition are the consummation of a sale as of a specified date and the passing of title from seller to buyer under conditions whereby:

- Buyer and seller are typically motivated;
- Both parties are well informed or well advised, and acting in what they consider their own best interests;
- A reasonable time is allowed for exposure in the open market;
- Payment is made in terms of cash in U.S. dollars or in terms of financial arrangements comparable thereto; and
- The price represents the normal consideration for the property sold unaffected by special or creative financing or sales concessions granted by anyone associated with the sale.”⁷

Market value is also defined as: “The most probable price, as of a specified date, in cash or in terms equivalent to cash, or in other precisely revealed terms for which the specified property rights should sell after reasonable exposure in a competitive market under all conditions requisite to a fair sale, with the buyer and seller each acting prudently and knowledgeably, and for self-interest, and assuming that neither is under undue duress.”⁸

Market value is described, not defined, in the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice (USPAP) as, “a type of value, stated as an opinion, that presumes the transfer of a property (i.e., a right of ownership or a bundle of such rights), as of a certain date, under specific conditions set forth in the value definition that is identified by the appraiser as applicable in an appraisal.”⁹

Prospective opinion of value is, “a value opinion effective as of a specified future date. The term does not define a type of value. Instead, it identifies a value opinion as being effective at some specific future date. An opinion of value as of a prospective date is frequently sought in connection with projects that are proposed, under construction, or under conversion to a new use, or those that have not yet achieved sellout or a stabilized level of long-term occupancy.”¹⁰

Retrospective value opinion is defined as: “a value opinion effective as of a specified historical date. The term retrospective does not define a type of value. Instead, it identifies a value opinion as being effective at some specific prior date. Value as of a historical date is frequently sought in connection with property tax appeals, damage models, lease renegotiation, deficiency judgments, estate tax, and condemnation. Inclusion of the type of value with this term is appropriate, e.g., “retrospective market value opinion.”¹¹

Encumbrance is defined as, “any claim or liability that affects or limits the title to property. An encumbrance can affect the title such as a mortgage or other lien, or it can affect the physical condition of the property such as an easement. An encumbrance cannot prevent the transfer of possession, but it does remain after the transfer.”¹²

Fixture is defined as, “an article that was once personal property but has since been installed or attached to the land or building in a rather permanent manner so that it is regarded in law as part of the real estate.”¹³

In Florida, a Development of Regional Impact (DRI) refers to a large-scale development project that, due to its size, nature, or location, is likely to have a substantial impact on the health, safety, and welfare of citizens in more than one county. These projects often involve complex review processes and require approvals from multiple governmental agencies. Here's a more detailed breakdown:

- Impact: DRIs are identified by their potential to affect multiple jurisdictions, often extending beyond the immediate boundaries of the local government.
- Review Process: Florida has specific regulations and thresholds for determining if a project qualifies as a DRI.
- Purpose: The DRI process aims to ensure that large-scale developments are planned and implemented in a way that minimizes negative regional impacts and maximizes positive regional benefits.
- Examples: DRIs can include various types of development, such as large residential complexes, commercial centers, airports, and attractions.
- Historical Context: While the term "Development of Regional Impact" is still used, Florida has streamlined the DRI process and emphasized local government involvement over time.

MARKET AREA: LOCATION, DESCRIPTION AND TREND

A market area is a geographic area wherein occupants usually have an observable commonality of interests. Market areas can be large areas, equating to an entire county or even a group of counties, depending on the purpose of analysis. Habitats, buildings and business enterprises may be relatively uniform, as in a district or neighborhood, all within a larger market area; that is, a smaller area exhibits a greater degree of commonality than the larger area. For example, there may be a retail district and/or industrial zone within a mixed use neighborhood which includes residences, and this neighborhood and other connecting neighborhoods and districts may form a larger market area. A market area is the area from which demand for a particular property or use is drawn and will vary by use type. For example, the market area for a community shopping center is larger than the market area for a neighborhood or strip shopping center.

There is no set life expectancy for a market area, neighborhood or district, and major changes can interrupt the order of the stages. In some instances, after a period of decline, a neighborhood may undergo a transition to other land uses, or its life cycle may begin again due to revitalization and redevelopment of land or buildings.

Social considerations in a market area analysis involve a description of occupants and visitors revealing their reasons and motivations for living, working and visiting within the market area. These reasons may include the market areas reputation, environment and availability and convenience to employment, shopping/service centers and recreation centers. Demographic analysis is often related to driving times and linkages to commonly used supporting properties and facilities, rather than by specific census tracts.

A residential neighborhood is typically a group of complementary land uses, such as homes, schools and neighborhood commerce, whereas a district may be characterized by homogenous land uses, such as industrial districts or office districts or high-rise districts. Although a market area may be confined to a neighborhood, a market area is often larger and may include a broad array of land uses and several neighborhoods and census tracts. Some of the smallest areas of commonality may be referred to as traffic analysis zones or commercial nodes which are based on specific traffic routes and particular roadway intersections.

Each neighborhood or district has a dynamic quality of its own, which is described as the life cycle of a neighborhood or district. The complementary land uses that comprise neighborhoods and the homogenous land uses that comprise districts typically evolve through four stages.

1. Growth - A period during which the neighborhood gains public favor and acceptance.
2. Stability - A period of equilibrium without marked gains or losses.
3. Decline - A period of diminishing demand.
4. Revitalization - A period of renewal, modernization and increasing demand.

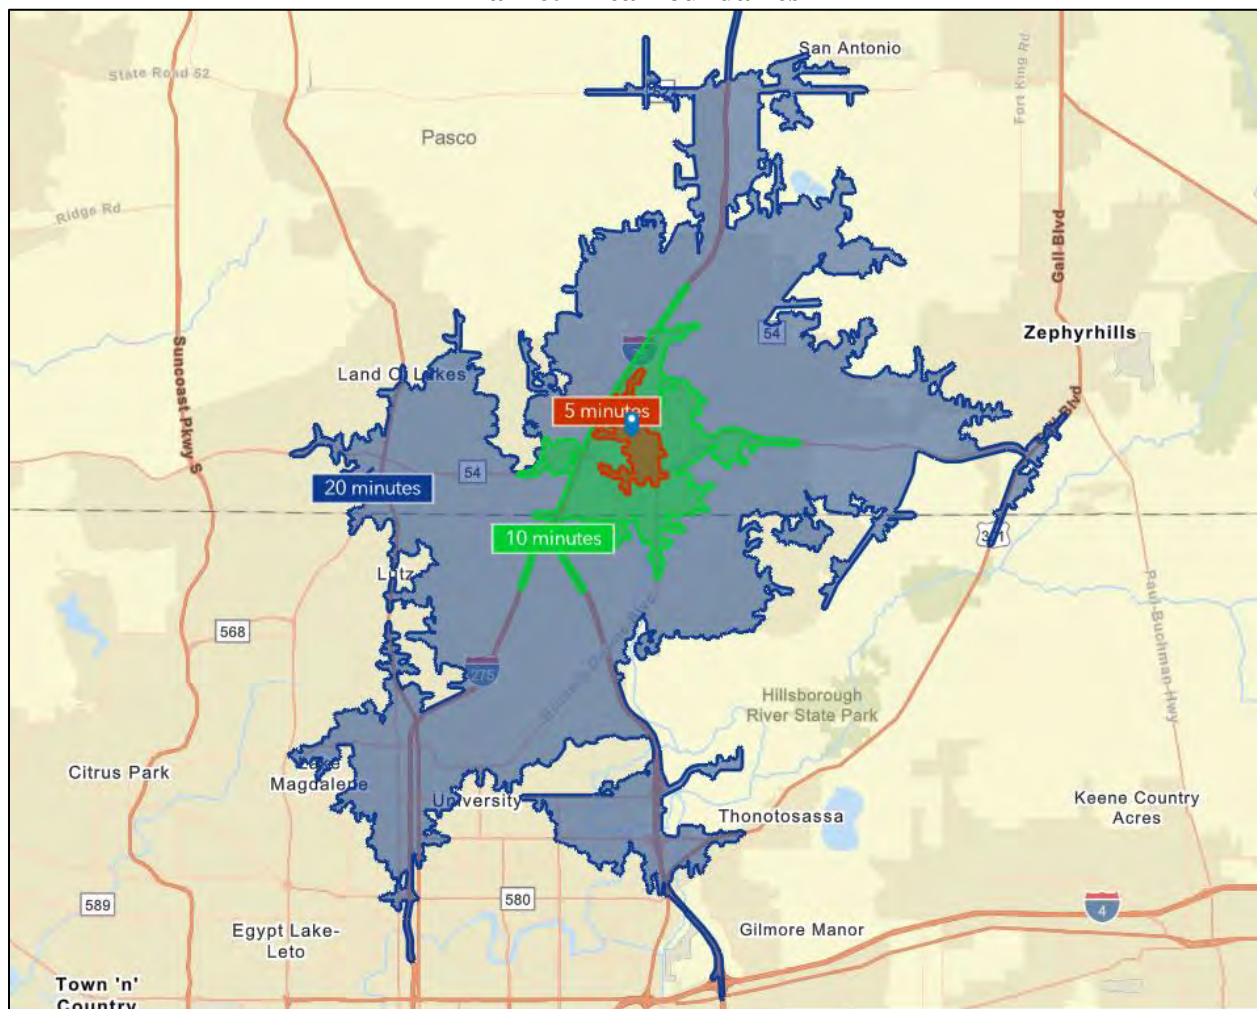

The demographic analysis that follows was obtained using information from the Appraisal Institute / Site To Do Business data service. The compiled information is based on forecast modifications to the 2010 census utilized for demographic projections.

Market Area

The subject is an office building with excess land located on a collector with residential subdivisions. The immediate market or neighborhood surrounds the traffic artery and extends for approximately two miles, but residents and visitors travel to and from a broader market area. The subject is located in the Tampa-St. Petersburg-Clearwater metropolitan statistical area.

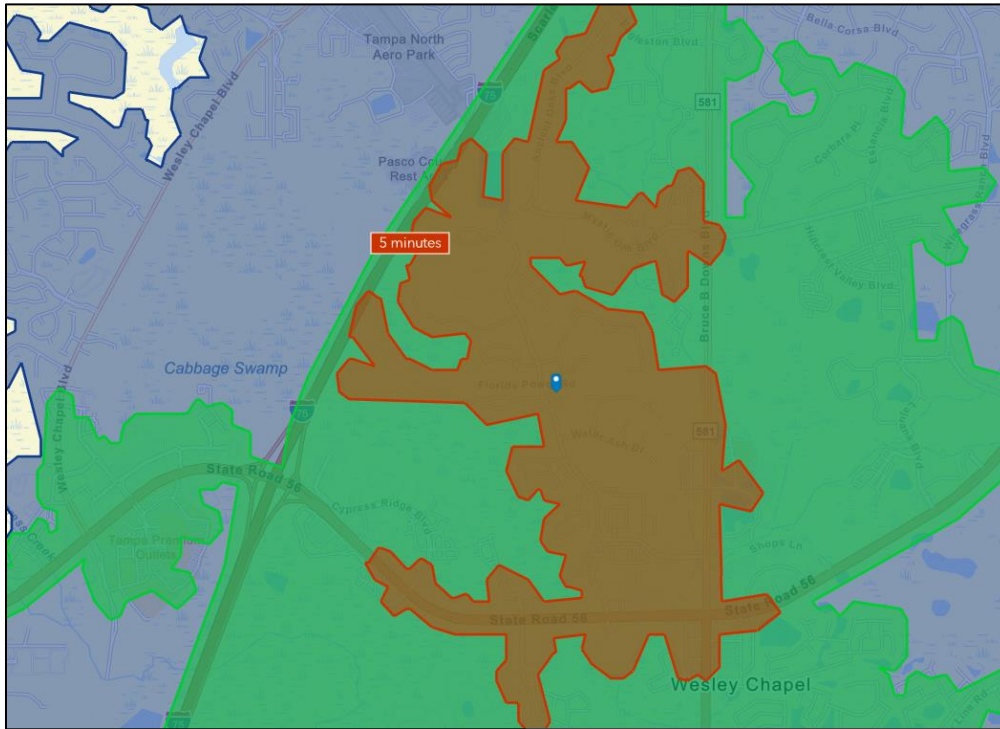

A Drive Time analysis was prepared using 5, 10 and 20-minute drive times. For the subject property, the broader market area is generally described using a 20-minute drive time from the subject property, which best represents the potential market area in terms of the concentration of potential users and employees. The main transportation route through the market area, Interstate 75, extends from north of Tampa to Michigan, and south through Hillsborough County to southern Florida. State Roads 56, 54, and CR 581, and Interstate 275 are also major traffic arteries.

Economic Influences

Economic considerations involve the financial capacity of a neighborhood's occupants to rent or own property, to maintain it in an attractive and desirable condition, and to renovate or rehabilitate it when needed. In general, residential property values declined during the 2008-2009 recession, but have continued to improve since about 2012. The market area is expected to continue with increasing population levels and corresponding growth of housing units and stable to increasing home values.

Business Climate and Economic Activity

In the five-minute market area, there is an approximate ratio of 79.9% white-collar occupations and 11.6% services occupations.

Employment and Unemployment

The subject four-county MSA unemployment in June 2025 was approximately 4.0% from a civilian labor force of about 1,710,000 throughout Pinellas, Hillsborough, Pasco and Hernando Counties.

Unemployment rates for May 2024 and May 2025 were as follows.

In June 2025, the unemployment rate for Florida was 3.7%, from a civilian labor force of about 11.2 million. The U.S. unemployment rate was 4.2% in July 2025. Please see chart of Tampa Bay MSA 10-year historical unemployment trends.

Governmental Influences

The subject market area includes a large area of the south middle of Pasco County and a large area of northern middle Hillsborough County. The market area is governed by these jurisdictions for future land use plans and zoning codes. The purpose and primary effect of the Future Land Use Plan is to provide a general outline for growth for a given area in an attempt to support and provide for orderly growth within the state. The implementation of this land use plan has the effect of eventually requiring the zoning ordinances to be in compliance with the plan within a reasonable period of time. The designations, therefore, of the land use plan should be viewed as the long-term intentions with respect to a given land area and its boundaries. Most commercial land uses are designated along major traffic arteries and at commercial nodes within the market area, which are often surrounded by residential uses. The governmental tax burdens within the market area appear to be in proportion to the governmental services provided.

Environmental Influences

Property uses within the market area include residential uses, including single-family, condominiums, apartments and supporting commercial uses that include retail stores, restaurants, professional services, medical services and banking, among other uses. The main transportation routes are Interstate 75 and 275. The primary commercial corridors include east-west SR 54 and SR 56, and north-south Bruce B. Downs Boulevard, US 41 and North Dale Mabry Highway in this market. Places of worship and schools are also convenient. Fire and police protection appear to be adequate for the present population. The market area has good transportation routes via roadways connecting linkages. In addition to nearby recreational gulf and bay waters, there are parks and golf courses also nearby.

Conclusion

Outlook for the subject neighborhood appears favorable. Nearby commercial and residential properties have relatively high and improving occupancy and market rental rates. Newer and redeveloped commercial and residential properties are evident in and around this market. The substantial population base within and surrounding the market area provides a good employee pool and consumer base. Growth of population and housing are expected to increase significantly in the future, yet at a rate less than the last fifteen years. The population density is expected to increase in the market area long term, as more intense development occurs on the available land and underdeveloped sites. Property values are generally increasing and are expected to appreciate over the long term. These factors favorably influence the subject neighborhood and the greater market area, and no adverse factors were noted.

REAL PROPERTY ASSESSMENTS AND TAXES

The subject parcel identification and assessments are obtained from the Property Appraiser's office as noted below. The 2024 millage rate for ad valorem taxes on real property is 16.9431 mills in the subject district. Taxes for 2024 are paid and there are no delinquent taxes.

Real Property Assessments and Taxes 2024

Parcel Number	Assessed Value	Ad Valorem Taxes	Non-Ad Valorem	Total Gross Tax	Total Net Tax
25-26-19-0000-0010-0080	$409,011	$6,930	$ 16,246	$23,176	$22,249
Total	$409,011	$6,930	$ 16,246	$23,176	$22,249

Assessed values are based on a property's condition as of January 1 of each year and are preliminary until certified to the Florida Department of Revenue in June. The county Property Appraiser first estimates a market or just value, then applies various caps or exemptions to arrive at taxable values, which may vary among taxing authorities. The 10% cap on annual assessment increases for commercial properties while under the same ownership does not apply to school board taxes. Non-Ad Valorem taxes are not based on value but are typically fixed amounts for a fire, lighting, road or water district. Therefore, it may not be possible to estimate taxes by simply multiply the assessed value by the millage rate. The tax millage rate in a geographic district is determined by the amount of funds necessary to provide all governmental services, such as schools, police, fire/rescue, library, etc., divided by the overall tax base.

A Truth in Millage (TRIM) notice setting forth proposed taxes is sent to property owners in August, with an appeal period through September. The final millage rate is established by each county commission in October, and property tax invoices are then mailed to owners for earliest payment during November.

Property taxes in Florida are due by March 31, but may be paid as early as November 1, when a 4% discount is allowed. The discount decreases by 1% per month until March, when there is no discount. Prudent property owners typically take advantage of the 4% discount and pay real estate taxes in November, rather than in March of the following year.

Taxes become delinquent April 1, after which time a penalty is imposed. Certificates for delinquent taxes are auctioned approximately 60 days from delinquency, and the holder of a tax certificate may seek foreclosure to recoup investment or to acquire title in approximately 22 months if taxes and penalties remain unpaid.

LAND USE AND ZONING CLASSIFICATION

The Land Use plan sets forth the physical plans for growth and development of a community. The primary thrust of the Plan is to determine the overall development of the county, where it was, where it is today and how the future land use patterns and policies will reflect and meet the needs of growth tomorrow, and zoning is a specifically delineated area or district within which regulations and requirements uniformly govern the use, placement, spacing and size of land and buildings. The Land Use Plan and Zoning work hand in hand and must be compatible in intent prior to development of any property.

In the event of pre-existing conditions of lot or building non-conformities, a property may be considered legally conforming per a “grandfather” rule. Pre-existing conditions in compliance, which predate adoption of zoning regulations or become non-conforming by virtue of right-of-way changes, typically will place the property in a special exception category as legally non-conforming.

Zoning

MPUD – Master Planned Unit Development

The subject land is located within a development zoned MPUD – Master Planned Unit Development, which designates allowable uses for parcels within the MPUD. One 3,637 square foot professional office building is located on the subject site. The owner anticipated development of the 2/3 of the site which remains undeveloped with another 7,163 square feet of professional office but use of the site is/was limited to recreation use. The owner filed a petition challenging a denial of a request to allow the full scope of office uses, eventually resulting in a settlement, which is presented below.

CONCURRENCY AND IMPACT FEES

The 2011 Amendments to Chapter 163, Florida Statutes, required local governments to adopt comprehensive land use plans that include minimum specified levels of service for four types of public services and facilities, including sanitary sewer, stormwater, potable water and solid waste. Chapter 163 also prohibits local governments from issuing development permits if levels of service are below the specified level or if the development's impact would cause levels of service to fall below the specified levels. This means that the availability of public facilities must be concurrent with the impacts of the development. The original concurrency requirements became effective in January 1990. A local government may extend the concurrency requirement so that it applies to additional facilities within its jurisdiction such as schools, transportation including mass transit, and parks and recreation

According to employees of the Planning and Land Use/Zoning Department, it does not appear that concurrency guidelines would adversely affect typical development on the subject site.

Impact/Mobility Fees

The local and county jurisdictions charge water, sewer and transportation impact fees on new development. Redevelopment is charged the difference between the fees required under the new classification and those required under the previous classification.

Permit and Service Fees

Each jurisdiction typically has several departments monitoring the various aspects of property development. Additional permit fees, plan review fees, hookup charges, inspection fees, service fees, deposits, and special fees, such as, tree removal/replacement charges, may all be applicable to new construction. If all impact/mobility fees, permit fees, and service charges are applicable to a development, then the total cost is typically between 2% and 5% of the total project's development costs, including land and improvements.

SITE DESCRIPTION

Data sources for this site description include information provided by the Property Appraiser's office, other public records, a personal inspection by the appraisers and review of a site plan and survey.

Site Description

The subject is located at the northeast corner of Ancient Oaks Boulevard and Sports Core Circle. The subject has approximately 192 feet of Ancient Oaks Boulevard frontage but is separated from the boulevard by an unimproved strip of land approximately 25-30 feet wide owned by Seven Oaks Community Development District 1. The subject parcel has 332.68 feet along its northerly boundary which abuts an electrical utility easement for overhead transmission with an access road and power lines. Its easterly boundary is adjacent to the Seven Oaks Community Recreation Center tennis courts, pool and clubhouse. The subject's site is irregular in shape and contains a total of approximately 50,530 square feet or 1.16 acres. Approximately one-third of this site is dedicated to the existing office building and approximately two thirds is vacant and considered excess land. The excess land area is densely vegetated and generally level but slightly below sidewalk grade. Perpendicular parking for the improved office building is provided to the front of the building along the site's southerly boundary. This parking area is owned by the CDD. Public right-of-way parking is not available.

Soil is sandy, typical for the area, and it is assumed that no adverse subsoil conditions exist. Municipal potable water and wastewater disposal are available to the site, as are electric and telecommunication services. There are no known impediments to development. Drainage and utility easements appear typical.

Encumbrances

According to the county Property Appraiser maps, there were no significant easements related to the subject site. However, typical utility easements may be present and should not negatively affect the property. The appraiser is not aware of any title encumbrances, easements, encroachments, deed restrictions, covenants, association rules, special assessments or other possible encumbrances which may adversely affect title to the subject property. No title search information has been presented to the appraiser.

IMPROVEMENT DESCRIPTION

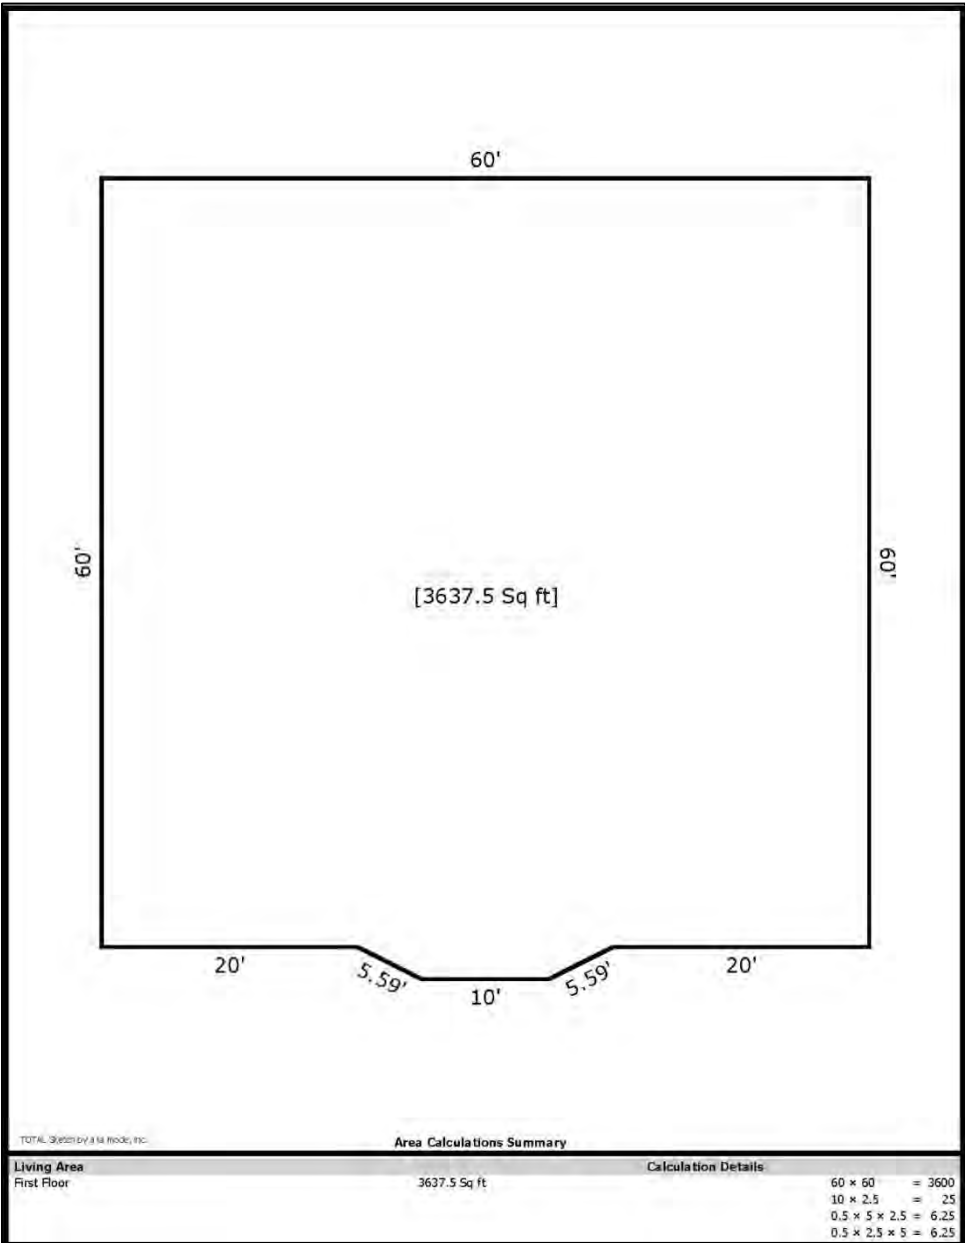

Data source for description of improvements includes the Property Appraiser's office and personal inspection. The interior of the subject building was inspected and photographed. Building dimensions were taken from Property Appraiser records and verified by appraiser field measurements where possible.

The subject property is improved with a one-story masonry office building with concrete block and stucco walls with concrete tile roof cover. The interior is of above average quality with 3,637 square feet of gross building area. This office building utilizes approximately 1/3 of the site. Constructed in 2003, finished areas include a reception area, seven offices, a conference room, a kitchenette, file storage room, work room and two handicapped accessible restrooms. Each restroom has two fixtures. The building's architecture and interior finishes are of good design, good quality materials and above average workmanship. The entry/reception area consists of a raised rotunda with decorative ceiling finish and chandelier, and the reception area floors consist of travertine tile. Other floor areas consist of good quality low pile commercial grade carpet, ceramic or porcelain tile and VCT. Each office has glass partial walls above a wainscot fronting the hallways. Ceiling height in office areas is approximately nine feet. Reception area has a height of approximately twelve feet. The entire building is air conditioned. The roof structure is wood truss and plywood decking under the flat-tile roof covering. This report is subject to receipt of satisfactory structural, mechanical and roof inspections.

Quality, Condition and Economic Life

The subject building improvements appear to be of average to good quality materials and average to good workmanship, as compared to similar buildings constructed in this community at about the same time as the subject's construction. No opinion can be expressed as to the original building plans or the obtaining of proper building permits, however, as built in 2003 this structure likely meets county and state building regulations.

General condition of building is average to good. Chronical age of subject building is 22 years (2025-2003). Economic life of buildings similar to subject building is typically 50 years. Estimated effective age of building is 15 years, indicating remaining economic life of 35 years.

Deferred maintenance appears minor, limited to pressure washing, cleaning and touch up painting.

Site Improvements

Site improvements are asphalt paving, concrete sidewalks, landscaping, lighting, underground drainage and laterals for municipal water and sewer. Site improvements appear adequate and functional. Economic lives of site improvements typically range between 20 and 50 years, depending on the item and its standard useful life.

Personal Property

No personal property is applicable.

MARKETABILITY AND ESTIMATED MARKETING PERIOD

Marketability looks at the market appeal of the subject property; more specifically, it analyzes and supports a reasonable marketing period to affect the sale of the subject property. Included in this analysis is a discussion of supply, competition, and demand of the subject property and competitive properties located within the market area.

Marketability is defined as, “the relative desirability of a property (for sale or lease) in comparison with similar or competing properties in the area.”¹⁴ That is, a property with good marketability has superior features or condition in comparison with competing properties.

A marketability study is “a microeconomic study that examines the marketability of a given property or class of properties, usually focusing on the market segment(s) in which the property is likely to generate demand. Marketability studies are useful in determining a specific highest and best use, testing a specific highest and best use, testing development proposals, and projecting an appropriate tenant mix.”¹⁵ While this type of study is typically quite detailed and specific, a brief version is part of the highest and best use analysis of every appraisal.

A marketability analysis is defined as, “the study of how a specific property is expected to perform in a specific market. A marketability analysis expands on a market analysis by addressing a specific property.”¹⁶

Market value estimates imply that an adequate marketing effort and reasonable time for exposure occurred prior to the effective date of the appraisal.

Exposure time is, “(1) the time a property remains on the market, or (2) the estimated length of time the property interest being appraised would have been offered on the market prior to the hypothetical consummation of a sale at market value on the effective date of the appraisal. Exposure time is always presumed to occur prior to the effective date of the appraisal.”¹⁷

“Exposure time is different for various types of property and under various market conditions. It is noted that the overall concept of reasonable exposure encompasses not only adequate, sufficient, and reasonable time but also adequate, sufficient, and reasonable effort. This statement focuses on the time component.

The fact that exposure time is always presumed to occur prior to the effective date of the appraisal is substantiated by related facts in the appraisal process: supply/demand conditions as of the effective date of the appraisal; the use of current cost information; the analysis of historical sales information (sold after exposure and after completion of negotiations between the seller and buyer); and the analysis of future income expectancy projected from the effective date of the appraisal.”¹⁸

Marketing time is defined as, “an opinion of the amount of time it might take to sell a real or personal property interest at the concluded market value level during the period immediately after the effective date of the appraisal. Marketing time differs from exposure time, which is always presumed to precede the effective date of an appraisal.”¹⁹

Strengths & Weaknesses

Strengths of the subject include a well-constructed building of good quality materials and workmanship.

A weakness of the subject is that it is located on an internal collector roadway with little exposure to traffic that does not live within the Seven Oaks subdivisions. This makes the site less conducive to retail or attractive to those who desire visibility from significant traffic. Additionally, the permitted uses are somewhat limited per agreement with the present owner and the Seven Oaks CDD.

Reasonable Exposure and Marketing Period for Subject

The appraiser must analyze historical data and future projections in order to estimate historical market exposure time and the future marketing period. According to owners and brokers active in the subject’s market area and in similar markets, it was revealed that there is an increasingly active market for this type of property throughout the area and in the subject’s local market. The presence of an active market was supported by review of data obtained from the Property Appraiser’s office for transfer of such properties. During the last few years, the marketing period for similar properties has typically ranged from four to twelve months, but with some properties requiring more than twelve months if they are of an unusual condition or if they appear to be priced above the market. The subject property should be well received if placed on the market for sale. Based on the above, we estimate a typical exposure period for comparable sales of nine months. Similarly, a marketing period for the subject of nine months is estimated. This includes the subject office building and excess land sold at same time.

Selling commissions in order to affect the sale of a property similar to the subject are usually 6.0% and downward. For the subject property type and its value range, a commission level of 5.0% is typical.

Availability of Mortgage Financing

At the present time, third-party financing is readily available for acquisition and/or development of properties similar to the subject. Conversations with commercial bank lenders implied that appropriate interest rates for properties similar to the subject would typically range from approximately 6.0% to 7.0%, dependent on the term and length of period between interest rate reviews. The loan-to-value ratio would typically range between 50% and 75% of value. Additional prerequisites for approval of financing include the personal guarantee of the owner, as well as an excellent credit history and prior successful ownership of properties similar to the subject. Strength and quality of the cash flows from the property and the condition of the property would also be considered. Typical buyers are owner/users or experienced property investors with motivation of positive cash flow.

¹⁸ Appraisal Institute, Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice and Advisory Opinions 2006 Edition, The Appraisal Foundation, USA, 2006, p. 90.

¹⁹ Appraisal Institute, The Dictionary of Real Estate Appraisal, Sixth Edition, Appraisal Institute, Chicago, Illinois, 2015, p. 140.

HIGHEST AND BEST USE ANALYSIS

The highest and best use concept is reflective of a basic assumption about real estate and market behavior; that the price a buyer will pay for a property is based on their conclusion about the most profitable use of the site or property. Therefore, sites and improved properties tend to be put to their highest and best uses and, in this manner, maximize the profit potential for the property owner.

The determination of a property's highest and best use may or may not conform with the existing use of the site because the alternative uses of the site may be restricted by the presence of improvements or legal encumbrances. The highest and best use is determined separately for the land or site as though vacant and available to be put to its highest and best use than for the improvements.

Highest and best use is defined as, "(1) the reasonably probable use and property that results in the highest value. The four criteria that the highest and best use must meet are legal permissibility, physical possibility, financial feasibility, and maximum productivity. (2) the use of an asset that maximizes its potential and that is possible, legally permissible, and financially feasible. The highest and best use may be for continuation of an asset's existing use or for some alternative use. This is determined by the use that a market participant would have in mind for that asset when formulating the price that it would be willing to bid. (3) the highest and most profitable use for which the property is adaptable and needed or likely to be needed in the reasonably near future. (Uniform Appraisal Standards for Federal Land Acquisitions). "²⁰

The first determination reveals the fact that land value is derived from potential land use. Land has limited value unless there is a present or anticipated use for it; the amount of value depends on the nature of the land's anticipated use. According to the concept of surplus productivity, the highest and best use of a site is that use among all reasonable alternative uses that yields the highest present land value after payments are made for labor, capital, and coordination.

The highest and best use of a property as improved refers to the optimal use that could be made of the property, including all existing structures. The implication is that the existing improvement should be renovated or retained as long as it continues to contribute to the total market value of the site, or until the return from a new improvement would more than off-set the cost of demolishing the existing building and constructing a new one.

To determine the highest and best use of the subject site, as if vacant, the use must meet four criteria. The highest and best use must be 1) legal permissibility, 2) physically possible, 3) financially feasible, and 4) maximally productive. These criteria should usually be considered sequentially; a use may be financially feasible, but this is irrelevant if it is physically impossible or legally prohibited.

²⁰ Appraisal Institute, The Dictionary of Real Estate Appraisal, Sixth Edition, Appraisal Institute, Chicago, Illinois, 2015, p. 109.

Legal Permissibility

Restrictions, zoning codes, building codes, land use controls, and environmental regulations are considered because they may preclude many possible highest and best uses.

- The subject site is zoned MPUD – Master Planned Unit Development, in which a variety of uses are permitted, limited by parking, setback and lot coverage requirements.
- The subject site is of sufficient size to meet minimum development criteria.
- The existing office building is allowed most uses which are allowed in typical office zoned districts.
- The vacant land may be developed with up to 7,163 square feet of office or other buildings with principal uses including amusement arcade, indoor golf driving range, pool hall, dance school, movie theater, martial arts or yoga studio, acting or music studio, spa and personal trainer. Accessory and ancillary uses include office for a swimming or tennis coach, day care for children, medical office for a doctor practicing sports medicine, physical therapist, occupational therapist, massage therapist, chiropractor, nutritionist, office for the operator of the Clubhouse (HOA, CDD, etc.), fitness supplement store, fitness store for apparel and equipment, smoothie bar, café/eating place similar to the Nutrition Factory, laundry, dry cleaning facility limited to drop off/ pick up.

Physically Possible

The size, shape, area, and terrain of a site affect uses to which land may be developed.

- The subject site is 50,530 square feet or 1.16 acres, is generally level and readily developable with utilities available. The excess land portion is heavily vegetated with mature trees and shrubbery and is slightly below grade of existing sidewalk. As vacant the portion with the existing office is pad ready for development.

The site has adequate frontage for visibility. Primary vehicle access is from Sports Core Circle (owned by the CDD), off Ancient Oaks Boulevard.

- No soil tests were available. However, improvements in the general area have typically been constructed without undue foundation expense.
- Municipal potable water, sewer, garbage collection and electricity are available.
- Overall, the site size, topography, configuration, and orientation are sufficient for development.

Financially Feasible

All the potential uses of the subject site that are expected to produce a positive return are regarded as financially feasible and are examined here.

- The market area population is served by good quality linkages providing good quality access throughout the county, the MSA and statewide. The market area population, social characteristics, and income characteristics are average. The outlook for the market area is positive, with growth expected for the economic base, population and income characteristics.
- Certain office uses are permitted and will fit the site. The office market is improving, yet investors are taking a conservative approach to speculative building. However, the market appears to support build to suit space.

Maximally Productive

Physically, the subject can support combinations of building area scenarios in multiple story designs, limited by floor area ratio and parking requirements. However, market demand and rental rates do not typically support the additional costs for vertical construction and structured parking in this neighborhood. For this reason, all developments in the neighborhood are of one or occasionally two-story design.

As if vacant, the maximally productive use of the subject site is for development to office use in a single story design. According to the Settlement between owner and CDD, the site could be developed with up to 10,800 square feet of improved building area. As there is an existing 3,637 square foot building, an additional 7,163 square feet of building area may be added. Some perpendicular parking is currently provided to the front of the site and, with full development of the site, additional onsite parking is likely required in the excess land area.

Highest and Best Use As If Vacant

Physically, the subject property is suitable for office development, and legally, the subject site can be developed with certain office uses. The subject site has average quality linkages, along with access and visibility from Ancient Oaks Boulevard.

Financial analysis of all physically possible and legally permissible uses indicates the property will be best utilized for a build-to-suit development of an office use consistent with zoning regulations, or to hold for future development until economic conditions improve sufficiently to support speculative development.

As if vacant and available, the subject site has a highest and best use for development to limited office use and other uses such as child care, physical therapy and related recreational uses as supported by the market and the Settlement between owner and the CDD.

Highest and Best Use As Improved

As currently improved, the existing office building is allowed typical uses as may be found in nearby professional office developments. The building contributes value to the site and is therefore representative of its highest and best use as improved, but underutilizes the overall site and leaves room for an additional 7,163 square feet of building development.

INTRODUCTION TO THE APPRAISAL PROCESS

Traditionally, three approaches are used to arrive at an estimate of market value, the cost, sales comparison, and income capitalization approaches. Ideally, each approach, properly employed, provides an accurate indication of value, but, due to the unique characteristics of various types of properties, one or more of the approaches may be inappropriate or inapplicable in arriving at an estimate of value. The three approaches are:

Cost Approach

The cost approach is based on the principle of substitution, that no prudent person would pay more for a property than the cost to acquire a similar site and construct a building of equal desirability and utility, assuming no undue or costly delay. The procedure involves first estimating value of the site as if vacant. Anticipated direct and indirect costs necessary to reconstruct all improvements are then estimated, predicated upon labor and material prices prevailing on the appraisal date. From this construction cost estimate, deductions are made for accrued depreciation caused by physical deterioration and functional and economical obsolescence. This depreciated cost figure is then added to the estimated value of the site, resulting in the indication of value by the cost approach. The cost approach is most accurate when applied to a relatively new structure with no functional deficiencies, and which represents highest and best use of the site. The depreciation estimates are difficult to precisely measure from market data, so the indication of value may largely depend on the experience, judgment and ability of the appraiser, especially for older improvements.

Sales Comparison Approach

The sales comparison approach is also based on the principle of substitution; that a prudent person would pay no more for a property than the cost to acquire another property of similar desirability or utility. The process involves the collecting, analyzing, and comparing of sales, listings and offers for properties similar to the property under appraisal. After the most comparable property transactions are identified, adjustments are made for such variables as changes in market conditions since date of sale, location, size, physical characteristics and terms of sale.

Advantages of the sales comparison approach are that it permits direct comparison of the property under appraisal to factual market transactions involving similar properties, and that it is probably the approach most easily understood. Limitations of the sales comparison approach are that no two properties are identical, and dissimilarities between the comparable properties and the subject may relate to intangible qualities that are difficult to measure. Application of this approach may be limited by the lack of data for specific types of properties.

Income Capitalization Approach

The income capitalization approach is based on the principle of anticipation; that value of a property may be measured by the present worth of anticipated future benefits accruing to the ownership and use of the property. The procedure involves estimating gross income the property is capable of producing, then deducting vacancy/collection losses and expenses which might be incurred in the operation. Resultant net income, as estimated by the appraiser, is converted to an indication of value through various means of capitalization or discounting.

The income capitalization approach is most accurate in valuation of income producing properties. If sufficient sales of tenant-occupied, investor-owned comparables may be located, the income capitalization approach can provide a highly accurate value indication. The approach, however, has limited application for non-income producing properties, such as vacant land.

Reconciliation of Value Indications

Final step in the valuation process is reconciliation of value estimates indicated by the approaches outlined above, weighting each according to their relative importance, based on market appropriateness and availability and reliability of data. Dependent on type of property and purpose of appraisal, one or all of the approaches may be considered reliable. Result of this final reconciliation of values is the estimate of value as defined in the report.

Valuation Methodology

The three approaches to market value estimation were considered. As discussed earlier, depreciation for existing improvements must be measured in the market, using data from the sales comparison approach. For this reason, the cost approach does not provide an independent estimate of value and has not been developed. Additionally, the improved office building is typically acquired by owner-occupants, rendering the income capitalization approach less applicable. The sales comparison approach does include data of sufficient quantity and quality to derive a reasonably accurate indication of value and has been developed and reported below.

SALES COMPARISON APPROACH – OFFICE BUILDING

The sales comparison approach, like the cost approach, is based on the principle of substitution; in other words, the value of a property should be no higher than the cost to acquire another property offering similar physical or locational attributes.

This procedure involves market research to identify similar properties which have recently sold or are offered for sale, investigation of the sale transactions to insure their validity and to determine motivating forces, and comparison of the sold properties to the subject, adjusting prices paid for various dissimilarities having a discernible effect on value. Adjustments are made for such factors as changes in market conditions since time of sale, location, size, land area, income producing capabilities, and if available, terms of sale.

This analysis is usually processed on a “unit of comparison” basis. The unit of comparison most commonly employed for improved properties such as the subject is price paid per square foot of building area including land and may be analyzed separately from land value on a contributory value basis.

The application of the market or sales comparison method requires the appraiser to follow the following steps:

1. Market research - to obtain information about transactions, listings and other offerings similar to the subject.
2. Verification of the information to determine if it is factual, accurate, reflects arm's length market conditions, and whether or not any unusual terms or conditions were present.
3. Develop relevant units of comparison.
4. Compare the subject and comparable sales according to the elements of comparison and adjust the sales price of each comparable toward the subject.
5. Reconcile the multiple value indications that result from the comparable sales into a single value indication.

Applying the sales comparison approach to value to the subject property, these five steps were employed. In our research of the public records, we searched for sales with a highest and best use the same as or similar to the highest and best use of the subject and with buildings of generally similar construction quality, size, age and condition. The comparable sales were verified with a principal of the transaction, or with persons with direct knowledge of the transaction.

In the verification process, we have attempted to obtain additional data that is normally appropriate in the sales comparison approach. This data would include the intended use of the property, mortgage terms, extraordinary acquisition or development costs, and any other data deemed relevant.

Salient data regarding the comparable sales considered most indicative of value of the subject follow.

Improved Comparable Sales Map

Analysis of Comparable Improved Sales

All comparable improved sales are adjusted toward the subject for either the comparable's superior or inferior characteristics. The size of the adjustments applied to the comparable sales are in proportion to the magnitude of the difference between the comparable sale and the subject as perceived in the market.

Commercial properties are typically analyzed on a unit of comparison basis. The unit of comparison to be used is that unit customarily used in the market in the subject property's locale. After discussions with commercial developers and investors and as evidenced by market activity, it is believed the overall sale price per square foot of gross heated and cooled building area is appropriate as the unit of comparison for the sales comparison approach. Since the gross building area and the gross leasable area were similar for each comparable property, we did not further distinguish any difference for square foot comparisons.

There were a variety of comparable sales found in the subject market. The sales presented herein are the best data available and represent a reasonable basis from which to estimate value of the subject building and supporting land in the current market.

Conditions of Sale

There may be a variety of conditions of a sale for which adjustments are applicable, including contributory value of FF&E or personal property, concessions by seller, below market seller financing, pay-outs by buyer such as for back taxes, and atypical motivation by buyers or sellers, such as the duress to sell under threat of foreclosure or quick liquidation of a lender-owned property.

Conditions of sale are important to the explanation of each transaction. The conditions of sale for most commercial property transactions conform to the definition of market value as applied to real estate. That is, there is a reasonable amount of exposure time, buyers and sellers are well informed of the property and the market, and neither buyer nor seller under duress to transact.

The improved sales were all verified as arm's length transactions, and all sales were found to be equivalent to cash transactions. No concessions were found to distort the price of each sale as reported. All sales represent realty. The motivations of the buyers and sellers were found to be typical for the marketplace.

Market Conditions

The comparable sales are adjusted for changes in market conditions which have occurred between the date of the comparable sale and the date of the value estimate of the subject site. The degree of the adjustment is in proportion to the magnitude of change that has occurred in the market in the subject property's locale, between the date of the comparable sale and the date of valuation of the subject. The greater the magnitude of change that has occurred, the greater the upward or downward adjustment is to be applied to the comparable price.

Supported by increasing demand and low interest rates, real estate prices in the market area increased steadily from 1995 to about 2007, with a pause in 2001. Due to declining demand, a price leveling became noticeable by late 2007 for most property types. Historically, the annual increases typically averaged 3% to 5% in early years, then climbed to rates between 10% and 20%, possibly more for certain locations during 2004 to 2006, but price increases generally halted, then retreated as demand abated. Prices were fairly stable in 2007, declined in 2008 and 2009 before beginning to stabilize in 2010. Pricing was essentially flat in 2010 and 2011 and began slowly increasing by 2012 and continuing into 2025. All comparables sales are increased at a market appreciation rate of 6.0% per annum.

Zoning / Land Use

This category considers differences in the zoning, current and future land use of the comparables as related to the subject. Properties allowing more intensive uses typically sell for higher prices per unit than those with more use restrictions in place and are adjusted accordingly. Zoning designations of the comparables were the same or reasonably similar to the existing subject building and required no adjustment.

Community Development District

The subject is within a district that requires payment of annual assessments of approximately $16,000, of which about 25% is for bond payment which expires in eight years. None of the comparable sales are within a CDD; however, the comparables typically pay a CAM expense to respective Property Owner Associations. An adjustment of -5.0% is applied to comparables not within a CDD.

Location

The adjustment for location is made for market relevant factors such as proximity to complementary supporting uses, zoning and land use regulations, traffic design and traffic volumes, corner influence, transportation and utilities linkages and demographic characteristics, including population density, buying power, primary work force age, disposable income, etc. In general, several of the comparables were superior to the subject as related to traffic and linkages, and some comparables were inferior. Some comparables are located on corners and have superior exposure. The majority of comparables have similar locations. One comparable has an inferior location due to transportation linkage.

Floor Area Ratio – FAR

The Floor Area Ratio reflects the ratio of land to building area, which affects ease of access, parking and the ability to expand. For example, a small site will feel cramped and a parking space may not be available during certain times of the day. All comparable sales are in parks which have estimated 0.20 FARs similar to the subject building with allocated land for 0.22. It is common that FARs for office parks are typically in a range of 0.19 to 0.22 including the pad site and allocated common area.

Building Size

Adjustments for building size may be given based upon economies of scale for materials and job labor, and also because the land cost may be averaged over a smaller building area. Typically, smaller buildings are given negative adjustments, as they exhibit higher costs per square foot, and larger buildings are given positive adjustments. Although one sale was about 40% larger, it was adjusted for partial second floor space without elevator. Otherwise, no comparable was of significantly larger or smaller size than the subject, so no adjustments were warranted.

Physical Characteristics

Comparison of physical characteristics included consideration for differences of architectural appeal and building quality, effective age and condition which reflects the degree of maintenance, building size and parking availability.

Comparables with superior quality of construction materials or other characteristics were given negative adjustments, and those comparables with inferior construction were given positive adjustments. The comparables do not have the fine architectural appeal as the subject. Also, most comparables were slightly inferior to the subject good quality construction. Two comparables with medical theme interiors are superior to the subject office interior, and other comparables are slightly inferior to the subject office interior and design. The effective ages of the comparables varied, but all comparables were built after subject construction year 2003, and their estimated effective ages were superior to subject.

Summary of Sales Comparison Approach – Office Building

Prior to adjustments, the sales indicated a range of prices from $311.00 to $351.16 per building square foot. The prices of all comparables were then adjusted for transactional and market conditions and locational and physical differences, as perceived by the marketplace. This analysis indicated an adjusted price range from $323.80 to $361.06 per square foot.

We also searched for listings similar properties and none were found in the subject immediate neighborhood. A listing on the market for one month located at 17718 Hunting Bow Circle with 3,500 square feet has an asking price of $1,300,000 or $371 per square foot. The location off SR 54 west of US 41 is inferior to the subject. The medical interior and the effective age are superior to the subject. This property is in a professional office park east of Suncoast Parkway and is offered as a 6.68% capitalization rate for an investment. Adjusting for minor differences indicated an adjusted price for the listed comparable of approximately $350.00 per square foot, but again noting that it is a listing and not a sale.

With primary emphasis on Sales 1, 2 and 3, the nearest sales, and Sale 6, the most recent sale, it is our opinion that $350.00 per square of gross building area best represents the indication of market value of the subject office with allocated land by the sales comparison approach.

3,637 square feet x $350.00 per square foot = $1,272,950 or Rounded, $1,275,000

SALES COMPARISON APPROACH – EXCESS LAND

To estimate the value of the site as if vacant, the site is compared with recent sales of sites having a similar highest and best use and other similar characteristics. Comparable land sales are reduced to a common denominator or unit of comparison such as price per front foot, square foot or acre, price per buildable square foot, or price per dwelling unit, a common land use index. Adjustments are then applied for factors such as favorable financing, zoning, environmental and physical characteristics and other factors previously noted.

In searching the Public Records, a number of land sales were found. However, most were discarded, as they were considered so dissimilar that no supportable indication of value for the subject could be determined. Several land sales, however, exhibited characteristics sufficiently similar to the subject site and are included in this analysis.

Please refer to the land sales summary chart and location map included within this section for orientation. The comparable land sales were purchased for development generally consistent with the highest and best use of the subject property.

This comparable demonstrates the strong demand of commercial growth in the subject’s wider neighborhood. This outparcel comparable was cleared at sale. It is significantly larger than subject excess land. The comparable has superior location within a significant commercial development. Visibility will likely be diminished in the future with development along Wesley Chapel Boulevard to the west. However, this comparable has been developed with a high wall structure as Kohl’s department store next to At Home retailer.

There was no distress in this arm's length cash transaction. The property was previously purchased in 2018 in a larger land acquisition of $7,250,000.

Analysis of Comparable Land Sales

All comparable land sales are adjusted toward the subject site for either the comparable sites' superior or inferior characteristics in relation to the subject site. The size of the adjustments applied to the comparable land sales are in proportion to the magnitude of the difference perceived in the market between the comparable land sale and the subject site.

Land is typically analyzed on a unit of comparison basis. The unit of comparison used in the appraisal is the unit of comparison that is customarily used by purchasers in the market in the subject property's locale. After discussions with developers and investors and as evidenced by market activity, it is believed the overall sale price per square foot is appropriate as the unit of comparison and will be utilized in the following analysis process.

Conditions of Sale

There may be a variety of conditions of a sale for which adjustments are applicable, including contributory value of FF&E or personal property, business value, below-market seller financing, pay-outs by buyer such as for back taxes, and atypical motivation by buyers or sellers, such as the duress to sell under threat of foreclosure or quick liquidation of a lender-owned property.

Conditions of sale are important to the explanation of each transaction. The conditions of sale for most commercial property transactions conform to the definition of market value. That is, there is a reasonable amount of exposure time, buyers and sellers are well informed of the property and the market, and neither buyer nor seller is under duress to transact.

The comparable sales were verified as arm's length transactions, and all sales were found to be equivalent to cash transactions. All sales represent realty. The motivations of the buyers and sellers were found to be typical for the marketplace. Transactions reflected an owner user or an investor's motivation to buy.

Market Conditions

The comparable land sales are adjusted for changes in market conditions which have occurred between the date of the comparable land sale and the date of the value estimate of the subject site. The degree of the adjustment is in proportion to the magnitude of change that has occurred in the market for land in the subject property's locale, between the date of the comparable land sale and the date of valuation of the subject site. The greater the magnitude of change that has occurred, the greater the upward or downward adjustment is to be applied to the comparable price.

Analysis shows stability and appreciation, and analysis of a larger sample of comparable land sales throughout the area and discussions with brokers, buyers, and investors in the area, all indicate that property values are stable to increasing. Brokers and investors will typically have a broader sample upon which to base conclusions and a good indication for buyer's expectations, motivations and activity in the market area.

Supported by increasing demand, it appears land prices in the market area increased steadily from about 2001 until about 2006, when the economic slowdown began. The annual increases typically averaged 3% to 5% in early years, then climbed to rates between 10% and 20%, possibly more for certain locations, in 2004 and 2005, then flattened as demand slowed and were declining by 2008. The decline of values increased in 2009, was generally flat in 2010 and 2011 and began slowly improving by 2012. Prices increased rapidly from 2013 through 2015, then increases moderated, yet continued upward into 2025. All comparable sales are increased at a rate of 6.0% per annum.

Contributory Value

In cases when a comparable sale has improvements which contributed to the purchase price, the estimated value of those improvements may be subtracted from the purchase price in order to estimate the portion of the price paid for the land. Also, any personal property which may have contributed to a transaction price is subtracted in order to determine the price paid for the real property. Conversely, when existing improvements or personal property are costly to remove in order to prepare the real property for highest and best use, the removal expenses may be added to the purchase price. No comparable sales were adjusted for these factors.

Extraordinary Site Development Costs

Extraordinary site development costs include any cost necessary to ready the comparable site for development in excess of what is typical in the market and applicable to the subject. The extraordinary costs may include excessive grading, fill dirt, legal expenses, off-site improvements, etc. Where applicable, cost of extraordinary site development is added to the nominal purchase price of the comparable sites to render the adjusted purchase price. No comparable sales were adjusted for these factors.

Community Development District

The subject is within a CDD district that requires payment of annual assessments. None of the comparables are located within a CDD district or in a park requiring CAM reimbursement. An adjustment of -5.0% is applied to those not within a CDD. This adjustment includes a $28,400 bond pay-off coincident to a sale of the subject land and office buildings.

Zoning and Land Use

This category considers differences in the zoning, current and future land use of the comparables as related to the subject. Properties allowing more intensive uses typically sell for higher prices per unit than those with more use restrictions in place and are adjusted accordingly. Zoning designations of the comparables generally allowed for a broader range of potential uses and required negative adjustments, except for Sale 2 with BPO limited use zoning. However, it is important to focus on what uses may be allowable and appropriate and have sufficiently supportive demand, rather than those that are prohibited.

Location

The adjustment for location is made for market relevant factors such as proximity to complementary supporting uses, size of roadway and traffic volumes, transportation linkages, population and labor markets and corner influence. Negative adjustments were applied to those sales which have superior locational characteristics, and, conversely, a positive adjustment is given if a comparable has an inferior locational character.

Physical Characteristics

Adjustments were made for terrain, soil characteristics, configuration and general utility or developability of the site, as well as utility availability.

Configuration and utility of the comparable sales were generally similar to the shape and developability of the subject, except for one comparable which is triangulated and given plus adjustment for its slight impairment of development.

Size

The adjustment for difference in size is based upon the economic principle of diminishing marginal returns, which states that the rate of return beyond a certain point fails to increase in proportion to additional investments of labor or capital. Capital in this sense refers to physical assets such as land or building, and not money. The above principle states that the greater the land area, or quantity of units purchased, a developer will typically pay less for each additional land unit, thus lowering the overall average unit sale price. Although assemblage or plottage may be necessary and result in the assembled site having greater value than the sum of the parts, this states that larger sites will typically sell for a lower price per square foot than a smaller site.

The comparable sites ranged in size of 27,007 to 200,000 square feet. The subject excess land is 33,686 square feet. Sites of significantly greater size than the subject's size would require a positive adjustment, while sites of significantly smaller size than the subject would typically require a negative adjustment. However, the adjustments may be tempered by the inflexibility or limited utility of a comparable site. Sale 1 is considerably larger and adjusted upward. Sale 2 is somewhat larger and is adjusted upward at a lesser degree.

Summary of Land Value

The sales comparison approach is one of the narrowing of a range in values. In other words, adjustments were applicable to the comparable sales for all factors which can be measured by market data, reducing the sales prices to a smaller range in values.

The comparable sales ranged from $7.44 to $18.10 per square foot. Following adjustment, the range in prices was from $8.88 to $15.64 per square foot. With emphasis on Sale 2 with limited commercial use and heavily vegetated, Sale 4 with nearest in size and heavily vegetated and with light emphasis of Sale/Listing 5 with a similar degree of visibility as the subject, it is our opinion the $12.00 per square foot best represents market value for the subject excess land.

Final value estimate of excess land value is, rounded, approximately $400,000.

$$33,686 \text{ square feet} \times $12.00 \text{ per square foot} = $404,232, \text{ or rounded } $400,000$$

INCOME CAPITALIZATION APPROACH

For this assignment the income capitalization approach was not employed. N/A

RECONCILIATION AND FINAL VALUE ESTIMATE

The value conclusions of the Cost, Sales Comparison and Income Capitalization Approaches are as follows:

Cost Approach	N/A
Sales Comparison Approach:
Office Building with Land	$1,275,000
Excess Land	$ 400,000
Income Capitalization Approach	N/A

The cost approach is most appropriate when the improvements represent the highest and best use of the site, the improvements are relatively new and depreciation is limited. Due to the age of the improvements, depreciation is difficult to measure in the market, and the cost approach is considered less reliable and was not employed.

The sales comparison approach employs the principal of substitution, meaning that a buyer would pay no more for the subject property than the price for which they could acquire a similar property offering similar utility and investor goal fulfillment. A variety of sales of properties quite similar to the subject were found throughout the market, and those considered most applicable to the subject were included within the report. Based on analysis of these sales, the indication of value of the subject excess land and office building by the sales comparison approach is considered quite reliable, and the indication of value is given primary weight.

$ 1,275,000	Building & Supporting Land
$ 400,000	Excess Land
$ 1,675,000	Total Subject Value

The income capitalization approach was not utilized in the estimation of value for the subject property.

Therefore, with full weight on the sales comparison approach, it is our opinion that the market value of the fee simple estate of the subject property, in as-is condition and as of the appraisal date, July 14, 2025, is approximately $1,675,000.

At this time, it is unclear what effect, if any, these laws might have on any property in any given county. As various legislative and judicial action is pending, the reader is cautioned to fully investigate the likelihood of development moratorium or other governmental action with appropriate municipal, county, or state officials.

15. It is assumed that the utilization of the land and improvements is within the boundaries or property lines of the property described and that there is no encroachment or trespass unless noted in the report.

16. Appraisal does not constitute an inspection for compliance with local building, fire, or zoning codes. Reader is advised to contact local government offices to ensure compliance with applicable ordinances.

17. This appraisal report covers only the premises herein; and no figures provided, analysis thereof, or any unit values derived therefrom are to be construed as applicable to any other property, however similar they may be.

18. Distribution of the total valuation in this report between land and improvements applies only under the existing program of utilization. Separate valuations of land and improvements must not be used in any other manner, nor in conjunction with any other appraisal, and are invalid if so used.

19. Certain data used in compiling this report was furnished by the client, his counsel, employees, and/or agent, or from other sources believed reliable. However, no liability or responsibility may be assumed for complete accuracy.

20. An effort was made to verify each comparable sale noted in the report. There are times when it is impossible to confirm a sale with the parties involved in the transaction; however, all sales are confirmed through public records.

21. Consideration for preparation of this appraisal report is payment in full by the client of all charges due the appraiser in connection therewith. Any responsibility by the appraiser for any part of this report is conditioned upon full and timely payment.

22. The appraiser, by reason of this report, is not required to give testimony in court with reference to the property herein, nor obligated to appear before any governmental body, board, or agent, unless arrangements have been previously made therefor.

23. Unless otherwise noted, this appraisal has been prepared solely for the private use of the client who is listed above as the addressee. No other party is entitled to rely on the information, conclusions, or opinions contained herein.

24. Neither all nor any portion of the contents of this appraisal shall be conveyed to the public through advertising, public relations, news, sales, or other media without the written consent and approval of the appraiser, particularly as to valuation conclusions, identity of the appraiser or firm with which he is connected, or any reference to the Appraisal Institute or to the MAI designation. Furthermore, neither all nor any portion of the contents of this appraisal shall be used in connection with any offer, sale, or purchase of a security (as that term is defined in Section 2(l) of the Securities Act of 1933) without the prior express written consent of the appraiser.

25. Possession of this report or copy thereof does not convey any right of reproduction or publication, nor may it be used by any but the client, the mortgagee, or its successors or assigns, mortgage insurers, or any state or federal department or agency without the prior written consent of both the client and the appraiser, and, in any event, only in its entirety.

26. Before any loans or commitments are made predicated on value conclusions reported in this appraisal, the mortgagee should verify facts and valuation conclusions contained in this report with the appraiser.

27. Cost estimates for construction or reproduction of improvements are based on information from Marshall Valuation Service and other sources referenced in the report and are assumed accurate.

28. Estimates of expenses, particularly as to assessment by the County Property Appraiser and subsequent taxes, are based on historical or typical data. Such estimates are based on assumptions and projections which, as with any prediction, are affected by external forces, many unforeseeable. While all estimates are based on our best knowledge and belief, no responsibility can be assumed that such projections will come true.

29. Responsible ownership and competent property management are assumed.

30. Unless stated otherwise, the possibility of hazardous material, which may or may not be present on the property, was not observed by the appraiser during the course of the normal inspection and research conducted during the appraisal assignment. The appraiser, however, is not professionally qualified to detect such substances, and inspection by a professional in the field is recommended for any property. The presence of substances such as asbestos, urea-formaldehyde foam insulation, or other potentially hazardous materials could affect the value of the property, if found. The value estimate is predicated on the assumption that there is no such material on or in the property that would cause a loss in value. No responsibility is assumed for any such conditions, or for any expertise or engineering knowledge required to discover them. This appraisal report is subject to receipt of an environmental audit confirming that no hazardous or toxic material is located on the premises. Should such material be discovered, final value estimates herein would be reduced by the cost to remove such substances and to restore the premises to serviceable condition and may further be reduced by indirect expenses and income losses incurred by the owner during abatement. Such adjustments to the value estimate contained herein may be made only by the appraiser and only upon receipt of the environmental audit, construction cost estimates and other data satisfactory to the appraiser at his sole discretion.

31. The Americans With Disabilities Act (ADA), enacted in 1990, provided civil rights protection to persons with disabilities. Title III of this act provides that persons with disabilities are to be provided access equal to, or similar to, that available to the general public in all areas of "public accommodation," which generally means any retail, recreation, social service or lodging establishment. It does not apply to "commercial facilities," which could be a single-tenant office or manufacturing facility, and generally does not require alterations to existing buildings, unless other alterations are made. This latter is subject to interpretation, but it should be assumed that any significant renovation requiring a building permit will also require that the building be brought to current handicap requirements for all or a portion of the building. The appraiser is not professionally qualified in these matters, this appraisal does not constitute an inspection as to compliance with the provisions of the act, and no responsibility is assumed for any known or unknown conditions related to the act, civil rights or building code provisions. A number of professional engineering firms specialize in these matters, and such professional advice should be obtained if there is any doubt as to conformity existing.

INTEREST CHARGE CALCULATION

Your Annual Percentage Rate (APR) is the annual interest rate on your account.

Type of Balance	ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE (APR)	Balance Subject to Interest Rate	Days in Billing Cycle	Interest Charge
Purchases	14.25% (v)	$0.00	30	$0.00

(v) = variable (f) = fixed

Paying Interest and Your Grace Period: We will not charge you any interest on your purchase balance on this statement if you pay your new balance amount in full by your payment due date.

Beginning August 1, 2019, the cash reward tiers on your Valley OneCard will be changing.

See the table below:

Tiers	Cashback %
$0 - $500,000	0.25
$500,001 - $1,500,000	0.60
$1,500,001 - $4,000,000	0.75
$4,000,001 - $12,500,000	0.90
$12,500,001 +	1.00

Your accumulated rewards will not change, however beginning August 1, rewards on additional spend will be calculated using the percentages above.

This change will not impact the timing of your rewards credit (i.e. if you were due to receive your rewards in September, you will still receive them in September).

INFORMATION ABOUT YOUR VALLEY ONECARD ACCOUNT

As used below, you and your refer to the accountholder (i.e., the corporate customer) and we, our and us refer to Valley National Bank. Your Valley OneCard is issued and credit is extended by Valley National Bank.

MAKING PAYMENTS

You will pay us the total amount shown as due on each Billing Statement on or before the Payment Due Date shown on that Billing Statement. If you do not make payment in full by the payment due date, in addition to our other rights under your Agreement, we may, at our option, assess a late fee and finance charge in accordance with your Agreement. There is no right to defer any payment due on an Account. In addition, you will pay us the amount of all fees and charges according to the schedule of charges currently in effect. All charges are subject to change upon 30 days prior notice, except that any increase in charges to offset any increase in fees charged to us by any supplier for services used in delivering the services covered by your Agreement may become effective in less than 30 days.

Payments will be automatically deducted from the Valley Bank [business checking account] that you have designated. Should payment not be received for any reason, you may incur additional fees and finance charges. All credits for payments to your Account are subject to final payment by the institution on which the item of payment was drawn. Payments on your Account will be applied in the following order: finance charges, fees, your Account balance.

BALANCE COMPUTATION METHOD

[We calculate the average daily balance on your Account in two categories: (1) Purchases and (2) Cash Advances. To get the "average daily balance" for each category, we take the beginning balance of your Account for that category each day. We then add any new transactions in that category, which may include Fees and Interest. We then subtract any new payments or credits. This gives us the daily balance for each category. We then add up all the daily balances for each category for the billing cycle. We then divide the total by the number of days in the billing cycle. This gives us the Average Daily Balance for Purchases and the Average Daily Balance for Cash Advances.]

INTEREST

In the event you do not pay your balance(s) in full by the due date, your balance(s) may be subject to an interest rate or interest charges, as further described in your Agreement. Your due date is the 25th of each month. If the 25th falls on a weekend or holiday, your payment will be due the business day before the weekend/holiday. We will not charge you interest if you pay your balance(s) in full by the due date each month.

CREDIT BALANCE

Any credit balance on your Account] is money we owe you. You can make charges against this amount or request a full refund of the amount by calling us at the Contact Us number on the front of this statement.

NOTICE TO PAST-DUE CUSTOMERS:

If there is a message on this statement that your account is past due, this is an attempt to collect a debt; any information we obtain will be used for that purpose.

WHAT TO DO IF YOU THINK YOU FIND A MISTAKE ON YOUR STATEMENT

If you or a Cardholder think there is an error on your statement, call us at (844) 626-6581 international (301) 665-4442. or write to us at: PO Box 2988 Omaha, NE 68103-2988 .

You must contact us within 60 days after the error appeared on your statement. Please provide us with the following information:

- Account information: Your name and account number.
- Dollar amount: The dollar amount of the suspected error.
- Description of Problem: Describe what you believe is wrong and why you believe it is a mistake.

While we investigate whether or not there has been an error, the following are true:

- We cannot try to collect the amount in question, or report you as delinquent on that amount.
- The charge in question may remain on your statement, and we may continue to charge you interest on that amount. But, if we determine that we made a mistake, you will not have to pay the amount in question or any interest or other fees related to that amount.
- While you do not have to pay the amount in question, you are responsible for the remainder of your balance.
- We can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit.

YOUR RIGHTS IF YOU ARE DISSATISFIED WITH YOUR VALLEY ONECARD PURCHASES

If you are dissatisfied with the goods or services that you have purchased with your Valley OneCard, and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the purchase. To use this right, all of the following must be true:

1. The purchase must have been made in your home state or within 100 miles of your current mailing address, and the purchase price must have been more than $50.
2. You must have used your Valley OneCard for the purchase. Purchases made with cash advances do not qualify.
3. You must not yet have fully paid for the purchase.

If all of the criteria above are met and you are still dissatisfied with the purchase, contact us in writing at PO Box 2988 Omaha, NE 68103-2988 or call us at (844) 626-6581 international (301) 665-444.

While we investigate, the same rules apply to the disputed amount as discussed above. After we finish our investigation, we will tell you our decision. At that point, if we think you owe an amount and you do not pay we may report you as delinquent.

TELEPHONE MONITORING AND RECORDING.

You acknowledge that telephone calls and other communications you provide to us may be monitored and recorded for training and quality control purposes. You agree that we may, and you authorize us to, monitor, record, retain and reproduce your telephone calls and any other communications you provide to us, regardless of how transmitted to us, as evidence of your authorization to act in connection with any Transaction, your Account or other service contemplated by this Agreement. We will not be liable for any losses or damages that are incurred as a result of these actions. We are not, however, under any obligation to monitor, record, retain or reproduce such items, unless required to do so by Applicable Law.

PAYING YOUR BILL

You are responsible for all legitimate, undisputed charges on your bill. Paying by check authorizes Frontier to make a one-time electronic funds transfer from your account, as early as the day your check is received. When making an online payment, please allow time for the transfer of funds. If funds are received after the due date, you may be charged a fee, your service may be interrupted, and you may incur a reconnection charge to restore service. A fee may be charged for a bank returned check. Continued nonpayment of undisputed charges (incl. 900 and long distance charges) may result in collection action and a referral to credit reporting agencies, which may affect your credit rating.

IMPORTANT MESSAGES

You must pay all basic local service charges to avoid basic service disconnection. Failure to pay other charges will not cause disconnection of your basic service but this may cause other services to be terminated. Frontier Bundles may include charges for both basic and other services. Frontier periodically audits its bills to ensure accuracy which may result in a retroactive or future billing adjustment. Internet speed, if noted, is the maximum wired connection speed for selected tier; Wi-Fi speeds may vary; actual and average speed may be slower and depends on multiple factors. Performance details are at frontier.com/internetdisclosures.

SERVICE TERMS

Visit frontier.com/terms, frontier.com/tariffs or call Customer Service for information on tariffs, price lists and other important Terms, Conditions and Policies ("Terms") related to your voice, Internet and/or video services including limitations of liability, early termination fees, the effective date of and billing for the termination of service(s) and other important information about your rights and obligations, and ours. Frontier's Terms include a binding arbitration provision to resolve customer disputes (frontier.com/terms/arbitration). Video and Internet services are subscription-based and are billed one full month in advance. Video and/or Internet service subscription cancellations and any early termination fees are effective on the last day of your Frontier billing cycle. No partial month credits or refunds will be provided for previously billed service subscriptions. By using or paying for Frontier services, you are agreeing to these Terms and that disputes will be resolved by individual arbitration. By providing personal information to Frontier you are also agreeing to Frontier's Privacy Policy posted at frontier.com/privacy.

REWARDS SUMMARY

Previous Cashback Balance	$3.30	THE MORE YOU SPEND, THE MORE YOU EARN
Cashback Earned this Statement	$13.18	$0-$500,000 = 0.25%
New Cashback Balance	$16.48	$500,001-$1,500,000 = 0.60%
Your cashback will be award on	Feb 2026	$1,500,00-$4,000,000 = 0.75%
		$4,000,001-$12,500,000 = 0.90%
		$12,500,001+ = 1.00%

INTEREST CHARGE CALCULATION

Your Annual Percentage Rate (APR) is the annual interest rate on your account.

Type of Balance	ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE (APR)	Balance Subject to Interest Rate	Days in Billing Cycle	Interest Charge
Purchases	14.25% (v)	$0.00	30	$0.00

(v) = variable (f) = fixed

Paying Interest and Your Grace Period: We will not charge you any interest on your purchase balance on this statement if you pay your new balance amount in full by your payment due date.

Beginning August 1, 2019, the cash reward tiers on your Valley OneCard will be changing. See the table below:

Tiers	Cashback %
$0 - $500,000	0.25
$500,001 - $1,500,000	0.60
$1,500,001 - $4,000,000	0.75
$4,000,001 - $12,500,000	0.90
$12,500,001 +	1.00

Your accumulated rewards will not change, however beginning August 1, rewards on additional spend will be calculated using the percentages above.

This change will not impact the timing of your rewards credit (i.e. if you were due to receive your rewards in September, you will still receive them in September).

INFORMATION ABOUT YOUR VALLEY ONECARD ACCOUNT

As used below, you and your refer to the accountholder (i.e., the corporate customer) and we, our and us refer to Valley National Bank. Your Valley OneCard is issued and credit is extended by Valley National Bank.

MAKING PAYMENTS

You will pay us the total amount shown as due on each Billing Statement on or before the Payment Due Date shown on that Billing Statement. If you do not make payment in full by the payment due date, in addition to our other rights under your Agreement, we may, at our option, assess a late fee and finance charge in accordance with your Agreement. There is no right to defer any payment due on an Account. In addition, you will pay us the amount of all fees and charges according to the schedule of charges currently in effect. All charges are subject to change upon 30 days prior notice, except that any increase in charges to offset any increase in fees charged to us by any supplier for services used in delivering the services covered by your Agreement may become effective in less than 30 days.

Payments will be automatically deducted from the Valley Bank [business checking account] that you have designated. Should payment not be received for any reason, you may incur additional fees and finance charges. All credits for payments to your Account are subject to final payment by the institution on which the item of payment was drawn. Payments on your Account will be applied in the following order: finance charges, fees, your Account balance.

BALANCE COMPUTATION METHOD

[We calculate the average daily balance on your Account in two categories: (1) Purchases and (2) Cash Advances. To get the "average daily balance" for each category, we take the beginning balance of your Account for that category each day. We then add any new transactions in that category, which may include Fees and Interest. We then subtract any new payments or credits. This gives us the daily balance for each category. We then add up all the daily balances for each category for the billing cycle. We then divide the total by the number of days in the billing cycle. This gives us the Average Daily Balance for Purchases and the Average Daily Balance for Cash Advances.]

INTEREST

In the event you do not pay your balance(s) in full by the due date, your balance(s) may be subject to an interest rate or interest charges, as further described in your Agreement. Your due date is the 25th of each month. If the 25th falls on a weekend or holiday, your payment will be due the business day before the weekend/holiday. We will not charge you interest if you pay your balance(s) in full by the due date each month.

CREDIT BALANCE

Any credit balance on your Account] is money we owe you. You can make charges against this amount or request a full refund of the amount by calling us at the Contact Us number on the front of this statement.

NOTICE TO PAST-DUE CUSTOMERS:

If there is a message on this statement that your account is past due, this is an attempt to collect a debt; any information we obtain will be used for that purpose.

WHAT TO DO IF YOU THINK YOU FIND A MISTAKE ON YOUR STATEMENT

If you or a Cardholder think there is an error on your statement, call us at (844) 626-6581 international (301) 665-4442. or write to us at: PO Box 2988 Omaha, NE 68103-2988 .

You must contact us within 60 days after the error appeared on your statement. Please provide us with the following information:

- Account information: Your name and account number.
- Dollar amount: The dollar amount of the suspected error.
- Description of Problem: Describe what you believe is wrong and why you believe it is a mistake.

While we investigate whether or not there has been an error, the following are true:

- We cannot try to collect the amount in question, or report you as delinquent on that amount.
- The charge in question may remain on your statement, and we may continue to charge you interest on that amount. But, if we determine that we made a mistake, you will not have to pay the amount in question or any interest or other fees related to that amount.
- While you do not have to pay the amount in question, you are responsible for the remainder of your balance.
- We can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit.

YOUR RIGHTS IF YOU ARE DISSATISFIED WITH YOUR VALLEY ONECARD PURCHASES

If you are dissatisfied with the goods or services that you have purchased with your Valley OneCard, and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the purchase. To use this right, all of the following must be true:

1. The purchase must have been made in your home state or within 100 miles of your current mailing address, and the purchase price must have been more than $50.
2. You must have used your Valley OneCard for the purchase. Purchases made with cash advances do not qualify.
3. You must not yet have fully paid for the purchase.

If all of the criteria above are met and you are still dissatisfied with the purchase, contact us in writing at PO Box 2988 Omaha, NE 68103-2988 or call us at (844) 626-6581 international (301) 665-444.

While we investigate, the same rules apply to the disputed amount as discussed above. After we finish our investigation, we will tell you our decision. At that point, if we think you owe an amount and you do not pay we may report you as delinquent.

TELEPHONE MONITORING AND RECORDING.

You acknowledge that telephone calls and other communications you provide to us may be monitored and recorded for training and quality control purposes. You agree that we may, and you authorize us to, monitor, record, retain and reproduce your telephone calls and any other communications you provide to us, regardless of how transmitted to us, as evidence of your authorization to act in connection with any Transaction, your Account or other service contemplated by this Agreement. We will not be liable for any losses or damages that are incurred as a result of these actions. We are not, however, under any obligation to monitor, record, retain or reproduce such items, unless required to do so by Applicable Law.
