Alumni Spotlight

Adam Johnson, class of 2006 has successfully created a Math YouTube Channel. He has reached over 100,000 subscribers, and more than 12 million views of his YouTube Channel: "Math with Mr. J". Adam started this channel in 2018 as an extension of his classroom teaching. He now has over 200 videos, and has reached teachers, parents/guardians, and students from all over the world. The videos align with math standards and can be used to help with homework, as a study tool, or to introduce new content. All material is free and available to anyone.

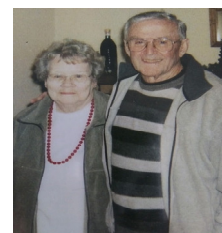

Adam has collaborated with his brother Daniel Johnson, '09 which has helped with the success of his channel's start up and growth. Adam is not just a full time YouTuber! He is a full time fifth grade math teacher in the Cardinal Local School district. He married Amber (Raines) Johnson '08. They currently reside in Perry with two children, Bo (4) and Quinn (10 mos). Adam graduated from Otterbein University in 2011 earning a Bachelor's degree in Middle Childhood Education with a focus in math and science. He has also earned a Master's of Education Degree from Western Governors University. Here's a link to Math with Mr. J: youtube.com/5thgradeMathwithMrJ
